Adult Formation/ Scripture Study

We will be starting a new Scripture Study program entitled "The Bible and The Sacraments". This program can unveil the mystery of the sacraments and their foundation in Sacred Scripture. It is a twelve-week video based study produced by the St Paul Center with Dr. Scott Hahn. The sessions will be offered on Monday evenings at 7:00 pm and the same session will be offered on Wednesday mornings at 10:30 am. Each session will last about one hour. There is a Study Guide that will cost $20, which also allows you to view the program from your home if you wish. We plan on starting on Monday January 17th. All sessions will be held in the Education Bldg. There may not be a sign-up sheet in the church Gathering Space, so if you are interested, please email or call Deacon Bob or Kathy Hart at 502-722-5026 so that the study guides can be ordered and arrive on time.

Annointment of the Sick

For the homebound, during all Masses for the weekend of February 12 and 13. Families, please make arrangements for homebound to be present! Assigned seats for them will be designated at the first pews of the church. Eucharistic ministers, you can help out by bringing our homebound to this special Mass.

PARISH LIFE

Church of the Annunciation Pastoral Plan

Every three years, each parish prepares a Pastoral Plan for the future. We have not had one in 20 years. In the month of February, all parishioners will be encouraged to fill a survey. It will be on the pews. Please, returned by the end of the month. A Pastoral Plan Committee will be working during the Lenten Season for 5 weeks to develop a future plan. The conclusions will be presented to the parishioners by summer.

Fat Tuesday Chili

Come and enjoy a good bowl of Chili prepared by our own Men's Club!

When: Tuesday, March 1st

Time: 6:30 pm

Location: Parish Hall

STEWARDSHIP

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It Takes All Kinds

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint. But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom. Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all. Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God’s instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God’s word? Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

As a young man marries a virgin,
your Builder shall marry you;
and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride
so shall your God rejoice in you. (Is 62:5)

PSALM:

Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations. (Ps 96)

SECOND READING:

But one and the same Spirit produces all of these,
distributing them individually to each person as he wishes. (1 Cor 12:11)

GOSPEL:

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory,
and his disciples began to believe in him. (Jn 2:11)

Saint of the Week

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.
