THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man. - Lk 2:51-52

The Mission of Incarnate Word Catholic Church

Endowed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, We, the members of the Incarnate Word Faith community, dedicate ourselves in a spirit of mutual respect, to live and proclaim the gospel message of Jesus Christ.

We are called to do this by reaching in to our parish family and reaching out to the universal Church and to the global community, by ministering to their spiritual, educational, social and material needs. We will do this by using our God-given gifts of time, talents, and treasures in an environment of collaborative ministry, in full harmony with the teachings and traditions of our Catholic faith.

Did you know this about the Knights of Columbus?

Over the next three weeks World War II veteran Paul Kerchum tells his story entitled: "In My Heart, I For-gave". For those of us living nearly 80 years later, this story seems unimaginable!

"Shortly before his 18th birthday, Paul Kerchum enlisted in the U.S. military to escape the gritty industrial towns of Ohio and western Pennsylvania where he had grown up. Now 101 years old, he recalls here his experiences as a POW, his long military career, the transforming influence of his wife, and why he joined the Knights of Columbus more than 40 years ago, as a charter member of Logan De Rosier Council 7521 in Benson, Ariz."

"I lived in a poor community during the Great Depression, and it was customary at age 16 to drop out of school and help support your family. I worked for two years until Jan. 6, 1938, when I decided to join the Navy and see the world. The first thing the Navy recruiter asked was: 'Do you have a high school diploma?' 'No,' I said. 'Go across the hall. They'll take anybody.' So, I joined the Army instead."

"After a two-year tour in Hawaii, I reenlisted and joined B Company, 31st Infantry in Manila, where I was a machine gun squad leader.

I was in the Philippines when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941. They soon had control of the air and seas in the Philippines, and in early January 1942, they broke through the main line of resistance. The 31st Infantry pulled a counterattack that led to a 13-day battle.

On the 13th day, a Japanese mortar exploded and threw me flat on my face. It destroyed my helmet. When I came to, two men were escorting me, and I kept saying, "I don't want to go to the hospital." And I didn't. That's when I started to pray. When the bullets were flying around, and bombs were bursting all around you, I said the Hail Mary. Believe me, I prayed.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur then implemented War Plan Orange, which called for all of the troops to retreat. When we retreated to the Bataan peninsula in Luzon, we were on half rations and in terrible shape. On Good Friday, April 3, the Japanese manned a massive offensive, and on April 9 Gen. King, commander of the troops on Bataan, surrendered an exhausted, hungry and disease-ridden army."

"What followed became known as the Bataan Death March — 55 miles (88 km) north from Mariveles to the San Fernando railhead. Men were shot, bayoneted, beheaded or beaten to death on that hot and dusty road. A lot of times I didn't see it. I took the middle of the file, kept my eyes forward, watched the legs in front of me and just kept walking. When somebody ran out of the file, I'd hear shots. One time, I saw somebody beaten to death when he ran out to get some sugar cane."

"At San Fernando, we were stuffed into boxcars, standing room only. We were offloaded at the village of Capas, then had a 9-kilometer hike to the first prison camp, Camp O'Donnell. A Japanese officer greeted us. I'll never forget his words: 'You are not prisoners of war,' he said. 'You are captives and you'll be treated like captives'."

Part II of Paul's story will appear next week or find the link to our feature story - and information on the Knights of Columbus at: IWKnights9981.com/bulletin or in facebook.com/IWknights9981 and NOW on Twitter at twitter.com/IWKnights.

In August of 2020, thanks in total to the generosity of many of our school families and parish friends, Incarnate Word Parish School was able to set up a nursery for our teachers with young children. The concept of an onsite nursery was to help retain those members of Incarnate Word's outstanding teaching staff who might otherwise be faced with leaving Catholic Education for higher paying employment as they start their young families and require daycare. As you may remember, the nursery is not funded by the parish or school. What you may not realize is that since the nursery is not funded by any source, the teachers pay monthly tuition to cover the cost of the nursery staff. We have donors who have inquired and are making nursery tuition contributions and thought there might be others who would be interested in doing so.

We currently have 5 staff with 7 babies utilizing the nursery.

One of the key components of a great school is having great teachers. During these years of the global pandemic, many of you have been able to witness virtually first hand, the devotion, dedication and perseverance of this fine staff determined to bring our students the very best they could during these extraordinary times while many schools, near and far, were not able to create the same successes for their students. Henry Brooks Adam said "Teachers affect eternity; no one can tell where their influence stops."

If you're able, we welcome your nursery tuition donations which will be tax deductible.

Please mark your remittance for IW nursery tuition donation and send to Mrs. Teresa Meyer in the parish business office. If you have any questions regarding your remittance, you may contact her at accounting@incarnate-word.org or 314-576-5366 x51.

Thank you!
