THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

The Mission of Incarnate Word Catholic Church

Endowed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, We, the members of the Incarnate Word Faith community, dedicate ourselves in a spirit of mutual respect, to live and proclaim the gospel message of Jesus Christ.

We are called to do this by reaching in to our parish family and reaching out to the universal Church and to the global community, by ministering to their spiritual, educational, social and material needs. We will do this by using our God-given gifts of time, talents, and treasures in an environment of collaborative ministry, in full harmony with the teachings and traditions of our Catholic faith.

I hope you had a holy and joy-filled celebration of Christmas and rang in 2022 with great hope! You will notice how quickly the world moves on from the celebration of the Incarnation, this most-important moment in the history of mankind. However, the Catholic Church celebrates Christmas all the way through the baptism of the Lord. We need the hope and calm of Christmas, now more than ever!

Fr. Sullivan, Fr. Schneier, and I want to thank all of you for the many thoughtful and generous ways you have made this Christmas special for us. Every year I am blown away by your thoughtfulness and kindness to your clergy and it helps fortify us for whatever is in store in the year ahead! Thank you for all the sweet treats, gifts, and cards that remind us that the Christ-child is very much alive and present in the hearts of the people of Incarnate Word.

Did you know this about the Knights of Columbus?

In today's Part II episode we pick-up the story (from last week) of World War II Army veteran Paul Kerchum (entitled: "In My Heart, I Forgave"). In Part 1 Paul recounted the brutal and infamous 55-mile forced Bataan Death March across the Philippines. Now we find him in a prison camp where the conditions are even harsher.

"His Years in Captivity: In the next two months, hundreds of Americans and thousands of Filipino soldiers died at O'Donnell. In early June 1942, I was transported to the main prison at Cabanatuan, where 3,000 Americans died in the next six months. You couldn't believe the brutality. Three Navy officers in our camp who tried to escape were captured and then beheaded. We were put in groups of 10, and if one escaped, then the other nine were shot.

Work details were sent to Taiwan, Japan and elsewhere. In early October 1943, I was part of a 500-man work detail sent to build an airfield near Las Pinas, 40 miles from Manila. All we had were rumors that help was on the way. We heard that for three and a half years.

One day, we were at the end of the runway when one of the men began pointing toward Manila. And there in the sky were hundreds of American and Japanese aircraft in aerial combat. Later, we learned that Gen. MacArthur had returned to the Philippines.

The next morning, 11 of us were stuffed into a ship, part of a convoy headed for Japan. No sooner had we left Manila Bay than we came under an American submarine attack. The holds were covered, and we remained in complete darkness, but we prayed for the best. We ran zigzag all over the South China Sea for days, being chased by American submarines. Approximately 5,280 Americans went down to the bottom of the sea when unmarked hell ships like ours were sunk by American submarines or aircraft.

We eventually landed in Japan and were stuffed into a train to Sendai. Then, we took a narrow-gauge railroad way up into the mountains, where we worked at Mitsubishi Mine No. 11. One day, a B-29 came over and dropped food, clothing and medicine with the news that the war was over. I began eating well and, soon enough, I was no longer a 75-pounder. They put us on a hospital ship, and for the first time in four years we slept in real beds."

In August of 2020, thanks in total to the generosity of many of our school families and parish friends, Incarnate Word Parish School was able to set up a nursery for our teachers with young children. The concept of an onsite nursery was to help retain those members of Incarnate Word's outstanding teaching staff who might otherwise be faced with leaving Catholic Education for higher paying employment as they start their young families and require daycare. As you may remember, the nursery is not funded by the parish or school. What you may not realize is that since the nursery is not funded by any source, the teachers pay monthly tuition to cover the cost of the nursery staff. We have donors who have inquired and are making nursery tuition contributions and thought there might be others who would be interested in doing so.

We currently have 5 staff with 7 babies utilizing the nursery.

One of the key components of a great school is having great teachers. During these years of the global pandemic, many of you have been able to witness virtually first hand, the devotion, dedication and perseverance of this fine staff determined to bring our students the very best they could during these extraordinary times while many schools, near and far, were not able to create the same successes for their students. Henry Brooks Adam said "Teachers affect eternity; no one can tell where their influence stops."

If you're able, we welcome your nursery tuition donations which will be tax deductible.

Please mark your remittance for IW nursery tuition donation and send to Mrs. Teresa Meyer in the parish business office. If you have any questions regarding your remittance, you may contact her at accounting@incarnate-word.org or 314-576-5366 x51.

Thank you!
