QUEEN of APOSTLES PASTORATE

Saint Peter Catholic Church

SAINT DENNIS PARISH

3RD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." - Lk 3:16

Saint Dennis Angel Tree

Gifts are due back this weekend Saturday, December 14 and Sunday, December 15 after each Mass. Bring your gift to Fellowship Hall so we may route your gift to the families in time for the Christmas Holiday. We have elves on stand-by who are carefully sorting all the gifts and getting them into Santa's sleigh. Again, thank you so much for participating and making this year a huge success. Questions? Christmas Pageant

The Queen of Apostles 2024 Christmas Pageant will be held on Monday, December 16 at 6:30 p.m. at Saint Dennis. Make your Christmas special.

Saint Peter Prayer Shawl

We will meet this Monday, December 16 at Saint Peter at 1:30 p.m. All are welcome to join us. If you know of someone who could use a prayer shawl, just call the office.

During the Renovation 2025 we will meet at the Lakeview Public Library in the back room with the fireplace. Mark your calendars for the following dates: January 6, February 3, February 17, March 3, March 17 and April 7. There will be no meeting on Monday, January 20 Martin Luther holiday. We return to Saint Peter on Monday, April 21.

Saint Dennis Prayer Shawl does not meet in December, but let us know if someone needs a prayer shawl.

Saint Peter - Renovation 2025

With the bidding process nearing completion, we are able to make some final decisions in regard to our renovation of Saint Peter Church. I have requested the official permission from Bishop Hying to begin our project.

Remember that your pledge can be paid up-front, or in installments over the next six months. If you need longer, that is fine! A full year, two years . . . whatever allows you to be generous and confident at the same time. Remember, our goal will be achieved, not with equal amounts, but equal sacrifice.

Father Gary

Prayer for Advent

Dear Lord,
Give us boldness as we move
through the motions of the holiday season,
to reflect and remind those around us
of Your deep and abiding love for them.
Allow them to encounter Your love, through us.
Amen.

Examination of Conscience

Saint Peter holds Reconciliation on Tuesday, December 17 at 4:00 p.m. and Saint Dennis Reconciliation is Saturday morning, December 21 at 8:30 a.m. The following are some questions for you to consider.

- Do I harbor unreasonable suspicions or unfair judgments against my neighbors?
- Have I spoken uncharitably about another's defects or shortcomings?
- Have I been lazy or neglectful in my prayer life or in my attendance at Mass?
- Are my affections for others disordered in any way?
- Am I vain in esteem for myself, or in things that pertain to me?
- Have I received the Sacraments in a careless way, without serious preparation?
- Have I been resentful or impatient in accepting disappointments, failing to see them as coming from God's hand?
- Have I put obstacles in the way of God's will for me?
- Have I been involved in activities that blemish my purity and the purity of others?
- Am I dishonest about my own bad inclinations, weaknesses and mortifications?
- Do I seek to pursue virtue guided by my own whims, rather than looking to the teachings of the Church?

Look for Grace This Advent

"Today is a good day to decide to make a good Confession. If you cannot go today, then do it sometime this week, before next Sunday; open your heart - the Lord forgives everything, everything, everything. And so, in Mary's hands, we will be happier."

12-8-2024

Whether it is the surgeon performing an operation or the pilot directing a flight, one expects them to be alert. When we entrust our lives to someone, we presume that they will attend to them with the utmost care and vigilance. If we have this expectation of others, why would we not have it of ourselves? Our lives are precious vessels on an eternal journey. We can only stay afloat and on the course because of God's love and mercy. It is easy to get distracted, lazy, preoccupied, and tired. Apathy can wreak havoc on the most dedicated of souls. God's word transforms all that it touches, even a lukewarm heart. Let us seek God's grace this Advent season so that we can walk more fully in His light. Then, finding ourselves more attentive, focused, alert, and watchful, we will be eager and well prepared to meet our Lord when He comes. Why would we not want to be ready, awake, and watchful for the One we have waited for so long?

Saint Peter Christmas Celebration

On Tuesday evening, December 17 at 6:30 p.m. the Ladies Guild will welcome members of the Yahara River Chorus, women's barbershop singers, who will provide entertainment for our annual Christmas celebration. All parishioners of Queen of Apostles Pastorate are invited to attend this special Christmas celebration at Saint Peter. This local chorus will arrive at 6:30 p.m. and be ready to perform at 7:00 p.m. After the program we will have snacks and beverages for everyone provided by Saint Peter's Ladies Guild. Parishioners may choose to bring an unwrapped baby gift to be donated to Babies & Beyond (formerly called Pregnancy Helpline.) We hope to see everyone, especially families!

Parish Offices Closed

Saint Dennis and Saint Peter will be closed at 12:00 p.m. Thursday, December 19 for staff Christmas gathering.

Want to be a Gift Bearer?

If you and your family would like to bring up the gifts at a weekend Mass, contact the Saint Dennis Parish office at 608-246-5124 by noon of the proceeding Thursday.

Posada

"Posada" is the Spanish word for inn or lodging. "Las Posadas" refers to a traditional Advent custom in preparation for the birth of Jesus, beginning on December 16. For nine successive evenings, groups reenact the search of Mary and Joseph for shelter in Bethlehem.

Two children dress as Mary and Joseph, sometimes with Mary riding on an actual donkey. They are usually accompanied by children dressed as angels and shepherds along with the Wise Men. Adults accompany them as they process to designated homes where they sing Christmas songs and request lodging. Part of the group enters the home and becomes the chorus that responds to the request for lodging. In the beginning the request is rebuffed. They move to several more homes where the ritual is repeated. Eventually, at the last home, their need is recognized, and they all enter the home where a party ensues. This is repeated in different neighborhoods and homes each of the nine days.

While this custom teaches children an important aspect of the Christmas story, it also emphasizes the need for hospitality to strangers and the continual need we all have to make room for Jesus in our "posada." It would be good to recall the fact that Mary, Joseph, and Jesus were also immigrants looking for a hospitable place to dwell.

Care for Creation

God With Us

In the Encyclical, Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home, Pope Francis reminds us how deeply present God is in our world always, reminding us of His love and commitment.

Worrying about the world's many, serious problems can take away the joy that our Lord intends for us, even during this season. On this, the Pope teaches that we can all cooperate with our Creator for a better world, and that even "simple daily gestures which break with the logic of violence, exploitation and selfishness" can help heal our hearts and our planet.

The Holy Father encourages us to "come together to take charge of this home which has been entrusted to us, knowing that all the good which exists here will be taken up into the heavenly feast. . . . Let us sing as we go "for" the Lord of life, who loves us so much, is always present . . . he has united himself definitively to our earth and his love constantly impels us to find new ways forward." (Laudato Si', paragraph 230, 244 and 245.)

If you have any questions or suggestions about how we can participate in caring for creation, send them to the Care for Creation team at careforcreation@stdennisparish.org.

Peace on earth and good will to all this Christmas season!

Upcoming Together Encountering Christ Retreat

Together Encountering Christ (TEC) Retreat 195 is coming to Saint Mary in Platteville. It runs from 12:00 p.m. on Friday, December 27 and ends at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, December 29. TEC is centered on the Paschal Mystery of Christ and is especially designed to help us (ages 15 and up) grow in our love for Christ and the Catholic Church. Father Greg Ihm will be our spiritual director. Lay Director Jeff Jackson can be reached at 608-778-6027 or efljackson@gmail.com. For more information visit www.MadisonDiocese.org/TEC.

O Antiphons

Next week we hear the "O Antiphons" as the verse for the Alleluia for the Gospel at Mass and the verse for the Magnificat at evening prayer in the Liturgy of the Hours. These O Antiphons proclaimed during the last seven days of Advent, anticipate the attributes of the Messiah as foretold in the Old Testament Scriptures and then proclaim them as titles for our Savior. Each one refers to the prophecy of Isaiah of the coming of the Messiah.

- December 17 - O Sapientia (O Wisdom): You govern all creation with your strong yet tender care.
- December 18 - O Adonai (O Lord): You showed yourself to Moses in the burning bush, who gave him holy laws.
- December 19 - O Radix Jesse (O Root of Jesse): You have been raised up as a sign for all peoples.
- December 20 - O Clavis David (O Key of David): You control at your will the gate of Heaven.
- December 21 - O Oriens (O Dayspring): Come shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death.
- December 22 - O Rex Gentium (O King of the nations): King of the nations, the only joy of every human heart.
- December 23 - O Emmanuel (O God with us): King and lawgiver, desire of the nations, Savior of all people, come and set us free.

Years ago, these titles were often depicted in the ornaments hung on Jesse Trees. Enjoy this special period of Advent preparation as the Octave before Christmas.

IRA Charitable Facts

Beginning in 2015, Congress made permanent a law that allows Americans who are 70 ½ years or older to make tax-free donations from the traditional or ROTH IRA, up to $100,000, directly to a nonprofit such as Saint Peter and Saint Dennis.

But to qualify for the tax deduction this year, your gift must be made before December 31, 2024.

Reasons to Consider

1. You must be 70 ½ or older at the time you make your gift.
2. Transfers must be made directly from a traditional or Roth IRA account to Saint Peter or Saint Dennis.
3. Gifts must be outright, with no material benefits received and cannot be used to fund gift annuities.
4. Your gift qualifies for your required mandatory distribution (RMD.)
5. Your gift is not counted as taxable income, so you do not need to itemize your deduction to gain a tax benefit for your giving.

Steps To Take

1. Contact your IRA administrator.
2. Provide instructions in writing to transfer the amount you wish directly to Saint Peter or Saint Dennis: attention: Sue Besler and a phone call to us at 608-246-5135 notifying us.
3. Indicate that Saint Dennis or Saint Peter are qualified 501 [c] [3] charitable organizations and include Saint Dennis Federal Tax ID Number of 39-0974671 or Saint Peter Federal Tax ID Number is 39-6120617.

Thanks for your continued role in caring for the needs of Saint Dennis and Saint Peter, past, present and future!

End of Calendar Year Reminder For Saint Peter and Saint Dennis

The last regular Sunday offertory collections of the year are December 29. To take advantage of a tax deduction for all 2024 contributions, the following guidelines are offered:

- All hand-delivered 2024 contributions may be dropped in the box to the right of the Saint Dennis Parish Office door or Saint Peter Office by Wednesday; December 31, 2024. The offices will be open until 12:00 p.m.
- All mailed 2024 contributions must be postmarked by December 31, 2024.

Call Sue at 608-246-5135 with any questions. Many thanks for your generous support throughout the year!

Third Sunday of Advent

- Father John Muir

On a bright Spring morning, a passerby once saw Saint Francis of Assisi hoeing a row of beans and asked him, "What would you be doing right now if you knew this was the last day of your earthly life?" The Saint responded, "would keep hoeing this row of beans." Preparing for this world to end - whether by our death or by Jesus' glorious coming - invites us to live not in the past or the present, but deeply in the present moment.

This same point is on display in the simple advice given by the wild and eccentric John the Baptist. He speaks of the one who is to come who will baptize "with the Holy Spirit and fire." (Luke 3:16) Despite the bizarre awesomeness of this announcement, he tells his listeners to engage in the present moment with simple acts of justice and love as their preparation for Jesus' coming, sharing their clothes and food, eliminating greedy and underhanded practices, being content with their wages. It is so undramatic. But how many actually did it? We do not know. How many of us will commit ourselves to these types of humble and demanding practices in our lives? That is what we should be doing now in our present moment, not worrying about the future.

Advent challenge: Name one way you are doing the bare minimum towards others in your daily life. Or name something you are doing because you are not content with your financial situation. Pray: "Jesus, if it is your will, help me to stop doing these things this week. Help me prepare for your coming." Then make the appropriate changes.

Saint Teresa of Calcutta

"Pain and suffering have come into your life but remember pain, sorrowing, suffering are but the kiss of Jesus - a sign that you have come so close to Him that He can kiss you."

Stewardship Reflection

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." - Philippians 4:6

Saint Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God - He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God's image and likeness. We, too, are made to be generous with all of our gifts as well. Placing our trust in God frees us from being a slave to possessions. It allows us to gratefully and generously share ourselves and our goods with others.
