Fourth Sunday of Easter, May 11 - the deadline is Wednesday, April 30.

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA

Jesus asked that the Feast of the Divine Mercy be preceded by a Novena to the Divine Mercy which would begin on Good Friday.

He gave Sister Faustina an intention to pray for on each day of the Novena, saving for the last day the most difficult intention of all, the lukewarm and indifferent of whom He said: "These souls cause Me more suffering than any others; it was from such souls that My soul felt the most revulsion in the Garden of Olives. It was on their account that I said: 'My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass Me by.' The last hope of salvation for them is to flee to My Mercy."

In her diary, Sister Faustina wrote that Jesus told her: "On each day of the novena you will bring to My heart a different group of souls and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy . . . On each day you will beg My Father, on the strength of My passion, for the graces for these souls."

The different souls prayed for on each day of the novena are:

Day 1 (Good Friday) - All mankind, especially sinners.

Day 2 (Holy Saturday) - The souls of priests and religious.

Day 3 (Easter Sunday) - All devout and faithful souls.

Day 4 (Easter Monday) - Those who do not believe in Jesus and those who do not yet know Him.

Day 5 (Easter Tuesday) - The souls of separated brethren.

Day 6 (Easter Wednesday) - The meek and humble souls and the souls of children.

Day 7 (Easter Thursday) - The souls who especially venerate and glorify Jesus' mercy.

Day 8 (Easter Friday) - The souls who are detained in Purgatory.

Day 9 (Easter Saturday) - The souls who have become lukewarm.

During the Solemn Novena leading to Divine Mercy Sunday, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy should be offered each day for the day's intentions. Jesus I trust in you.

MOTHER'S DAY BRINGS JOY

May 10 and 11

Roses are the traditional flower that means, "I love you." This Mother's Day, show your love for your dear one and at the same time, bless babies who need the basics of life. Generous donations provide safe sleep resources, health care, parenting education and more. Your donation for roses means so much to the one you love and to the ones we do not know, but who receive loving kindness through your gift.

If you can volunteer to help after any Mass at Saint Dennis, call Mary Proshinske at 608-444-1141 or email her at prons1@yahoo.com. Saint Peter's Ladies Guild will have a matching fund by Catholic Financial Life - Chapter 88 Madison. Thank you for your generosity!

GRIEF SERIES

Thursdays, May 1, 8 and 15 from 9:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Are you grieving for a loved one who passed recently or long ago? Join us in the Saint Dennis Parish Center for a free three-week series workshop. Taking time to name, claim and reframe our grief. We will reflect on healthy grieving as we review the grief cycle, grief process and healing grief journey, and recognize that we all move through our grief in our own unique way as we weave in and out of the grief process.

This program is facilitated by Peggy Weber, RN MSN Certified Grief Educator. To register, provide your name and phone number to Beth Rodwell at 630-251-3776 or send an email to admin@stdennisparish.org. Group is confidential and a commitment to all three sessions is needed.

"Jesus' passion becomes compassion whenever we hold out our hand to those who feel they cannot go on, when we lift up those who have fallen, when we embrace those who are discouraged."

CARE FOR CREATION

Laudato Si'* and the Risen Christ

In the Encyclical, "Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home" Pope Francis encourages us to consider our Savior's relationship with all of Creation.

"The New Testament does not only tell us of the earthly Jesus and his tangible and loving relationship with the world. It also shows him risen and glorious, present throughout creation by his universal Lordship: 'For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.' (Col 1:19-20) This leads us to direct our gaze to the end of time, when the Son will deliver all things to the Father, so that 'God may be everything to everyone.' (1 Cor 15:28) Thus, the creatures of this world no longer appear to us under merely natural guise because the risen One is mysteriously holding them to himself and directing them towards fullness as their end. The very flowers of the field and the birds which his human eyes contemplated and admired are now imbued with his radiant presence." (Laudato Si', #100)

He is Risen, Alleluia, Alleluia!

If you have any questions about how you can participate in caring for creation, send them to the Care for Creation team at careforcreation@stdennisparish.org.

SPECIAL REMINDER

Thank you for your continued financial stewardship of Queen of Apostles Parish! Please note that since Queen of Apostles Parish has been established canonically, we have not yet completed the civil requirements. Therefore, make any checks payable to "Saint Dennis" or "Saint Peter." We are unable to cash any checks made out to "Queen of Apostles Parish." - Father Gary

When things are really busy, take fifteen minutes for each other, even if it is only once a week. Make this time together a top priority.

SAINT MARGARET MASS

You are invited to the Diocese of Madison's Saint Margaret of Costello Mass, a celebration of people with disabilities and the intercession of our beautiful patron. Mass and reception with Bishop Hying is sponsored by the Apostolate for Persons with Disabilities. Join us on Sunday, April 27 at 10:00 a.m. at Holy Name Oratory, 702 South High Point Road. This will be sensory friendly Mass. RSVP to the Apostolate with Persons with Disabilities by emailing APD@madisondiocese.org or call 608-821-3050

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

- Father John Muir

When I was a young boy, my parents told me about their wedding. Then a few years later, they showed me my mother's wedding dress and my dad's suit. It was astonishing to see and touch garments that connected me to the event that led to my existence. Of course, I already believed they were married based on their word. But these holy garments made the event real and tangible for me.

Something like this is at play when Saint John reports encountering in Jesus' tomb, "the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place." (John 20:7) Those two separate cloths, for his head and for his body respectively, meant a great deal to Saint John and to the early Christians. Some years after the resurrection, there surfaced reports of two cloths with unusual characteristics, one bearing the image of a crucified man's body, another smaller one with the image of a wounded man's face. Some call them the Shroud of Turin and the Veil of Manoppello; they both can be seen today.

These two cloths have a long and complicated history, and scholars debate aspects of them. If you are curious, I encourage you to read about them. To be clear, I believe in the resurrection of Jesus because of the testimony of eyewitnesses and the gift of faith in the Church. Nevertheless, seeing these two mysterious cloths have made the life-giving event of Jesus' resurrection more real and tangible for me. Maybe they will for you, too.

SAINT MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

"Easter. During Mass, I thanked the Lord Jesus for having deigned to redeem us and for having given us that greatest of all gifts, namely, His love in Holy Communion that is, His very own Self. At that moment, I was drawn into the bosom of the Most Holy Trinity and I was immersed in the love of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. These moments are hard to describe." (Diary, 1670)

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." - Acts 10:38

We cannot give what we do not have. Open your heart to receive God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Then, show the same to others. As God's adopted sons and daughters, we are made in His image and likeness. As Pope Benedict XVI says, "We are made for greatness." Let our lives reflect His light to others. Pray to live a grateful and generous life. Strive for greatness! We are made for more! We are made for God!

JOYFUL HOMECOMING

Saint Peter Reopens with a Palm Sunday Celebration

After months of eager anticipation, members of Queen of Apostles gathered on Palm Sunday to celebrate the start of Holy Week and the reopening of their beautifully renovated Saint Peter. The Mass, led by Father Gary Krahenbuhl and Father Mike Resop, was a heartfelt reminder of Jesus' return to Jerusalem - a powerful symbol of a triumphant return.

During the service, Father Krahenbuhl expressed deep gratitude to everyone who made the renovation possible. He acknowledged the sacrifices, vision, and faith that turned this project into a reality for the entire parish. He spoke to the future of Saint Peter Church and of Queen of Apostles Parish, "We are doing it not only for ourselves, but for the faith we want to see passed on to future generations."

The day served as a reminder that in our shared commitment to God, we always find our way home. Inspired by prayer and worship, we welcome, we love, and we serve - in the Holy Presence of God.
