2ND WEEK

JESUS AS APOSTLE

In our gospel for this Second Sunday of Lent, we see Jesus as the Apostle, the “sent One”, in the transfiguration. When Jesus leads three of His disciples, Peter, John, and James to a mountaintop, He reveals His glory to them as His face shines as bright as the sun and His clothes become as white as light. Moses and Elijah appear and speak with Jesus. Peter wants to build a tent for each of them, but then a bright cloud casts a shadow over them all, and a voice says, “This is My Beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to Him.” (Matthew 17:5) The disciples are fearful, but Jesus reaches out to them and says, “Rise, and do not be afraid.” (Matthew 17:7) They raise their eyes and find only Jesus in their presence. As they come down from the mountain, Jesus charges them to not tell anyone about this vision until He has been raised from the dead.

What is revealed to us in this gospel? That God sent His Son into the world on a mission. Jesus becomes the true Apostle. He chooses a few of His disciples to share in this “holy moment”, this glimpse of heaven. In being witnesses to this glorious vision, their faith is strengthened, for soon it will be challenged during the time of His Passion and death. (We also see the return of Jesus as prophet as He foretells His death and resurrection.) Jesus “charges” these men, meaning He entrusts them with a special task, as a duty, to share this experience with others after He is risen. By bestowing upon them this great responsibility, Peter, James, and John become the apostles, the ambassadors for God, that they are called to be.

In Jesus’ time, an apostle was not only one who brought a message, but also, one who carried a level of authority, leadership, and ability to impart God’s Kingdom to a new territory. Remember, Christianity was a new concept in the first century, so it wasn’t an easy task establishing congregations in new regions. The early apostles had to look at the culture and determine the places where congregations would thrive. They trained and raised up leaders until they were spiritually mature in the church, released these leaders, and then moved on to a new region to establish another church.

The servants of the Lord who are gifted as apostles are leaders and visionaries who inspire and mobilize other leaders. They ensure that the faith is passed on to future generations. They are comfortable crossing barriers, whether those barriers be social, intellectual, or cultural, in order to bring God’s message to His people. They are innovators who provide helpful solutions. They aren’t easily swayed when things get tough, for they always have the big picture in mind. Apostles bring direction to the Church. They have the courage and ability to keep the Church moving forward, growing and building in new directions.

Has God called you to be an apostle or a prophet? Or maybe He has some other spiritual roles in mind for you? Next week, we will explore Jesus as teacher.

—Christine Ramos

The Apostle

On Sunday, February 26, 2023 St. Patricia's RCIA group participated in the Rite of Election and Continuing Conversion at Holy Name Cathedral. Accompanying them were catechists Bob Tate and Kathy Polivka. Please pray for Nicole, Rebeka, Anthony, Nick, Darek and Atiba as they prepare to receive their Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil.

2023 St. Patricia RCIA Candidates

We are very excited for our 6 adult RCIA Candidates who are preparing to receive their Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil! We will feature each candidate over the next 6 weeks of Lent and share the stories of their journeys and personal biographies.

Hello! My name is Rebeka Reyes. I was born and raised in a Catholic family. I am currently a single mother of three beautiful children (Ariana, Victor, and Elias.) We recently moved to Palos Hills from Oak Lawn and absolutely love it here! I decided to join the RCIA program to complete my Sacrament of Confirmation. Shortly after joining the RCIA program, I became interested in becoming a lector. I feel blessed that St. Patricia welcomed me with open arms and allowed me to become a lector for our parish! It is a great honor to serve our Lord and be part of a wonderful church community. I have noticed my faith has been the strongest it's ever been since joining the RCIA program. I am so grateful to Father Meany and all of our awesome instructors who have each taught us so many different lessons about our religion. I am eager to teach my children everything I have learned about being a good Catholic. I would love for them to also be strong in their faith, have a close relationship with God, and take part in their church community. I firmly believe a great life always starts with God first!

Disciple Maker Index SURVEY

St. Patricia Parish will be participating in a parish survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute! We need your help!

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey online. The survey can be accessed through an online link from February 22nd Ash Wednesday - March 31st and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole. The survey will be available on our website: <https://stpatriciaparish.com/parish-survey/>

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to Fr. Meany, parish leadership, and our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

If you prefer a paper copy you may pick up a paper copy of the survey after daily and Sunday Masses. They will be located in the Gathering Space and at the Rectory. To submit the completed paper survey, please drop off at the Rectory. Please contact Jen Ahern at jahern@stpatriciaparish.com or 708-598-5222 with any questions.

Thank you for helping with this important project!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE: March 5, 2023- 2nd Sunday of Lent

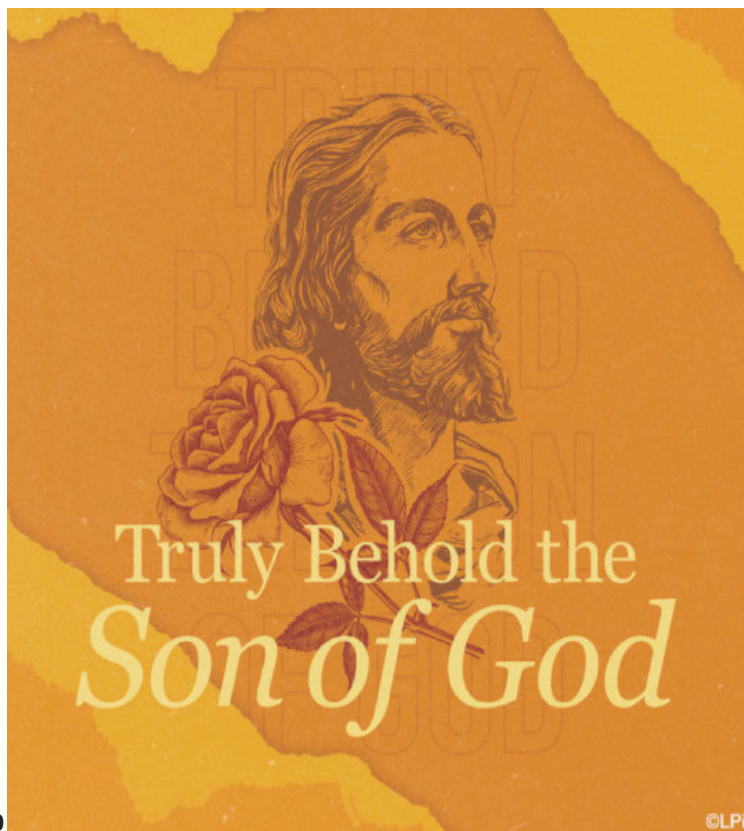

As a kid I remember looking at my sister and thinking, "No man is ever going to marry her. She is way too...my sister!" I couldn't see her as anything except my goofy, emotional, cooties-laden sister. Years later, on her wedding day, I remember seeing how her husband looked at her, he was totally in love with her, his watery eyes full of overwhelmed joy, drinking in her beauty and grace. He was the one who actually saw her. Blinded by familiarity, I had not been able to see her until now. She was glorious. I finally saw how beautiful my sister really was.

Jesus is transfigured before Peter, James, and John. His face shone like the sun and his clothes dazzle with heavenly light. If it's a miracle, it is so related to the apostles' perception of the glory of Jesus. The physical spectacle reveals how the Father perceives the Son, so to speak: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to him." The Son is always bathed in the Father's love. It's only just now that they finally perceive it.

Who could possibly give his or her heart totally to Jesus? If we perceive him to be just another teacher, symbol, or moral example, we can't. But if the Holy Spirit gives us eyes to see that he is the Beloved Son of God, who makes our humanity not just pleasing to God but filled with glory ... then who can resist him? Perhaps only the lovers are the ones who properly see.

— Father John Muir

LENTEN DISCIPLINES OF FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

*Guaranteed not to clog for as long as you own your home, or we'll clean your gutters for free.

LeafGuard[®] is guaranteed never to clog or we'll clean it for FREE!

- Seamless, one-piece system keeps out leaves, pine needles, and debris
- Eliminates the risk of falling off a ladder to clean clogged gutters
- Durable, all-weather tested system not a flimsy attachment
