St. Patricia Catholic Church
November 1, 2026

We remember and pray for the following persons whose funeral services were celebrated here at St. Patricia Parish in the last 12 months.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

OCT.31-NOV. 1, 2026 - PARISH DEVELOPMENT

HELP MAKE THE HOLIDAYS SPECIAL FOR OUR TROOPS DEPLOYED OVERSEAS!

We will be signing Christmas Cards after all masses on Nov. 7th & 8th. Please sign a card and perhaps write a note.

ALSO, we are looking for Parishioners who would be willing to bake home-made cookies and brownies that we will send in our November Care Packages. Please label your items if they contain nuts.

Finally, we are looking for all that extra Halloween candy you may have left over. There are a lot of sweet tooths over there. PLEASE, at this time of the year, let us remember those who defend us, even now as we live and pray here.

Let me be the first to wish you a MERRY CHRISTMAS!

JIM KRUSE — Army & proud of it.

Advent Meditation Little Book series "6-Minute Reflection" & "Word Among Us" Books

THIS weekend, October 31st and November 1st, we will have two Advent daily meditation books for purchase after all Masses. The Little Books series, which have a six-minute reflection on the Sunday Gospels for 2026, are now $2.00 each—with exact change only.

PLEASE NOTE THE NEW PRICE!
No Change given.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

We would like to invite you and your family to our Remembrance Mass on Monday, November 2nd at 7:00pm. The heartfelt Mass is for all the families who have had a Funeral Mass celebrated here since November 2025.

We will provide a candle, and we kindly ask that a family member or friend carry it up during the Mass. Please check in at 6:30pm in the Gathering Space of the Church, where you will be given a candle. During the Mass, we will mention your loved one's name, and we would appreciate it if someone could come forward with the candle. You can bring the candle home with you as a remembrance. There is no fee for the candle.

Quiet time before the Blessed Sacrament is an important and necessary part of a healthy prayer life and a critical part of our faith journeys as Catholics. To be in the same room with the True Presence of our Lord and be humbled by His love and grace is an indescribable feeling - you have to experience it for yourself to truly understand. Our parish is blessed with First Friday of the Month Eucharistic Adoration, and I encourage everyone take full advantage, if available, of this incredible access to Christ and humbly seek Him out at every opportunity for worship, prayer and to unburden ourselves to Him. NEXT Holy Hour is FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH — 5:30 p.m.

Join us at St. Patricia Church every 1st Saturday of the month.
OUR NEXT GATHERING IS NOVEMBER 7TH @ 8:00 A.M.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: NOVEMBER 1, 2026

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

All Souls' Day (the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed) observed on November 2nd is a day of prayer and remembrance for all the dead, especially those believed to be undergoing purification before entering heaven.

The practice of interceding for the deceased is far older than the feast. It has roots in Jewish tradition (notably 2 Maccabees 12:43–45) and appears in early Christianity. Second-century tomb inscriptions show Christians praying for the departed, and the third-century writer Tertullian refers to the custom. In the early Church, the names of deceased brethren were often entered in diptychs (liturgical lists) so they could be remembered at the Eucharist.

Local commemorations developed in different places and on different dates. Benedictine monasteries in the sixth century held special remembrances of deceased members around Pentecost. In seventh-century Spain, St. Isidore of Seville (d. 636) knew of a Mass for the departed on the Monday after Pentecost or a related day. In Germany around 980, there was an established custom of praying for the dead on October 1.

The fixed date of November 2 and its near-universal observance in the Western Church are due to St. Odilo, fifth abbot of Cluny (c. 962–1049). Around 998, he ordered that all monasteries of the Cluniac congregation observe a special day of prayer, Masses, and almsgiving for all the faithful departed on the day immediately following All Saints' Day.

A popular medieval legend, recorded by his biographers, tells of a pilgrim who, after a shipwreck, met a hermit. The hermit described hearing the groans of souls in purgatory and the complaints of demons that the prayers and alms of the Cluny monks were freeing many of them. The pilgrim reported this to Odilo, who then instituted the annual commemoration. Whether the story is historical or pious legend, it reflects the strong medieval belief that the living could aid the dead through prayer and good works.

Odilo deliberately linked the day to All Saints' Day: after celebrating those already in heaven, the Church turns to those still being purified. The enormous influence of the Cluniac network (hundreds of monasteries across Europe) caused the observance to spread rapidly among other Benedictines, the Carthusians, and then to secular dioceses. The diocese of Liège adopted it early (under Bishop Notger, d. 1008). By the thirteenth century, it was widely established in the Western Church; Rome itself adopted it somewhat later (recorded from the fourteenth century in some accounts).

The feast, therefore, grew from ancient practices of intercession for the dead, and has continued as a major expression of the communion of saints—the living aiding the dead through prayer, Mass, and charity.

That is a beautiful and meaningful tradition. At St. Patricia, our Mass of Remembrance at 7:00pm on All Souls' Day (November 2nd) is a powerful way for the parish community to come together, light candles, and pray specifically for those from the parish family who have returned to the Lord over the past year.

May God bless you,

Father Andrew, Pastor

REMEMBERING OUR DECEASED - All Souls / Purgatorial Society: The church tradition has always recognized the love and generosity of remembering the special persons in our families and our lives. This tradition has always included the welfare of people we have never even met. Again and again, we pray for all the faithful departed in the Mass and in our prayers. This sacred tradition is often expressed by enrolling our loved ones in a list of souls that is presented to the whole community for their prayers and remembrances. The following is a list of those who have gone before us. The priests of St. Patricia will remember the following persons in the monthly Masses of remembrance in the Purgatorial Society. They keep them in a special place of remembrance in all their Masses. We ask all parishioners to join in these prayers. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. (additional names found on page 11)

COMMUNITY SERVICES: Thanksgiving

The Jewel Food Store in Hickory Hills is offering Holiday Bucks. Before you check out at Jewel, please inform your cashier that you are donating Holiday Bucks. They must be purchased by November 16th.

Your donations will support St. Patricia's Community Services. We would like to thank Jewel Food Stores and our Community for your assistance with helping the area's needy. Your donation will provide a holiday meal for the needy. We will also continue this service for Christmas. Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family!

Deacon Charley* and *Missy Keegan
St. Patricia Community Services—1.708.598.5222

COMMUNITY SERVICES: St. Patricia and St. Simon of Cyrene (Formerly St. Agatha)

Every year since 1977, we have asked for your assistance in helping our St. Patricia Parish and our Sharing Parish, St. Simon of Cyrene (formerly St. Agatha) to purchase gifts or gifts for people in need.

If you would like to purchase new gifts for our area's needy individuals or a needy family, please email Missy — mkeegan@stpatriciaparish.com, or call Missy at 1.708.598.5222, and a wish list will be emailed to you.

St. Simon of Cyrene, our Sharing Parish, will be accepting gift cards instead of gifts. However, we will need to assist the families in need. One of our volunteers will email or call you with a wish list for a Parishioner of St. Simon. We will have a signup sheet at next weekend's Masses of October 31st and November 1st in the Gathering Space of our Church. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call or email Missy Keegan.

THANK YOU IN ADVANCE FOR ALL YOUR ASSISTANCE TO OUR AREA'S NEEDY!

Deacon Charley* and *Missy Keegan
