A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

As we approach the middle of February, I am sure that many of us are already waiting anxiously for the arrival of spring. I know that I am. Spring allows me the opportunity to bring out my bicycle again and hit the bike paths. Spring also brings with it an excitement at the new life that comes into full bloom. Spring is a sign of hope. If you are like me, at this time in the winter season, the anticipation is building and the desire for spring becomes that much stronger.

With spring oftentimes comes projects that we might have put off because of the winter weather. Such is the case with the parish. I wanted to take this opportunity to focus on some of those projects that got “put on hold” for various reasons but are still on the way to becoming a reality.

First, there is the electronic sign that has been planned for the front of our property along 159th St. Some might have wondered what ever came of that project. I mentioned it a long time ago but it has not come to be a reality. The short answer to that is, the sign is still on its way.

We hit a little bit of a snag this past summer into the fall. For one, we had to figure out how to get power to the front of the property for the display screen that will be part of the sign. After a long investigation, an electrician found a way and started making the preparations. There are still some final touches that will need to be done once the sign is erected but we at least found a way to bring power from the church building out to the front of 159th St.

Next, we had the application for the permits that were needed from the Village. It took a while longer than expected to get the documents to the Village for review and approval. One main reason for the delay was the fact that our proposed sign required a variance due to its dimensions. So not only did we have to apply for a permit to construct the sign but we also had to apply for a variance due to the sign's size. To make a long story short, the proposed sign was very much supported by the Village staff but we had to make some minor changes in the dimensions. Once all of that was completed, the application was again reviewed and we were ultimately granted the permit along with the variance. That put us to middle to late fall.

At that point, the weather was still nice enough that construction could begin. We had planned to use up the supply of bricks that were stacked up outside the east end of the church building. These bricks were the exact same style and color as the church building. I suspect that they were leftover from the construction of the church and the office buildings. But, we discovered that the supply of bricks was not enough to complete the construction of the electronic sign. Not only that, our contractor discovered that those bricks were no longer being manufactured by any supplier. So, our contractor had to go on the hunt for other alternatives which, of course, took a while. We finally found an option that would go well with the existing look of our campus but then the winter weather starting hitting. We knew that once the ground started to freeze it would set the project back until the ground thawed enough to start digging. At this point, construction may not start until the spring when the order of bricks will be coming in and/or the ground has thawed enough that the digging might begin. I had hoped that we would have the electronic sign up a long time ago but, as the saying goes, we must always expect the unexpected. Still, the sign is still on its way and the funds are still sitting in our To Teach Who Christ Is account.

Speaking of the To Teach Who Christ Is account, one other project that had to be put on hold was the work on the Devine Center kitchen. That was also part of the case statement when the parish began that campaign. I put it on hold, though, because I wanted to leave some funds available in case we might need it for even more contingencies with regards to the electronic sign. After the completion of the electronic sign, I am planning on using whatever leftover funds there might be in the To Teach Who Christ Is account to make for the renovation of the Devine Center kitchen. If there is not enough left after the sign project, we might need to come up with another plan to cover the expense of the kitchen project. Besides, the Devine Center needs a lot of work in the very near future. Knowing how much work is needed in the DC might require a new plan on how we can get all of it done.

Also this last summer, you may recall that after the passing of our beloved Pat Kmak, I had announced that part of the Devine Center would be renamed as the Pat Kmak Center for Faith Formation. And yet her name is still not on the outside of the Devine Center. So what held that project back? I must admit that it was partially because of me. I planned on using the same contractor who will be constructing our electronic sign and who, coincidentally, was the same contractor who created much of the signage that we have on campus. I wanted to go with that contractor simply for the sake of consistency. I was planning on having that contractor work on both projects at the same time. So, if all goes well, we should have the lettering for the Pat Kmak Center for Faith Formation installed by the spring. And, if all goes according to that plan, we might be able to schedule a dedication service by around the time of Pat's first year death anniversary.

One more spring project that I want to mention involves the garden areas along the north façade of our church. Behind the triptych of St. Julie near the start of the north walkway, I am hoping that we might be able to install an arch and plant clematis that will grow and cover the arch. On either side of the arch, we might be able to plant a couple of evergreen bushes. I am also hoping that we might be able to plant something similar on the north island right in front of the north canopy. All of that is just a simple way to bring some more color to the north side of our property that faces 159th.

The more we can do to bring people's eyes towards the church the greater the chance that newcomers might be attracted to come and check out our parish. Hopefully, the more we can attract the greater the chances our parish might grow. We are planning to have a couple of fundraisers in the next coming months that might help to support this project. As things progress, I will make sure that you are updated as much as possible.

Peace, Faith L. Billie

IN THE SHADOW OF THE WORD

"Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No'
mean 'No.'"

- MATTHEW 5:37

Jesus is very practical about what can corrupt our hearts. He identifies anger, lust, and dishonesty as hidden viruses capable of damaging, and even destroying, our integrity, our very souls. But if we are honest with ourselves, all of us will have to admit that we struggle with temptation in each of these areas. So what are we to do? Are we simply doomed? When Jesus looks at our hearts, does he look away in disgust?

No! He comes with the medicine of his grace to cure us. We just have to give him the chance. The Book of Sirach tells us how: "If you choose, you can keep the commandments; they will save you." Every day of our lives, we remain free to choose which thoughts and actions we will commit to, godly ones, or selfish ones. When a lustful thought flashes through our minds, we don't have to accept it - we can reject it and turn to Jesus and Mary instead. When selfish anger boils up in our hearts, we don't have to let it rule our lives - we can turn to Christ on the cross and learn from him how to turn the other cheek. When we are tempted to get ahead by compromising the truth, we can hold our tongues and cling to Sirach's promise: "Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him."

Jesus wants us to choose life, a fulfilling life here on earth and eternal life with him in Heaven, by choosing to reject temptation and follow him. We pray for the grace we need to make that choice, every day. Let our 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and our 'No' mean 'No.' Then we thank him for that grace, and put it to good use.

Catechism of the Catholic Church
Part One - The Profession of Faith
Section One - "I believe" - "We believe"
CHAPTER TWO
God Comes to Meet Man
Sacred Scripture

18. Why does Sacred Scripture teach the truth?

105-108
135-136

Because God himself is the author of Sacred Scripture. For this reason it is said to be inspired and to teach without error those truths which are necessary for our salvation. The Holy Spirit inspired the human authors who wrote what he wanted to teach us. The Christian faith, however, is not a "religion of the Book", but of the Word of God - "not a written and mute word, but incarnate and living" (Saint Bernard of Clairvaux).

19. How is Sacred Scripture to be read?

109-119
137

Sacred Scripture must be read and interpreted with the help of the Holy Spirit and under the guidance of the Magisterium of the Church according to three criteria: 1) it must be read with attention to the content and unity of the whole of Scripture; 2) it must be read within the living Tradition of the Church; 3) it must be read with attention to the analogy of faith, that is, the inner harmony which exists among the truths of the faith themselves.

OUR PRAYER LIFE

TODAY'S READINGS AND REFLECTION

First Reading: No one does he command to act unjustly, to none does he give license to sin. (Sir 15:20)

Reflection Question: The Jewish sage Sirach speaks of the wisdom in being obedient and loyal to God's will and commandments. How can you exercise obedience and loyalty to God this week?

Psalm: Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord! (Ps 119)

Second Reading: Rather, we speak of God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God pre-determined before the ages for our glory. (1 Cor 2:7)

Reflection Question: Paul instructs the Corinthians about the power of the Holy Spirit who guides believers to a mature faith and to understanding God's wisdom. In what ways do you experience the Holy Spirit in your life?

Gospel: "I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven." (Mt 5:20)

Reflection Question: As Jesus continues with his Sermon on the Mount, he addresses a variety of topics in the daily life of his Jewish audience (the Law, anger, adultery, divorce, and oaths), only now filtered through God's point of view. How can Christians today live daily life according to these standards?

O God, who in creating the human race willed that man and wife should be one, keep, we pray, in a bond of inseparable love those who are united in the covenant of Marriage, so that, as you make their love fruitful, they may become, by your grace, witnesses to charity itself. Through Christ our Lord.

FORMATION STATION

What are the 12 points in the Apostles' Creed?

The 12 points are the 12 foundational statements that we profess to believe as Catholics. Through these 12 statements we attest that we are Catholic and Christian. They are;

- 1- God is Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth, and our Father.
- 2- Jesus Christ is the Son of God and our Lord.
- 3- God became man, the Holy Spirit filled the Virgin Mary, she became pregnant and gave birth to Jesus Christ.
- 4- Under Pontius Pilate Jesus was beaten, died on the cross for us, and was buried.
- 5- Jesus went among the dead to offer salvation through him, and rose from the dead on the 3rd day.
- 6- Jesus returned to the Father in Heaven and reaches all people from there.
- 7- Jesus will return to judge all souls living and dead.
- 8- The Holy Spirit is God's Love and is equal to the Father and the Son, He is the giver of life.
- 9- The Church is Holy=God dwells with her, Catholic=Universal and open to all people, Apostolic=descended directly from the Apostles.
- 10-God can and will forgive our sins.
- 11-Death is not the end. God will raise all the dead.
- 12-There is a place for us in heaven to live in Joy with God forever.

Pączki
Sale
benefiting Music Ministry

 LAST OPPORTUNITY TO ORDER *****
Pick-Up After All Masses February 18 & 19

In Christian culture, the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday is a pre-Lenten festival day observed through various celebrations and feasting. Throughout the ages it has been assigned names by ethnic tradition; Mardi Gras or Fat Tuesday (French), Pancake Day (English), and of course... Pączki Day (Polish). Pronounced "punch-key," this Eastern-European jelly-filled pastry resembles a bismark and has become a growing tradition among Chicagoans.

Music Ministry is hosting a parish-wide Pączki Sale after all weekend Masses February 18th and 19th. A dozen mixed variety are available for $25. Orders can be placed online via the parish website or through the attached QR code. A limited supply will be available for purchase after each mass. All proceeds go directly toward the parish music program. Orders must be placed by 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 14th.

Little Known Facts...

- Pączki were created by the Polish to use up a household's supply of ingredients a family wouldn't be able to eat during the penitential season of Lenten. This included lard, sugar, eggs, and more. It was basically a day for people to fill up on all the goodness they'd have to give up for the next month.
- In America, Pączki Day is celebrated the day before Ash Wednesday. However, in Poland, Pączki were made and purchased the most on the Thursday before Ash Wednesday.
- This tradition is unique since it dates back to at least the Middle Ages. That means Pączki recipes have been around for a long time. But, just like traditions themselves, the recipes have evolved over time. Modern versions of pączki are filled with custard or cream, and some are even covered with glaze or sprinkles. Some well-known modern flavors include lemon, Nutella, and strawberry.

CARE FOR CREATION

Lent is coming. Consider a "fast" for Creation Care... sacrificing some comfort, giving up a wasteful practice, or modifying your actions to reduce harm to the environment. Some ideas include:

- A Meat Fast: How about adding a meatless Monday to meatless Fridays? What about eating only chicken when you do eat meat, or sustainably caught fish?
- An Energy Fast: How about turning the thermostat down 2°-5° F lower than usual and putting that sweater on? And maybe turn the water heater down to 120° F and only take 3-minute showers?
- A "Stuff" Fast: Buying only the bare minimum of essentials you need and simplifying your life? And how about staying away from as much plastic as you can and minimizing your waste stream?

PORT LUNCHES WE NEED HELPING HANDS!

CATHOLIC REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

It's often said that the Catholic Church lays heavy rules on her members, rules that can almost seem impossible. Mass every Sunday? No lying ever? Sexual purity all the time? I recently said to some non-Catholic friends that more than fifty adults were baptized at my parish at the Easter Vigil. One responded spontaneously with shock, "Why would anyone do that?" In other words, why would someone willingly place themselves in a system with such demanding and rigorous rules?

Of course, no one in the history of religions is more demanding and rigorous than Jesus himself. In the Sermon on the Mount, he says you have to be holier than pharisees or you're out. He says if you call someone a fool, you go to fiery Gehenna. He says you can't even look at a woman with lust or you're guilty of adultery (which was punishable by death). To top it all off, he says you can't even get divorced and re-married. Doesn't he know these are basically impossible demands? What world is he living in?

The new one, actually. He is the new world. Jesus' words aren't meant to condemn. They are meant to signal something new, a re-stored humanity. Jesus doesn't just give external laws; he gives us his Holy Spirit to internalize the law through love. He wants to fill us with his love. That's what the Church exists to do. Love demands extraordinary things. The "demands" of the Church only make sense because she is filled with Jesus' love. That wildly demanding love is why we are Catholic.

— Father John Muir

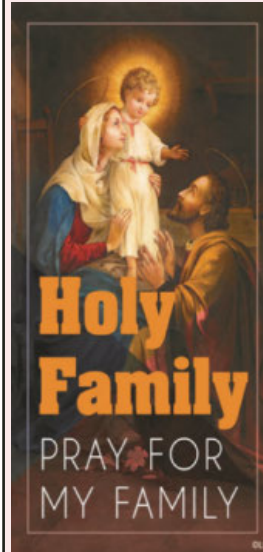

©LPi

The heart with which we offer our good deeds matters as much as the deeds themselves.

For Christ, the law is more than a code of conduct. It's a mindset.

CONSECRATION OF THE FAMILY TO THE HOLY FAMILY

Lord Jesus Christ, Who, being made subject to Mary and Joseph, hallowed domestic life by Your ineffable virtues; grant that we, with the assistance of both, may be taught by the example of Your holy Family and may attain to its everlasting fellowship; Who lives and reigns world without end. Amen

Each week, our presentations and discussions will focus on how we, as Christian men, may improve our relationships and have a more positive impact within our families and community by developing a more intimate union with God.

If you weren't available last Fall, please don't let that discourage you from joining us now. You don't need to commit to attending every week; just come whenever you can. If you did attend any of our sessions last Fall, please consider inviting a friend to join you for breakfast this Spring and help them discover a great way to start their weekend!

That Man Is You! meets on Saturday mornings in O'Connell Hall at St. George School. Breakfast is available beginning at 6:30 and our program starts at 7:00.

THE "ANGEL" FUND

Eight years ago, CJB's parishes (St. Elizabeth Seton, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Stephen Deacon & Martyr, and St. Julie Billiart) began a special collection known as the "Angel Fund." This collection is taken up one week-end during the year at the start of Catholic Schools Week. The Angel Fund is meant to assist parishioner families who may need a bit of help in sending their children to CJB. Last year, nearly 20% of our students received some type of financial aid from various sources. As you would understand, many families are in need. CJB is so very grateful to our sponsoring parishes who subsidize each student who attends CJB. Any donation you are able to make is greatly appreciated!

February 2023

Dear Parish Families:

We would like to share an amazing opportunity for you to receive a 75% state tax credit for 2023, and assist a deserving child receive a Catholic education at Cardinal Joseph Bernardin, your parish school!

As of this week thirteen children are on the Cardinal Joseph Bernardin School wait list for consideration for a scholarship from the “Invest in Kids Act Tax Scholarship Program” for the 2023-2024 school year and that list will grow in the coming weeks. These are families who passionately desire Catholic education for their children but may not be able to close the gap between what their household can currently afford and the cost of Catholic education tuition. Empower Illinois awards scholarships directly to our students only if funds are available for Cardinal Joseph Bernardin School.

Through this program:

- An individual donor receives a 75% state tax credit on their donations. For example, if a person donates $10,000, they will receive a state tax credit of $7,500. Their net cash outlay would be $2,500.
- The credit may be rolled over for five years.

There is no limit to the amount of donations that can be made to our fund and no minimum donation is required. As a special incentive, now through March 31st – any funds donated for a CJB student will be matched dollar for dollar, or until the matching funds are depleted. Currently, there are $1.3 million in matching funds available. Every school in the Archdiocese is allowed up to $75,000 of matching funds.

As of today, CJB has $10,000 in our F 23-24 fund, that will be matched with another $10,000! $65,000 in scholarship funds is still available to CJB for matching. If we can reach the $75,000 goal, $150,000 would be available to qualifying students for the next school year. Twenty-two schools in the Archdiocese have already reached the $75,000 goal. Please prayerfully consider this opportunity to help a student begin or continue their Catholic education at Cardinal Joseph Bernardin School. You will receive 75% of your donation back in a state tax credit and the knowledge that you helped make Catholic education available to a deserving child. These families will be forever grateful for your generosity.
