BEING DISCIPLES OF JESUS

Fr. Tirso Villaverde

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

As we approach the start of Lent this Wednesday, I wanted to share with you some things we want to try out during the season of Lent within our worship space. In speaking with those on staff that help me handle the liturgical life of the parish, we are trying out these changes to see if they best address some of the comments that we have received.

First of all, there is one comment that I have received recently and one that has been shared with me on several occasions since I first started here at the parish. Namely, various parishioners have shared with me that it is very difficult for them to pray in the church on a Sunday morning prior to the start of Mass. The reason is because they hear the noise from the narthex as people congregate there to talk and “catch up” as parishioners see one another. The issue here is how we can encourage both because both are important.

Quiet prayer time prior to the start of the liturgy is essential. In fact, recent documents of the Church call for a period of silence before beginning the liturgy whether that be the Eucharist or any other of the Church’s liturgies. That moment of quiet and silence helps us to prepare our hearts, minds, and souls to encounter the presence of God. As we learn from various passages of Scripture, God speaks in silence. In 1 Kings 19 and the story of Elijah, the prophet is told to go to a cave and wait for God to make Himself known to the prophet. We are told that a strong heavy wind passed by but God was not in the wind. Next, there came an earthquake but God was again not in the earthquake. Then, there was a fire but God was not found in the fire. Lastly, there was a tiny whispering sound and Scripture tells us that Elijah then covered his head because he knew that God was speaking to him. Elijah had to learn to ignore the noise of everything else and enter into a silence that was the only thing that could help him focus on the soft whisper that indicated God’s presence.

Oftentimes, God will not make Himself known through “noisy” avenues. There is already too much “noise” in our lives that take on various forms—distractions, consumerism, etc. The Church calls for silence prior to the start of the liturgy because it is in the liturgy that we will discover that we are truly in the presence of God. However, at the same time, the Church also values the spirit of community when people come together and share one another’s lives. It is equally important for us to be able to connect with one another personally and face to face. If we learned anything from the period of pandemic, it is that human and social interaction is just as essential for our wellbeing as anything else might be. So, the joyful conversations that parishioners have in the narthex prior to the start of Mass are just as much encounters with God as is the silence. So the question becomes how can we promote and provide for both?

Some have commented to me that, as pastor, I should demand that people not congregate and talk in the narthex before Mass. However, I do not think that is the real solution especially, as I have already stated, that human interaction is just as crucial in encountering God’s presence as is the quiet that we seek in order to enter into prayer. In my conversations with the staff members who work with the liturgical life of our parish, we came up with a solution that we want to try during the season of Lent.

Namely, from Ash Wednesday until the start of Holy Week, the glass panel doors on the west end of the worship space will be closed. If you are not familiar with what I am referring to, these are panels that have been used in the past to block off the space between the font and the main worship space. Along with closing those panels, we will keep the double doors closed on either side of the font area. We will encourage parishioners to enter into church using those double doors as many have already been doing. We will also assign two Hospitality Ministers at those doors to assist those who may have disabilities that make it difficult for them to open doors without assistance. I have consulted with the Tinley Park Fire Department. I have been assured that the other emergency exits in church are sufficient in case the need arises.

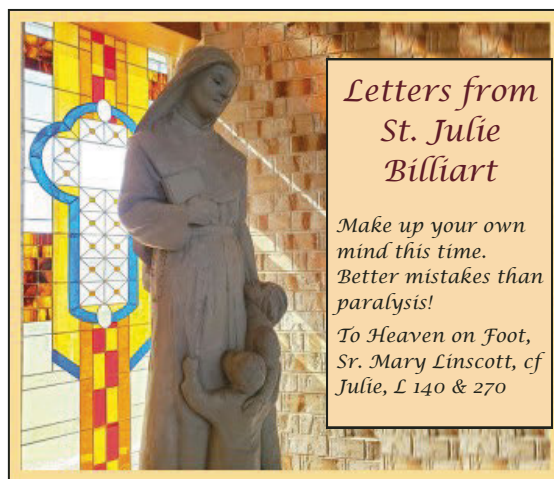

Again, the reason for this experiment is to create an atmosphere of silence inside the church all the while allowing parishioners still to congregate in the narthex and have the joyful conversations that help them to connect with one another. Closing the glass panels may also help in another way.

Our font is beautiful. I have always dreamed of being assigned to a parish that has a large font that might allow for full immersions at baptisms. Plus, the sound of running water can be soothing and calming. At the same time, though, also can cause people to get up during Mass and use the restroom. From my vantage point at the presider's chair, I can tell you that several times during the course of the Mass I notice any number of people heading toward the direction of the restrooms. I cannot help but wonder if the sound of the running water has something to do with it. So members of the staff and I are just curious to see if closing the glass panels might have an impact on this.

Since the glass panels will be closed, we will use a different route for the opening and closing processions. At the start of Mass, the procession of altar servers and clergy will pass in front of the chapel where the tabernacle is located – show reverence to the Blessed Sacrament – then continue to the aisle facing the St. Julie shrine. This route can emphasize the truth that the ministers for Mass are coming from within and among the congregation rather than “set apart.” Then, at the end of the Mass the procession will exit the church from the opposite side of the church again emphasizing that the altar servers and clergy return to their proper role as a part of the entire faithful prepared to take into the world the very presence of God made real during the liturgy.

As with any change, I know that there may be some apprehension and maybe even resistance. Again, though, let me say that we want to experiment with this to see if it might be a good solution. If it is not a good solution, then we will revisit the matter and see if there is something else that can be done. Any thoughts, please feel free to share them.

Peace,

LENTEN DISCIPLINES

As the start of Lent approaches, please remember the following disciplines asked of us as Catholics:

- Fasting (eating only ONE main meal) on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday is required of ALL Catholics between the ages of 18–59
- Abstinence (refraining from eating meat) on Ash Wednesday and ALL Fridays of Lent is required of ALL Catholics ages 14 and older

These disciplines are intended to help us to focus on Jesus' call to dedicate our entire lives to God's work in the same way as he did.

For all the great things that God does for us, this is only a small way to demonstrate our love for Him.

FRIENDLY REMINDER COMMUNION ON THE TONGUE

Just a friendly reminder especially for those who may just be returning to in person worship or those who are visiting the parish:

If you would like to receive Communion on the tongue, please sit in the sections where the priest or deacon will give out Communion.

Only the priest/deacon will have a sanitizing wipe with them in case it is needed.

For reference, the priest/deacon are assigned to sections 4 and 5 on either side of the church.

Fr. Roy Belocura
Associate Pastor

“Whoever keeps the word of Christ, the love of God is perfected in him.”

- 1 JOHN 2:5

In a world that's often focused on vendettas, avenging wrongs, trampled rights, and payback, Our Lord reminds us today of what has been a trademark of Christianity throughout the centuries: turning the other cheek. Meekness is often considered a weakness, but it actually involves a very virtuous effort not to strike, or even dislike, the one who's struck you, to give your time and possessions when someone doesn't have a right to them, or to go out of your way beyond what any reasonable person would expect.

Our Lord has set the standard. How many blows did he receive? Being God, he didn't have to sacrifice himself for our salvation. When Adam and Eve sinned God could have left us to the mess they'd made of our lives, just as he could every time we sin and continue to sin. With all that baggage anything we ask, or sometimes demand, of Our Lord is something he is under no obligation whatsoever to fulfill. And yet he does and continues to do so. We often focus on the receiving end of the slights and offenses that he describes in today's Gospel, but what he also teaches, for example, is how we should not be on the giving end of them either.

Even today we have an eloquent testimony in so many Christians suffering persecution and death. When evil stares us in the face, not some nebulous force or Hollywood B movie caricature, but real evil done by real people and to real people, we must combat it for the sake of others, but we must not lose our concern for the people who are on that path to

CHAPTER TWO
God Comes to Meet Man
Sacred Scripture

20. What is the Canon of Scripture? 120; 138
The Canon of Scripture is the complete list of the sacred writings which the Church has come to recognize through Apostolic Tradition. The Canon consists of 46 books of the Old Testament and 27 of the New.

21. What is the importance of the Old Testament for Christians? 121-123
Christians venerate the Old Testament as the true word of God. All of the books of the Old Testament are divinely inspired and retain a permanent value. They bear witness to the divine pedagogy of God's saving love. They are written, above all, to prepare for the coming of Christ the Savior of the universe.

22. What importance does the New Testament have for Christians? 124-127; 139
The New Testament, whose central object is Jesus Christ, conveys to us the ultimate truth of divine Revelation. Within the New Testament the four Gospels of Mathew, Mark, Luke and John are the heart of all the Scriptures because they are the principle witness to the life and teaching of Jesus. As such, they hold misery and failure by their misdeeds. That is the sign of genuine love, perfect love, like our Heavenly Father's love. It's not a love conditioned by the love we expect in return or have received; otherwise, we'd only care about those who care for us. That is the secret to overcoming the damage any lack of love on the part of others may have caused in our lives. Love can triumph if we let it. Society, a difficult family situation, an evil done to us can only conquer our love if we let it.

TODAY'S READINGS AND REFLECTION

First Reading: "Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against any of your people. You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

I am the LORD." (Lv 19:18)

Reflection Question: Leviticus teaches us that one way to be holy is to have an attitude of love and non-retaliation toward your family and neighbors.
Can you name some examples when you have acted in this manner?

Psalm: The Lord is kind and merciful. (Ps 103)

Second Reading: All belong to you, and you to Christ, and Christ to God. (1 Cor 3:22-23)

Reflection Question: Paul teaches that as believers we are now "the temple of God" with the "Spirit of God" dwelling in us.
How might we celebrate this new reality?

Gospel: "You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you." (Mt 5:43-44)

Reflection Question: Jesus challenges his disciples to love and to pray for your enemies. Why do you think Jesus encourages us to behave this way?

FORMATION STATION

What is virtue and which virtues are the most important?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines a virtue as a habitual disposition to do good and avoid evil. More commonly we can think about virtues as good habits of behavior that we do consistently, with ease, and with great joy. As St. Paul tells us, "And now Faith, Hope and Love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is Love." These three virtues are called the Divine or Theological virtues because they are gifted to us from God. We cannot attain them on our own.

- Faith: That we believe in God and all that he has said and revealed to us through the Prophets, Scripture, Jesus, and his Holy Church.
- Hope: The strong desire for the promises of Christ, namely Heaven and Eternal Life. This virtue is also tied to trust in the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
- Charity (Love): This virtue is more simply explained by Jesus as the two greatest Commandments. Love the Lord God with all our being and love our neighbor as ourselves in order to love all of God's creation.

We cannot gain these virtues or good habits on our own but we can certainly ask God to increase these virtues within us if it be His will.

Living Our Faith

Let us pray for an increase in these virtues today. Let us say together, "Come Holy Spirit and fill my soul, pour your grace onto me so that I might overflow with the divine virtues of Faith, Hope and Love. If it be your will let it be done. Amen"

Participate in a 10-15 minute survey online. The survey can be accessed online from February 22 to March 31.

The survey will ask us to reflect on our own spiritual growth and enable us to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help us grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole. This information will be invaluable to our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be.

Call the office if you prefer a paper copy, 708-429-6767 (ask for Tony). To submit the completed paper survey, please drop it off at the office. Thank you!

CATHOLIC REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

Of all the things Jesus says which seem totally bat-crazy, this one might take the cake:

"But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you."

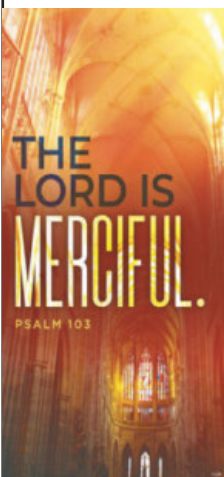

An enemy is someone who desires the destruction of you, your projects, or those you care about. To love and pray for them is to want their health, strength, and flourishing. But if they thrive, they are more likely to hurt you and others. So, aren't you indirectly willing your own destruction, or that of your friends?

If you doubt that this problem is embedded in this teaching, when was the last time you actually prayed honestly for the people you really hate?

How can we solve this riddle so we might actually live this command?

Recall that enemy-love is the surest sign that you love someone with God's love, and not with indirect egotism. After all, if my love for my enemy ends up hurting me or my loved ones, it can't be for me. Enemy-love costs more because there are no tit-for-tats. No reciprocity — just loved poured out, and often pain in return. That's why it is so precious and rare. "What is unusual about that?" asks the Lord about love for our friends. Jesus wants us to experience the unusual love which only comes from him.

When Jesus was being killed on the cross, he was loving his executioners. In fact, he was holding them in being as they nailed him to the cross. He loved those who were spiritually piercing his Mother's heart, while they were doing it. And when he rose from the dead, he showed us that this kind of love is always worth it. It's stronger than death.

Real love is unusual.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Hardness of Holiness

Want to know the words I find hardest to say? "Lord, give me the strength." The world tells us to push ourselves outside of our comfort zone if we're training for a marathon or applying for a job — but if we're talking about God, everything is supposed to be easy. If it comes "naturally" or without struggle it's supposed to be right.

Only God is perfect, the world tells us. What's the use of trying so hard? I'm really good at finding excuses for myself, especially when it comes to holiness. Holiness, often (not always, but often), is about choosing the hard, but right, thing. The invitation to holiness is whispered in the hardest moments of my day when I am the most hopelessly human. After the kids' bedtime, when I really just want to watch Dateline and eat too much ice cream instead of saying the Rosary. When I've committed to helping someone, but it suddenly becomes incredibly inconvenient. When I see a social media post that's just begging for a snarky reply. When the conversation becomes gossip and I'm dying to make myself feel superior to someone.

The reason it's so difficult for me to mutter these five simple words is because I know that if I say them and I mean them, they form a prayer that God will always answer in the affirmative. He will give me the strength I ask for, and then I will have no excuse. It's not unlike my kids claiming they're too tired to clean up the playroom. If they would just ask me for help, it would all be so doable. But where would that leave them?

With a job to do, that's where.

CARDINAL JOSEPH BERNARDIN

9250 West 167th Street, Orland Hills, IL

as an "Exemplary High Performing National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence"

February 2023

Dear Parish Families:

We would like to share an amazing opportunity for you to receive a 75% state tax credit for 2023, and assist a deserving child receive a Catholic education at Cardinal Joseph Bernardin, your parish school!

As of this week thirteen children are on the Cardinal Joseph Bernardin School wait list for consideration for a scholarship from the "Invest in Kids Act Tax Scholarship Program" for the 2023-2024 school year and that list will grow in the coming weeks. These are families who passionately desire Catholic education for their children but may not be able to close the gap between what their household can currently afford and the cost of Catholic education tuition. Empower Illinois awards scholarships directly to our students only if funds are available for Cardinal Joseph Bernardin School.

Through this program:

- An individual donor receives a 75% state tax credit on their donations. For example, if a person donates $10,000, they will receive a state tax credit of $7,500. Their net cash outlay would be $2,500.
- The credit may be rolled over for five years.

There is no limit to the amount of donations that can be made to our fund and no minimum donation is required. As a special incentive, now through March 31st – any funds donated for a CJB student will be matched dollar for dollar, or until the matching funds are depleted. Currently, there are $1.3 million in matching funds available. Every school in the Archdiocese is allowed up to $75,000 of matching funds.

As of today, CJB has $10,000 in our F 23-24 fund, that will be matched with another $10,000! $65,000 in scholarship funds is still available to CJB for matching. If we can reach the $75,000 goal, $150,000 would be available to qualifying students for the next school year. Twenty-two schools in the Archdiocese have already reached the $75,000 goal. Please prayerfully consider this opportunity to help a student begin or continue their Catholic education at Cardinal Joseph Bernardin School. You will receive 75% of your donation back in a state tax credit and the knowledge that you helped make Catholic education available to a deserving child. These families will be forever grateful for your generosity.
