A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

As we continue our journey through the season of Lent, there is something that seems to be a common struggle among a good number of people. In my years as a priest, I have heard people confess it any number of times. What I am referring to is the habit of gossiping. Many of us – if not all – struggle with this bad habit. Many might consider it to be a natural thing. After all, many people might use the excuse that “We all do it.” We may use that phrase almost as a way to give us permission to engage in gossip. Many of us may have even found ourselves prefacing conversations with others with the phrase,

“I don’t mean to gossip but...” Again, it is a way to make ourselves feel as if we are not doing any harm. But, why has the habit of gossiping bothered so many Catholics that they would often bring it to the Sacrament of Reconciliation? What is it about gossiping that can lead to such danger? At what point does our desire to “share information” become the bad habit of gossiping? If any of us have ever wondered about that, let us take this start of Lent to reflect more deeply about it.

In all honesty, we all have the need to vent out our frustrations to family and friends that we trust. It is a natural need. Especially when we are faced with stresses from work and other commitments, it is common for us to seek support from others. We all need to feel as if there are people who will listen to us and not judge us for releasing some of the stress that we may carry around with us. When those stress points are a result of the difficult people in our lives, again it is important for us to pour out our troubles to those we consider to be a confidant. It is a natural way we show and give support to one another.

So, when does the sharing and seeking support turn into the bad habit of gossiping? To me, it seems as if it can happen in one of two ways. It can happen when we know that the person with whom we are sharing may not be as objective as he/she ought to be. In other words, it is natural when we seek someone to share our troubles with as a sign of support. But, there are things we need to take into consideration. When we know the person we speak with may not keep things in complete confidence, that is one moment when we may be engaging more in gossiping than seeking support. The other way we end up engaging in gossip is when we ourselves are the ones who do not keep things in confidence or are not objective about what we may have heard. In either case, we cross a fine line. We need to vent. We need to share our stresses and frustrations. However, in order to avoid gossip, we need to maintain an objective point of view. The same goes for those in whom we may confide. This is what leads us into a dangerous situation.

To put it simply, the danger of gossiping is that it tends to place us as judge over another person. Gossip has the tendency of hearing only one side of an issue and make the determination that it is the only and absolute truth. For example, when a family member or friend shares with us his/her experience with another person who might be difficult to deal with, we tend to believe the side of the person we know. After all, we want to show support to our family member or friend. But, when we believe that the one side is the absolute and only truth of the matter, that is when things become dangerous.

As the saying goes, there is always two sides to every issue and the truth lies somewhere in between. But, when we only take one side into consideration, it leads to the tendency to become the judge of the other side. Gossip becomes very dangerous because it leads us to making the determination that the other person is already guilty without receiving a “fair trial.” In other words, we become judgmental about the other side. For the one who may be “venting out,” more often than not the matter is presented in terms of one’s own point of view because we want our family and friends to be “on our side.” The danger, though, is that an environment is created where another human being becomes the object of judgment without the ability to present his/her own point of view.

Further, gossip becomes even more dangerous when people spread it. The spread of gossip creates more judges over a person who may never have the opportunity to present the other side of the issue. The cycle then is never broken. For this reason, we must be always aware of that fine line.

So, how do we keep sight of that fine line? For one, we really need to know the person with whom we are sharing. If we know that the person has the tendency to gossip, maybe that is not the right person from who we should seek support. Further, can that person truly be objective? Will the person in whom we are confiding help us to see and understand the other side even when we may refuse to do so? We cross that fine line when we place ourselves as judges over others and talk exclusively to those who will do the same.

Another discipline we need to develop is the ability to avoid jealousy. Friendships break down because we become angry when we think that someone we trust is “taking someone else’s side.” Again, to overcome the habit of gossiping, a certain objectivity is required. We always need to realize that there is another side to the issue. We may never know what that other person’s personal struggles might be. If we are really going to be fair and compassionate, an openness to both sides is needed. This goes for everyone involved. Otherwise, we make ourselves the judge over others even though we say that God alone can be the judge.

The surest way to avoid falling into the “gossip trap” is to grow in our imitation of God. We will never be able to avoid having to deal with people in our lives that may cause us stress and frustration. But, they are loved by God just as much as God loves us. Like any good parent, God becomes upset whenever anyone talks badly about one of his beloved sons or daughters. God is love. God seeks always to build people up rather than tear them down. If we are among those who struggle with gossiping, this is what we must always take into consideration. As we all seek greater holiness, this Lent let us strive to imitate the example of God and we will become stronger instruments of God’s peace living in peace with ourselves and those around us.

Peace, Faith L. Billie

LANDONG SA PULONG IN THE SHADOW OF THE WORD

Fr. Roy Belocura
Associate Pastor
frroy@stjulie.org

"Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high mountain."

- Matthew 17:1

In the Bible, mountaintops are privileged places for encountering God, for having life-changing experiences of God. It is no mere coincidence that Jesus brought his disciples up the mountain to see his transfiguration.

We have all had mountaintop experiences, times or moments when we felt God's presence almost palpably, and we knew with absolute certainty that he was watching over us and guiding us. Maybe it was a retreat. Maybe it was our first communion. Maybe it was when we went to confession for the first time in years, and experienced a fresh start through God's mercy. Maybe it was in the midst of a tragedy, a difficulty, or a sickness. Maybe it was one day when you came to Church to pray, all by yourself. Maybe it was simply one day while you were hiking in the mountains and saw an indescribably brilliant sunset. We have all had mountaintop experiences. God gave them to us for a reason, just as he gave this one to Peter, James, and John for a reason. Jesus knew that his passion, crucifixion, and death were coming up. He knew that those events would shake his followers' faith. He gave them this mountaintop experience of his glory so that later on, when the cross appeared, they could remember it and be strengthened by the memory. Jesus knows that following him is demanding - no one can escape life's crosses. Following his Commandments requires self-mastery and self-sacrifice.

Jesus wants to remind us that even those hardships are part of his plan. He wants us to think about our mountaintop experiences, so that we can renew our faith in his goodness, wisdom, and desire to bless us. With renewed faith, we will be able to live Lent well, listening to Christ and obeying his will.

COMPENDIUM of the Catechism of the Catholic Church
Part One - The Profession of Faith
Section One - "I believe" - "We believe"
CHAPTER THREE
Man's Response to God
I Believe

25. How does man respond to God who reveals himself? 142-143

Sustained by divine grace, we respond to God with the obedience of faith, which means the full surrender of ourselves to God and the acceptance of his truth insofar as it is guaranteed by the One who is Truth itself.

26. Who are the principal witnesses of the obedience of faith in the Sacred Scriptures? 144-149

There are many such witnesses, two in particular: One is Abraham who when put to the test "believed in God" (Romans 4:3) and always obeyed his call. For this reason he is called "the Father of all who believe" (Romans 4:11-18). The other is the Virgin Mary who, throughout her entire life, embodied in a perfect way the obedience of faith: "Let it be done to me"

FORMATION STATION

What are the 3 disciplines of Lent, and why should I care?

The three disciplines of Lent are Fasting, Prayer, and Alms-Giving (Service). Most of us tend to focus on food Fasting during Lent. I give up chocolate, or I stop drinking coffee. These are fine things, great practices of self-discipline. However, this is only a part of what we are called to do as Christians. This Lent let's challenge ourselves to be more! To "be perfect, as our Father in Heaven is perfect". A small way we can do just that is by paying great attention to all three disciplines. Fasting helps us to repair and strengthen our relationship with ourselves. By disciplining our bodies from food, drink and activities that we enjoy we strengthen our ability to love the Lord. Through Prayer we strengthen our relationship with God by spending time with Him. A relationship requires us to spend time with another person. We spend time with God through prayer. Lastly, Alms-Giving (Service) grows our relationship with other people. Through letting go of our own goals and agendas and serving the needs, hopes and dreams of other people we grow in virtue and Love.

Children's Liturgy of The Word

Join Us for the Children's Liturgy!!
Sunday mornings at the 9:30am Mass.

This is where children can gather with their peers, to open their minds and hearts to Jesus, with simple prayers, crafts, music, and hands-on activities. The Gospel will be explained to them at their level.

The children are called forward at the start of the Liturgy of the Word. They then return at the beginning of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. (Encompassing about 15 – 20 minutes)

Presenter on Lenten Monday March 20th, 2023

Donna Oliver resides in New Lenox with her 18 year old dog, Chloe. Looking for a church that offered spirituality, she and her husband visited St. Julie after going on a pilgrimage to Italy with the St. Julie parishioners. Donna immediately found the spirituality she looked for as well as the feeling of family. She has been a member of St Julie Billiart Parish for seven years. She is a member of our Eucharistic Adoration group and PADS and is also a Eucharistic Minister. Donna is looking forward to sharing her story of how her belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist has evolved and impacted her life with you.

CATHOLIC REFLECTION OF THE WEEK*2nd Sunday of Lent

As a kid I remember looking at my sister and thinking, “No man is ever going to marry her. She is way too...my sister!” I couldn’t see her as anything except my goofy, emotional, cooties-laden sister. Years later, on her wedding day, I remember seeing how her husband looked at her, he was totally in love with her, his watery eyes full of overwhelmed joy, drinking in her beauty and grace. He was the one who actually saw her. Blinded by familiarity, I had not been able to see her until now. She was glorious. I finally saw how beautiful my sister really was. Jesus is transfigured before Peter, James, and John. His face shone like the sun and his clothes dazzle with heavenly light. If it’s a miracle, it is so related to the apostles’ perception of the glory of Jesus. The physical spectacle reveals how the Father perceives the Son, so to speak: “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to him.” The Son is always bathed in the Father’s love. It’s only just now that they finally perceive it. Who could possibly give his or her heart totally to Jesus? If we perceive him to be just another teacher, symbol, or moral example, we can’t. But if the Holy Spirit gives us eyes to see that he is the Beloved Son of God, who makes our humanity not just pleasing to God but filled with glory ... then who can resist him? Perhaps only the lovers are the ones who properly see.

— Father John Muir

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS*The Long Walk

The walk down from Mount Tabor after the Transfiguration must have been a long one for Peter, James, and John. How differently they must have viewed the world with the eyes that had seen what they had just seen. How uncertain they must have been.

I think it’s important to remember that, on the mountain, they were amazed, yes — but first, they were afraid. We are given the image of these three grown men — these saints, these giants of salvation history — cowering in fear at the voice of God. It was not until Jesus touched them that they could even bear to look up. Christ was transfigured on Tabor, but in a way, the disciples were transfigured as well. We are all changed by what we see and what we hear. That change can be hard because knowledge is hard. Truth is hard. Sometimes cowering is easier. Go forth, God told Abram. I will make of you a great nation.

Rise, Christ told his disciples. And do not be afraid.

I spend too much time cowering in fear at the voice of God. I cower even when the voice whispers into my heart instead of booming from the clouds. When it’s the start of a hard day or a tough conversation. When it’s the middle of a half-finished battle, big or small. When I know where Christ is and what he is asking, but I’m afraid because the walk down the mountain is so long, and the world that awaits me is so uncertain.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Eucharistic Revival

VICARIATE V EUCCHARISTIC EVENING OF PRAYER

The Archdiocese of Chicago is at a pivotal moment of structural and spiritual renewal, and that is a cause for great hope. We take up this effort at a moment in which the United States bishops have launched a Eucharistic Revival. This convergence reminds us that true renewal of the Church always involves recovering the importance of the Eucharistic celebration as the source and summit of our life as Catholics. From the Eucharistic celebration flows all the Church's prayer, activities and ministries. Pope Francis recently wrote that "the Christian faith is either an encounter with Him alive or it does not exist." Join us in Vicariate V to unite in prayer for renewal and revival as we deepen the union with Christ and each other which we experience at Mass, by coming together for this celebration of exposition and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament led by our Auxiliary Bishop, Most Rev. Andrew P. Wypych.

CARDINAL JOSEPH BERNARDIN

9250 West 167th Street, Orland Hills, IL
as an "Exemplary High Performing National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence"

March 2023

Dear Parish Families:

We would like to share an amazing opportunity for you to receive a 75% state tax credit for 2023, and assist a deserving child receive a Catholic education at Cardinal Joseph Bernardin, your parish school!

As of this week, ten children remain on the Cardinal Joseph Bernardin School wait list for consideration for a scholarship from the "Invest in Kids Act Tax Scholarship Program" for the 2023-2024 school year. These are families who passionately desire Catholic education for their children but may not be able to close the gap between what their household can currently afford and the cost of Catholic education tuition. Empower Illinois awards scholarships directly to our students only if funds are available for Cardinal Joseph Bernardin School.

Through this program:

An individual donor receives a 75% state tax credit on their donations. For example, if a person donates $10,000, they will receive a state tax credit of $7,500. Their net cash outlay would be $2,500.

The credit may be rolled over for five years.

There is no limit to the amount of donations that can be made to our fund and no minimum donation is required. As a special incentive, now through March 31st – any funds donated for a CJB student will be matched dollar for dollar, or until the matching funds are depleted. Currently, there are $1.2 million in matching funds available. Every school in the Archdiocese is allowed up to $75,000 of matching funds.

CJB now has $18,000 in our F 23-24 fund, that will be matched with another $18,000! $57,000 in scholarship funds is still available to CJB for matching. If we can reach the $75,000 goal, $150,000 would be available to qualifying students for the next school year. Twenty-two schools in the Archdiocese have already reached the $75,000 goal. Please prayerfully consider this opportunity to help a student begin or continue their Catholic education at Cardinal Joseph Bernardin School. You will receive 75% of your donation back in a state tax credit and the knowledge that you helped make Catholic education available to a deserving child. These families will be forever grateful for your generosity.

Thank you for your support!
