A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy Parish Feast Day!

If you do not know to what I am referring, I am talking about the feast day of our patroness St. Julie Billiart which is April 8th. In the Church's calendar, though, her feast day does not appear on that date. She has not been assigned a universal celebration. Instead, her feast day is specific to communities that are tied to her in some way — the religious community that she founded or parishes that have been placed under her patronage. Until she is assigned a universal feast day status, only those communities will celebrate her feast day.

Last year, we celebrated St. Julie's Feast Day with a Mass and a Fish Fry. This year, however, we more than likely will not have a specific event dedicated to honor our patroness' Feast Day. Why? It is for the simple reason that this year St. Julie's Feast Day is the same day as Holy Saturday. Obviously, the celebration of the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday itself takes greater precedence than any Saint's Feast Day. The parish's calendar is already so full that it would be difficult to transfer St. Julie's Feast Day to any other day in April. So, as we gather for our Easter celebrations this year, let us take time to honor our patroness in whatever way we can in our prayer times at home or wherever we may be.

Now that I got on the topic of Saints and their Feast Days, have we ever wondered why Catholic parishes are usually named after a particular Saint? Everywhere in the world Catholic parishes are known by a specific holy man or woman. Sometimes, the Saints are well known like St. Peter, St. Francis, St. Therese the Little Flower, St. Mary Magdalene. There are also parishes that have been named after Saints who may not be so well known. But why have we as a Catholic Church made it a custom to name churches, parishes, and chapels after the Saints?

In order to understand the concept, we must first understand the ancient practice of patrons. In the time of Jesus and even before, craftsmen and laborers would always seek patrons. The patrons would be among the wealthy and influential people of the community. Those in the lower echelons of society would seek the patronage of those who were higher in order to be able to support themselves and their families. It would be their responsibility to make their products appealing to the would-be patrons. If the potential patron was not impressed, it would greatly reduce the chances of a craftsman or laborer of receiving any assistance that would benefit his life and provide for his family. However, if a relationship was established between patron and worker, it would actually be the worker that benefited more. In other words, the relationship was necessary in order for the craftsman or worker to be able to survive.

Once a relationship was established, both sides would enter into an agreement or even a contract. The craftsman or laborer would offer his services only to that particular patron. The patron, on his/her part, would make the promise of supporting generously the work of the craftsman. The patron would not only supply a salary but he/she would also provide the tools and materials that craftsman might need in order to create his product. So, for example, if someone was a carpenter and the governor of the town became his patron, the carpenter would be at the exclusive service of the governor. The governor would support the carpenter in a way that would make the carpenter almost dependent on his generosity. The relationship was so important to the craftsman or worker that, once established, he would do everything possible in order to remain in the good graces of the patron. Basically, it was understood that the relationship was between a greater — the patron who provided much needed support — and a lesser — the craftsman or worker who needed the financial support of the patron in order to survive.

In our Catholic tradition, the Saints are those holy men and women in heaven who have something that we the followers of Jesus still on earth are in need of for our own benefit. What the Saints have is basically a "front row seat" to Jesus the Savior and Lord of all. The Saints are those who have a direct access to Jesus'

- Philippians 2:8-9

Today we hold in our hands palm branches. In the ancient world, palm branches were the symbol of victory. For the Israelites in the Old Testament, the elegance, strength, and simplicity of this tree became a symbol of the just man or woman, the one in whom God's law triumphed. It also symbolized victory for the Romans. Palm trees were not native to Italy. And so, when the Romans started conquering other nations in the Mediterranean, the generals brought palm trees back to Rome as souvenirs of their victories. So the crowds waving palm branches as Jesus entered Jerusalem were declaring his victory.

Today, we echo them, we join them, and we declare and celebrate Christ's victory. But what victory is it? And how did Christ win it? It is the victory over original sin. Original sin was mankind's disobedience to God and obedience to the devil. It shattered God's plan, let loose the scourge of evil, and gave the devil a certain power over earthly society. Jesus, through his passion, death, and resurrection, reversed the disobedience of original sin by obeying his Father's will in spite of all the devil's attempts to thwart him: the betrayal of Judas, the abandonment of his apostles, the false accusations, the condemnation, the humiliation, the scourging and crowing with thorns, the torture of crucifixion - all of these sufferings were the devil's attempts to get Jesus to say "no" to his Father, just as he had gotten Adam and Eve to say "no". But Jesus defeated the devil. He continued to love, forgive,

COMPENDIUM of the Catechism of the Catholic Church
Part One - The Profession of Faith
Section Two - The Profession of the Christian Faith
CHAPTER ONE I Believe in God the Father
The Symbols of Faith

34. What are the most ancient symbols (professions) of faith? 189-191 The most ancient symbols of faith are the baptismal creeds. Because Baptism is conferred "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19), the truths of faith professed at Baptism are articulated in reference to the three Persons of the Most Holy Trinity.

35. What are the most important symbols of the faith? 193-195 They are the Apostles' Creed which is the ancient baptismal symbol of the Church of Rome and the Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed which stems from the first two ecumenical Councils, that of Nicea (325 A.D.) and that of Constantinople (381 A.D.) and which even to this day are common to all the great Churches of the East and the West.

and obey through it all. And so he, unlike Adam, unlike every other person in history, can say, "I have not rebelled" [first reading at the Mass]. His obedience establishes a beachhead in this world that is under the devil's sway: Jesus' Passion is D-Day for the devil, and liberation for us. This is the victory we celebrate.

Let us celebrate God's great works this week, reflect on his saving love, and renew our commitment to follow him. The most important thing this week is that we remain united with Christ our Savior. To stay connected to Christ, to stay connected to his grace, we can do two things. The first step is to pray. This week, we should spend more time in prayer, both in quantity and in quality. Visit the Tabernacle and sit with Jesus. Get that rosary off the rear-view mirror and put it to good use. Read the Gospels and meditate on them. Secondly, there is obedience. Jesus is always instructing us about how to live, how to be responsible in our life's duties, and selfless in our relationships. This week, let us pay special attention. Whatever he asks of us, let us say "Yes!"

TODAY'S READINGS AND REFLECTION

First Reading: I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. (Is 50:6)

Reflection Question: The prophet Isaiah speaks of his call and commitment to the Lord, regardless of the suffering he endures. How do you find strength in your suffering?

Psalms: My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Ps 22)

Second Reading: He humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him. (Phil 2:8-9)

Reflection Question: In this hymn describing Jesus, Paul places emphasis on the humility of Jesus. Would you describe yourself as a humble person?

Gospel: The centurion and the men with him who were keeping watch over Jesus feared greatly when they saw the earthquake and all that was happening, and they said, "Truly, this was the Son of God!" (Mt 26:54)

Reflection Question: Listening to the account of the Passion of the Lord often evokes strong emotions for believers. How do you prepare to hear the Passion narrative?

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our relationship with Christ should leave us mesmerized — "shaken," like Biblical Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. It should leave our jaws hanging.

If it does not, we should ask ourselves: what needs to change?

Eagle Scout is the highest achievement or rank attainable in the Scouts BSA program of the Boy Scouts of America (BSA). Since its inception in 1911, only four percent of Scouts have earned this rank after a lengthy review process. The Eagle Scout rank has been earned by over 2.5 million youth.

Requirements include earning at least 21 merit badges. The Eagle Scout must demonstrate Scout Spirit, an ideal attitude based upon the Scout Oath and Law, service, and leadership. This includes an extensive service project that the Scout plans, organizes, leads, and manages. Eagle Scouts are presented with a medal and a badge that visibly recognizes the accomplishments of the Scout.

Noah Morena has accomplished this feat. His project was the Blessing Box you can see on the west side of our campus. Noah and his team, came up with the plans, secured the necessary permission, tools, supplies and finally, the volunteers. It took time and patience but Noah saw it through.

The Blessing Box is for all who need it. No questions asked. Please feel free to add to it, or bring necessary items to a friend in need. Thank you to Noah and all those who had a role in helping him achieve his Eagle Scout rank. The St. Julie Community is very proud of you!

Introducing the ZIPPER CLUB MINISTRY!

We are introducing a new ministry called the Zipper Club. This ministry will offer support to parishioners who are facing heart surgery or have recently had heart surgery. We welcome every stage of this process and also invite heart surgery veterans to participate in the form of support. The ministry will address spiritual and emotional issues surrounding heart surgeries. We are not professionals but we can offer a prayerful setting with willing listeners who will share their own experiences. Patients, family support and friends are welcome. Come pray with us and voice your concerns along with your stories of success recovery.

Meetings will begin on Monday, April 3 at 3:00pm in the Great Room. I hope to see you there!

CATHOLIC REFLECTION OF THE WEEK	RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord What's your car? Let's say it's a fancy silver Toyota. Now imagine you're having lunch in a restaurant and suddenly see two men outside attempting to steal it. You run outside and confront them. They respond, "The master has need of it." How do you respond? Would you just let them take it, and leave you without a car? I don't think I would. Yet that is precisely what the owners of the colt on Palm Sunday do. Stunningly, and perhaps a little comically, Jesus instructs two of his disciples to commandeer a colt for him to ride. And when they hear the disciples say, "The master has need of it," they let them take it. Of course, Jesus knew they'd let it go. He gave them the grace to let go of what is rightfully theirs. The result? That colt became perhaps the most famous and important animal ever. The beast plays a role in the redemption of the world. As Holy Week begins, Jesus perhaps will send people to you to ask for something valuable to you. Perhaps it's your car. More likely it's something like your attention, time, or energy. It's natural to resist at first. We've got things to do, after all. But if the interruption is from Jesus himself, listen to that voice which calmly says, "The master has need of it." And simply let it go. You'll be amazed what the master will do with it. — Father John Muir ©LPi	Making Way for God As Christ reclined at the Passover meal and his impending betrayal, I have to imagine at least one of the disciples thought to himself, incredulously and perhaps even indignantly: And you're not going to do anything about it? So often we expect God to behave like the frantic parent of a teenager, banging down the closed door of a bedroom filled with loud music. We expect him to be overbearing, snooping in our diary and waiting to ground us the minute we break curfew, desperate to keep us within the family fold, ready and willing to use judgment and force to do so. It's true that God greatly desires us to stay in friendship with him. But to accomplish it, he does not come to us as a meddler or an overlord. He comes in the same way he does on Palm Sunday. He waits for us to make way. He may not be overbearing, but he is still devoted, and unfailingly patient. As the Palm Sundays of our lives — the moments of our devotion and piety — give way to the Holy Thursdays, when we inevitably deny him, God does not abandon us. The sacrifice on the cross is still there, waiting for us to accept it. Say to daughter Zion, “Behold, your king comes to you, meek and riding on an ass, and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden.” — Matthew 21:5 —Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
Question: What is a Pilgrimage? Why do people go on them? Answer: A pilgrimage is a spiritual journey to visit a holy site, such as the shrine of a saint, a place where the Blessed Virgin Mary has appeared, or an historic church or chapel. What makes a pilgrimage different from a vacation and a pilgrim distinct from a tourist is the spirit in which the journey is made. Pilgrimages are really a symbol of our spiritual journey in life, reminding us that this world is not our true home and that we spend our lives journeying to our homeland, which is the Kingdom of God. Pilgrimages — which can be as involved as a trip to Rome or the Holy Land or as simple as visiting the Blessed Sacrament in a local parish church — are also an opportunity for us to step out of the rhythms and limits of our daily lives to seek out connection with God in a special way, by visiting a holy place. At times, such as on a special feast, a jubilee, or the anniversary of the dedication of the church, special graces (called “indulgences”) can also be offered to pilgrims, helping to enrich our experience of the celebration. In the end, pilgrimages are an ancient act of devotion and something that each of us can put into practice, helping us to discover how God is present in the world around us, in places both near and far. ©LPi
