A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

This Saturday, May 13th, we come once again to the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima. We know the story very well of how the Virgin Mary appeared to 3 children in Portugal. We may even remember the miracle of the dancing sun that was part of the story of Fatima. As we come once again to the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima, we may even wonder about the other apparitions of the Virgin Mary.

When we consider the times when the Virgin Mary appeared throughout history, we know the “big names.” We know Fatima, Lourdes, Guadalupe, Knock, just to name a few. To be clear, there have been many apparitions of the Virgin Mary throughout history besides the ones that I just mentioned. As we can imagine, the Church does not quickly and readily declare every apparition of the Virgin Mary to be the “real deal.” There needs to be certain criteria taken under consideration. Among those criteria is the nature of the message of the Virgin Mary in the apparition. Namely, the Virgin Mary cannot contradict what has already been divinely revealed through Sacred Scripture and Tradition. If an apparition of the Virgin Mary, for example, claims to have a new revelation regarding our faith and doctrine, it will be held with great suspicion and perhaps even refuted as a genuine apparition. So, even though there have been many apparitions of the Virgin Mary throughout history and in various parts of the world, not all of them have been declared by the Church as “worthy of belief.”

Among the apparitions of the Virgin Mary that are held as worthy of belief, there are:

1. Our Lady of Good Health in India. In the 16th and 17th centuries, both a young boy and a Portuguese sailor were gifted with a visit by the Virgin Mary. The young boy came from a poor family and he sold buttermilk to help with the family income. He was also crippled. As he sold his buttermilk, a woman carrying a child appeared asking for a cup of milk. She later told the boy to send a message that a chapel should be built. As he went to deliver the message, he discovered that he was cured. The Portuguese sailor was caught in a severe storm and prayed for the protection of the Virgin Mary. The boat landed safely near the site of the apparition and so he showed his gratitude by helping to build a chapel.
2. Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico. In the 16th century, Mary appeared to St. Juan Diego on the mountain of Tepeyac outside of Mexico City. She sent Juan Diego several times to the bishop with the request that a church be built on that site in her honor. After several failed attempts to convince the bishop, St. Juan Diego was told that a miracle was needed. The Virgin Mary directed Juan Diego to roses that had grown on the mountain despite it not being the proper season. He gathered the roses in his cloak. As he presented the roses to the bishop, the Virgin Mary's image miraculously appeared on the cloak. Tests have been done on the material which should have decayed centuries ago. The image is imprinted onto the material in a way that is humanly impossible.
3. Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal in France. In 1830, the Virgin Mary appeared to a novice of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent De Paul. She instructed that a certain medal be created with the image of the Virgin Mary and that those who use it in faith and devotion would receive great graces. To this day, the Miraculous Medal is one of the most well-known images of the Virgin Mary. On it is inscribed the words, “O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.”
4. Our Lady of La Salette in France. In 1846, two shepherd children witnessed an apparition of the Virgin Mary. In it, she was weeping because there was such great disrespect for the Lord's Day that it saddened her to no degree. Devotion to the image of Mary weeping has been promoted by the religious order of the same name.

5. Our Lady of Lourdes in France. This is another well-known apparition of the Virgin Mary. In 1858, Bernadette Soubirous witnessed several apparitions of the Virgin Mary who appeared in a small cave. Mary instructed her to drink from a nearby stream. That same stream exists today and Lourdes is known as a place of miraculous healing. However, what made this apparition of the Virgin Mary even more fascinating was the fact that Mary made herself known as the Immaculate Conception. During that time, Church theologians were heatedly debating that doctrine. The fact that Mary would reveal that title to a peasant uneducated girl became proof that the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception was a teaching revealed by God Himself.
6. Our Lady of Knock in Ireland. In the 19th century, a group of 15 people witnessed an apparition of the Virgin Mary behind a church. In the apparition, they saw an altar with a lamb on it. To the side there stood Mary, Joseph, and St. John.
7. Our Lady of Fatima in Portugal. This is perhaps the most recent of all the apparitions that have been deemed as “worthy of belief.” It took place in the 20th century and, again, we know the story well. Mary appeared to 3 peasant children. One of those children, Lucia, became a Carmelite nun who just recently passed away in 2005. Three secrets were given to the children. First there was the reality of hell. Second, there was a prediction of future upheavals which began with the onset of World War II. The final secret pointed to future persecution of the Church. In the message of Fatima, conversion of heart and repentance were very strong and central.

Again, there are many other apparitions besides these 7. There are some that are “approved” by local bishops of dioceses but not universally by the entire Church. There is one in Champion, WI known as Our Lady of Good Help. Our Lady of Medjugorje is one that has been approved as a pilgrimage site but the apparition itself has not yet received full approval. All of the genuine apparitions of the Virgin Mary remind us of some basic realities. Mary remains our Mother and is constantly concerned about our wellbeing. Mary may appear from time to time with the same essential message – turn to Jesus because he is the only way to eternal life. As we approach Mother’s Day next weekend, may we listen to Mary for she is our Mother.

Peace,

Faithful. Billings

*"I am the way and the truth
and the life."*

- John 14:6

Jesus Christ gives us the definitive answer to the three fundamental questions of "What should I do?", "What can I know?", and "What can I hope for?" when he tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life. He doesn't just give the answers; he is the answer.

"I am the way" can translate into: "What should you do? Follow me! Do what I have done."
"I am the truth" means: "What can you know? You can know everything, if only you know me."
"Knowing me, more and more every day, you know the secret behind the workings of the whole universe and the deepest yearnings of the human heart, because I made them both. I am the eternal Word, the very Wisdom of God."
"I am the life" means: "What can you hope for? In me, through me, you can hope for the fullness of life that you long for in the very depths of your soul. "You can hope for your very own room in my Father's house, in heaven - I have gone to prepare it for you. "In my Father's house all sorrows turn to joy, all weakness turns to strength, and life grows more alive as eternity unfolds.

Christ is truly the living water that quenches every thirst. He is truly the light that scatters every type of darkness. The quest of every man and woman to satisfy the heart's deepest needs is the quest to seek his face. As St Augustine famously wrote, "Our hearts are restless until they rest in God." And Jesus Christ is God.

COMPENDIUM of the Catechism of the Catholic Church
Part One - The Profession of Faith
Section Two - The Profession of the Christian Faith
CHAPTER ONE I Believe in God the Father
The Symbols of Faith

47. Who is the Holy Spirit revealed to us by Jesus Christ? 243-248 The Holy Spirit is the third Person of the Most Blessed Trinity. He is God, one and equal with the Father and the Son. He "proceeds from the Father" (John 15:26) who is the principle without a principle and the origin of all trinitarian life. He proceeds also from the Son (Filioque) by the eternal Gift which the Father makes of him to the Son. Sent by the Father and the Incarnate Son, the Holy Spirit guides the Church "to know all truth" (John 16:13).

48. How does the Church express her trinitarian faith? 249-256; 266 The Church expresses her trinitarian faith by professing a belief in the oneness of God in whom there are three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The three divine Persons are only one God because each of them equally possesses the fullness of the one and indivisible divine nature. They are really distinct from each other by reason of the relations which place them in correspondence to each other. The Father generates the Son; the Son is generated by the Father; the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son.

49. How do the three divine Persons work? 257-260; 267 Inseparable in their one substance, the three divine Persons are also inseparable in their activity. The Trinity has one operation, sole and the same. In this one divine action, however, each Person is present according to the mode which is proper to him in the Trinity.

"O my God, Trinity whom I adore...grant my soul peace; make it your heaven, your beloved dwelling, and the place of your rest. May I never abandon you there, but may I be there, whole and entire, completely vigilant in my faith, entirely adoring, and wholly given over to your creative action."

- Blessed Elizabeth of the Trinity

OUR PRAYER LIFE

TODAY'S READINGS AND REFLECTION

First Reading: So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said, "It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." (Acts 6:2-4)

Reflection Question: We hear today of some of the practical problems (assisting widows) the early Christians faced with the growing Church in Jerusalem. They solved the problem with division of labor. Which of your co-workers or friends need your help this week to carry a burden?

Psalm: Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you. (Ps 33) Or Alleluia.

Second Reading: You are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises" of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. (1 Pt 2:9)

Reflection Question: Peter contrasts those with faith who announce the praises of God to those without faith who disobey God's word. How do you react to family or friends who are without faith?
Gospel: Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father." (Jn 14:6-7)

Reflection Question: Jesus assured his disciples that "whoever believes in me will do the works that I do." How do you think you imitate Jesus?

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF FATIMA

Most Holy Virgin who hast deigned to come to Fatima, to reveal the treasures of graces hidden in the recitation of the Rosary, inspire our hearts with a sincere love of this devotion that meditating on the Mysteries of our Redemption recalled therein, we may obtain the conversion of sinners and the favors we ask you now, for the greater glory of God, for your own honor, and for the good of souls. Amen.

Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima, pray for us!

PRAYER

How many of us pray for the wrong reasons! We have a "slot machine" approach to prayer. We just insert a prayer and out will come instant fulfillment and immediate gratification, regardless of whether what we are asking for is moral, ethical, or possible. Regardless of whether or not it clashes with the needs and hopes of others.

When what we ask for has been denied to us, we often abandon prayer as an exercise in futility. We forget that prayer as its highest involves praise and thanksgiving. Its primary concern is not getting but becoming. Our prayers are answered when they enable us to grow toward the person we are capable of being and live as God would have us live.

Instead of affirming anything about physical circumstances, affirm your complete trust in God. Move your heart into the state where the way He works out the problem, literally does not matter any longer (this is important). Then ask Him to work His perfect and loving will in the situation --His will. You are not asking for the good; you are asking for His great love and His infinite wisdom working for the greatest good. Then just stand back and watch the miracles fall neatly into place.

Sound simple? It isn't. But if you have faith enough to take the first step of letting go and allowing God to work out the problem, the rest is easy. You will be releasing the problem to His loving will. And what you turn loose on earth is loosed in heaven.

AN INVITATION TO PRAY

St. Julie Praise Ministry invites you to consider joining their team!

There are no meetings!! Deacon Rich sends out a monthly letter filled with wonderful reflections as well as the needs of our parish and the world to pray for. We will send you a prayer booklet to use, or you can use your own. This is a wonderful ministry for those who: *Love to pray.

*Want to set aside a few quiet moments to pray for others.

*Are looking for a closer relationship with Christ through prayer.

LEGACY PLANNING

You have faith in God; have faith also in me.

(John 14:1)

Every day, we have the opportunity to do the works of Jesus. You can help to support our parish by making a qualified charitable distribution ("QCD") gift from your individual retirement account.

A QCD gift (a.k.a. IRA charitable rollover) allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free. This way of giving does not generate taxable income, which may lower your annual income level. If you are age 72 or older, the amount you transfer may count towards your required minimum distribution.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to <insert parish name>, please contact <Name of parish contact, phone and email>. [(OPTIONAL) or contact Deacon Greg Vogt, Philanthropy Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.995.0686 or gvogt@archchicago.org].

CATHOLIC REFLECTION OF THE WEEK	RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
I recently rescued a dog. She's a terrier and rather adorable. And she's crazy about me. She could spend all day with me. But I'm a pastor at a parish and sometimes I leave her at the front desk of the church office. She constantly amazes me by her ability to distinguish between my voice and that of everyone else. If I say one word, even if I'm hidden around a corner, she'll sprint toward me and jump up into my arms. This week the readings focus our attention to the voice of the risen Jesus Christ. Comparing his disciples to sheep and himself to a shepherd, he says, "They recognize his voice." He speaks to us and wants us to respond. When we hear his voice, we follow. Throughout this coming week, we will experience many interior promptings to receive God's love, and to love Him in return. That's his voice. Follow it into the safe and tender arms of Christ. By contrast, some voices we will hear do not convey God's concern and love for us, but rather produce fear, despair, and other harmful mischief. Jesus calls these voices those of robbers. Does an idea or thought make it harder for you to love God? If so, run away. Let it go. It is most likely not the voice of the Risen Lord. Keep waiting for him to speak. You will recognize his voice. Then run to him as fast as you can. — Father John Muir ©LPi	Everyone who has been married knows this feeling: you're in the midst of a disagreement with your spouse. You've really dug in your heels. You're ready to die on this hill. And you have the awful, heartbreaking realization that you are wrong. Whatever it is you're arguing about, you're wrong. You. So where do you go from here? The only way forward is to own it. Fess up. Grab a fork and dig into that humble pie. It makes me cringe just to write about it, because it's the worst feeling. I use the example of marriage because it's the one I'm most familiar with — my closest relationship, the one that teaches me the most about who I am and who God asks me to be. But this is a universal experience, and everyone — single or married, child or adult, lay or ordained — knows how badly it feels to realize that you're wrong. You're human. You messed up. It is hard to recognize that the Christian life is one of ongoing repentance. It is painful to acknowledge the ways in which we are falling short, even as we strive to follow in Christ's example. It can, in the words of today's reading, "cut to the heart." But that feeling of despair is what propels forward motion. We have to allow ourselves to feel bad, that's the fertile ground of penitence. We are meant to have not just life, but life "more abundantly." Stasis isn't the goal. Baptism isn't the finish line. Examining our conscience is hard. It cuts to the heart. It cuts to the truth. —Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK: We know the voice of our shepherd. We know he speaks a language of love, of patience, of long-suffering sacrifice. The voice of the thief will offer us freedom, but it is a freedom that ends in destruction. There is only one gate that leads to everlasting life. ©LPi	"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins." — Acts 2:38 ©LPi
WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Question: Does it matter what leg you kneel on when genuflecting? Answer: Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection. The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting, becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist. In our tradition, although many have been taught or prefer to genuflect by placing their right knee on the ground, there is no prescribed way to genuflect. This is especially important to keep in mind if physical limitations or age make certain movements difficult for us. Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar. ©LPi
