A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

In case you missed it in the last Midweek Moment, where are we going on pilgrimage?

First, thank you to all for your input regarding the plan for the International Pilgrimages. As many of you may know, I have taken several groups on various pilgrimages. I have taken 3 groups to the Holy Land. On another occasion I had taken 1 group through a pilgrimage from Lourdes through the south of France ending up into Italy. Since I began taking groups on International Pilgrimages, I have found that it has been a great way to experience our Catholic faith in an entirely different way.

For example, every time I take a group to the Holy Land, there is a common feedback that I always hear from both the first timers and even repeat travelers. Namely, pilgrims have always been grateful for the opportunity because the experience of being in the place where it all began for us as Christians gave the pilgrims a new perspective on the stories of Sacred Scripture. More often than not, pilgrims will comment that they have heard the stories from the gospels and taken them for granted. But, when they were able to be in the same place on earth where Jesus himself had walked and seen with their own eyes where he exercised his ministry and touched the place where he was born or where he died, suddenly those stories take on a whole new perspective.

Likewise, when I took a group to Lourdes, there were similar comments. When pilgrims arrived at the cave in Lourdes where the Virgin Mary appeared to St. Bernadette, there was an overwhelming feeling that came over them—a feeling of calm and peace knowing that they were standing in the same place where a miracle took place. In that same trip, we traveled to other places of significance both to our faith and history in general. We visited the palace in Avignon, France. That palace holds important significance for our Catholic history being the palace where the papacy had been exiled during a time of tumult within the Church. We further traveled to Assisi, Italy to visit the place where St. Francis lived and died. The pilgrimage ended up in Rome, Italy where, obviously, St. Peter himself lived, exercised his ministry, and eventually was martyred. In all of those places, the Catholic faith came alive for the pilgrims in a unique way. They not only were able to make different historical connections but they also saw how faithful men and women have lived out the Catholic faith in various ways.

Do we have to travel abroad to be able to experience such a powerful impact on our faith life? Of course, it is not absolutely necessary. Many peoples' lives have been touched simply by reading about the life of a particular saint. Many have been inspired simply by listening to the testimony of others. For many, it has been enough to live vicariously through others. However, though, traveling to different parts of the world on pilgrimage—like traveling in general—allows for different perspectives and insights which are of great benefit in and of themselves. As one who has taken several groups on pilgrimage, I am always delighted to see how the eyes of people's faith seem to open and light up when they experience the presence of God in such a unique way. It is an opportunity that I will continue to take and provide for as many people as possible.

However, the one thing I have not been able to do as best as I would like has been to provide moments for reflection and faith sharing during the time on pilgrimage. Pilgrimages are relatively easy to put together especially when you contract with a travel company who does virtually all of the leg work. Travel companies will arrange virtually everything—the flights, hotels, meals, excursions, Masses, etc. There will also be an assigned tour guide. But, as the group leader, I am the one with whom the tour guide will connect while on pilgrimage. And as a spiritual and pastoral guide for the group, I need to be responsible for the wellbeing of all the pilgrims. Basically, it can be tiring being the only group leader on a pilgrimage. As much as I have wanted to lead the pilgrims in reflection or faith sharing at the end of each day of the pilgrimage, I can just lose energy by the time we get back to the hotel.

So, for this time around, I invited Nathan Roy to come and help me with the parish pilgrimages we intend to take. Each day of pilgrimage can be powerful moments of conversion and faith growth. In those instances, it is crucial to reflect on those moments when they happen so that pilgrims are able to discern how the voice of God might be speaking to them through what they experienced. Reflecting on those experiences right away can equip pilgrims better to take the next step of inspiring greater faith in those who will hear their stories after they have returned home. Nathan will be of great help in this area.

As you have now read through all of this, you are probably thinking, “Okay so tell us where we are going already!” Again, thank you to all who provided your input. Let me make it clear that we will eventually travel to ALL of the places that were mentioned in the recent survey. The question that Nathan and I needed answered was simply “Where do we go first?”

After looking at all of the responses, a trip to the Holy Land received the most votes in the survey. So in September 2024, the parish pilgrimage will take us to the Holy Land with hopefully a side trip to Jordan. The hope this time around is to provide an opportunity for first timers to travel themselves to the land where it all began for us. Hopefully, this new group of pilgrims will be just as transformed in their faith as the pilgrims I took last year. Of course, if you have already gone to the Holy Land and want to go again, there is no harm in that. Everyone will be welcomed to join – parishioners and non-parishioners alike. We are looking for a group of no more than 30 pilgrims.

Again, I must emphasize that we will take the other pilgrimages in subsequent years. Holy Land is where it all began. The Footsteps of St. Paul (Greece and Turkey) will be the next trip in 2025. We will continue with the series of pilgrimages after that. We will start again where it all began for us – the place of Jesus’ life – and continue from there to see how our Christian faith spread to all the parts of the world.

*"Peace be with you...
Receive the Holy Spirit."*

- John 20:19-23

Happy Pentecost Sunday!

Pentecost Sunday celebration underlines the birth of the Church as it is today. It is the Easter community of believers who received the Holy Spirit and worshipped the Risen Lord on the first day of the week, and continues to do so today. We continue to be that Church.

The Holy Spirit who dwells in the Church works quietly, but effectively. Like the life of a vine, which constantly but silently carries nutrients to every branch, invisibly producing luscious, visible fruit, the Holy Spirit is always gently inspiring us to follow Christ more closely, so that we can experience a truly abundant life. But unlike vines, this process doesn't happen automatically. It depends partly on our free choice. That's why Jesus says in the Gospel, "Whoever loves me will keep my word."

We don't obey the Holy Spirit's inspirations like robots; we obey out of love, because we know that Christ will never lead us astray, and because we want to stay close to him. That is our part, to obey God's will. And since the Holy Spirit typically works quietly, we have to pay close attention. We have to make a point of listening to him, of consulting him when we have decisions to make or doubts to resolve. He guides us from within. Like the way magnetism guides a compass, unless we frequently look to see where that compass is pointing we will never reach the destination we long for.

Let us pay attention - not in order to experience spiritual fireworks, but in order to feed the fire of God's love in our hearts, whose light and heat we all need so much..

COMPENDIUM of the Catechism of the Catholic Church
Part One - The Profession of Faith
Section Two - The Profession of the Christian Faith
CHAPTER ONE I Believe in God the Father
The Symbols of Faith

"The glory of God is man fully alive; moreover man's life is the vision of God." (Saint Irenaeus)

56. How do we collaborate with divine Providence? 307-308; 323 While respecting our freedom, God asks us to cooperate with him and gives us the ability to do so through actions, prayers and sufferings, thus awakening in us the desire "to will and to work for his good pleasure" (Philippians 2:13).

57. If God is omnipotent and provident, why then does evil exist? 309-310; 324, 400 To this question, as painful and mysterious as it is, only the whole of Christian faith can constitute a response. God is not in any way - directly or indirectly - the cause of evil. He illuminates the mystery of evil in his Son Jesus Christ who died and rose in order to vanquish that great moral evil, human sin, which is at the root of all other evils.

58. Why does God permit evil? 311-314; 324 Faith gives us the certainty that God would not permit evil if he did not cause a good to come from that very evil. This was realized in a wondrous way by God in the death and resurrection of Christ. In fact, from the greatest of all moral evils (the murder of his Son) he has brought forth the greatest of all goods (the glorification of Christ and our redemption).

TODAY'S READINGS AND REFLECTION

First Reading: And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. (Acts 2:4)

Reflection Question: Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles were able to speak "of the mighty acts of God" in many different languages. This speaks of God's desire for all believers to be united. How could you promote unity among those who believe?

Psalm: Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. (Ps 104) Or Alleluia.

Second Reading: For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. (2 Cor 12:13)

Reflection Question: Paul speaks of the many different individual gifts of the Spirit that are intended to benefit the larger community. What is the gift you bring to your family or community of friends?

Gospel: Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit." (Jn 20:21-22)

Reflection Question: With the power of the Holy Spirit, the resurrected Jesus instructs the disciples with this calling: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." How strong is your sense of vocation?

TOTUS TUUS

THE MYSTERY OF SALVATION
& DEDICATION TO THE SORROWFUL
MYSTERIES OF THE ROSARY

We're Going to the Holy Land!!

Thank you so much for your responses to our survey. After looking through all of them the overwhelming desire is to go to the Holy Land. Please remember that we will still be going to all of the locations, this is simply the starting point, and what a starting point it will be!

We are still working out the final pricing but I wanted to take a minute to explain to you all something that is very important to me. Perhaps, like many of you, I grew up with very little money. Thus, making a trip overseas was not only difficult but impossible for my family. Over the course of time, with work and savings I have had the good fortune in my adult years to be able to take some truly spectacular trips. On them I have found that there is no education like experience and travel. Here, at St. Julie, we hope to make these travel experiences more accessible to you! That means that over the course of the next several months we will be fundraising to make this once-in-a-lifetime pilgrimage as affordable as possible to you.

Lastly, you might ask yourself, "How is this experience going to be unique?" With us, not only will you receive all the same trappings of typical international pilgrimages with the sights, locations, accommodations, and food but you will also receive additional catechesis and experiences outside of the itinerary. Each morning and each evening we will have prayer and locational/historical background provided for you so that everyday spent in the holiest place on earth can be as fruitful as possible!

God's Love Poured Out | Episode 1

During the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we remember a fundamental pillar of our Faith: "God is love" (1 Jn 4:8). This simple statement is the beginning and the ending of our pilgrimage of Faith. In this episode of The Wild Goose, join Fr. Dave Pivonka as he illuminates God's eternal pouring out of Love.

DAYBREAK SHELTER BREAKFAST

Daybreak is a shelter located in Joliet and run by Catholic Charities. For the past 25+ years, St. Julie parishioners have provided a hot delicious breakfast on the first Sunday of the month.

A typical schedule:

5:00am – arrive and begin to prepare breakfast
6:00am – serve breakfast to some very beautiful people
7:00am – clean up what you used and head home!
Most teams are home no later than 8:00am. Teams are made up of 5 – 10 people and they decide what to serve.
The warmer months there might be 35 people and in the winter we may serve 50+ due to weather.

This is truly a great ministry for busy people! Everyone has three hours per year to give.

Talk to your friends, family and co-workers!
Think about it and if you feel this might be a good fit for you or you just have some questions, please give us a call or email. sheila@stjulie.org Service hours apply.
We thank you and the people of the shelter thank you for your kindness and your prayers.

Care for Creation: Protect Pollinators.

Bees, butterflies, and other key pollinators are necessary for most of our major food crops. Honey bees pollinate 80 percent of all flowering plants alone, including more than 130 types of fruits and vegetables. According to Farmers.gov, the ecological service provided by pollinators is valued at $200 billion each year.

Unfortunately, bee populations have dropped alarmingly across North America, as have the populations of many other pollinator species. They are in serious decline due to exposure to parasites, pesticides, disease, habitat loss and other environmental contaminants.

If we all dedicate just a small area to protecting habitats for pollinators, using native plants and sustainable gardening practices, we can help safeguard our common home. Limit pesticide use and consider following these tips to start your own pollinator garden at:

PENTECOST

SAINT AGNES VIETNAMESE MINISTRY

An Early Father's Day Celebration

What should we do when we encounter something that is good, beautiful and amazing? Well, sharing is caring. J Nguyen Van Chung, a Vietnamese composer, has written a beautiful song, titled Father and Daughter, about a girl who has a fervent desire. Here is what she wants:

"I want to come close and hold you, to lean on your shoulder. I want to hold your hands so tightly, the coarsened skin of your hands. I remember sitting behind you every evening, the sunshine's on my head. I remember laughing with you, afraid that it wouldn't last anymore.

Afraid that when I wake up, you're not here. There's nobody telling me the fairy tales. There's nobody asking me whether I am at home or not every night. There's nobody shading me from the sun and rain.

There's nobody loving me as when I was young. There's nobody carrying me, giving me a ride, and picking me up. During my childhood, the thing I remember the most when I was with you is your smile.

Remember the most peaceful days in my life. The wind blows my hair. I want you to brush my hair. Though time is flying by, I still want to be with you forever..."

To listen to the song, Cha va Con Gai sung by Thuy Chi/ Father and Daughter, with affectionate animation, visit https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1Y0jeAPH\_Pc

"What happened to this family?" you might ask. When the girl was young, her father went on a trip and never came back. For years, she continued going the place where her father last hugged her "good bye." She hopes to see him again. I will not spoil the story for you any further. The lyrics are moving and I hope you will click on the link and share it with others.

St. Agnes Ministry would like to honor ALL of the Fathers of our Parish. Especially those who have supported us from the start and have helped us grow in our Ministry. Thank you for being so welcoming and for demonstrating that you care about our mission.

On this occasion, St. Agnes ministry is hosting a Father's Day Celebration on June 11th, from 6:00 PM-9:30 PM. Everyone is invited! Join us as we celebrate the Second Annual Outdoor Vietnamese Father's Day

CATHOLIC REFLECTION OF THE WEEK	RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
I hope you'll acknowledge with me a simple fact: it's not normal to have tongues of fire "part and come to rest" on people. It is actually pretty strange. Yet that is precisely what we celebrate in this feast of Pentecost. How can this mean something to us in our daily lives? Jews had a tradition that heaven is a temple made of bricks of fire. So, through the apostles, the heavenly temple is coming to earth. But this fire looks like tongues, not bricks. That means that heavenly speech will be crucial to building a dwelling place for God on earth among men and women. So, it's no surprise when the apostles begin to speak in a miraculous way that is understood by all language groups. They are speaking of what God has done in and through Jesus: bringing heaven to earth and uniting all peoples to God and to each other. How often our speech divides: gossip, slander, insults, and so on. How strange and rare it is when people speak in ways that truly unite instead of divide. Imagine how powerful it would be if you and I began to speak at home, at work, and in our community in a way that made people hear heavenly speech. Imagine if you spoke of the mighty deeds of God in a way that everyone could understand. That's precisely what the Holy Spirit descends upon us to do. Ask Him to come as a tongue of fire to you once again, and He will. Then speak! — Father John Muir	"Fire! Fire! They're all gonna die! They're all gonna burn up!" I had absolutely no hope of restoring order as I read the story of Pentecost with my young children last year. As soon as they glimpsed the tongues of fire hovering over the foreheads of the apostles, they were lost to giggles and shrieks. I sighed, sipped my coffee, and wondered resentfully why the Holy Spirit couldn't have chosen to be a dove on that particular day. Just a nice, peaceful dove. I'll say this, though: the fire left an impression. It usually does, doesn't it? Fire consumes. It renews. It illuminates. It leaves you breathless with fear and awe. The memory and scent and impact of a flame lingers long after it is extinguished. When I am trying to explain theology to my kids, I have an awful habit of overcomplicating things. I'd had a whole speech prepared for them about what the Holy Spirit is, but it went out the window as soon as they saw the flames. And you know what? It's probably for the best. They wouldn't have remembered that speech. The flames, though? The flames they remembered. The flame communicated. As a result of Pentecost, the apostles suddenly had the ability to give the truth to foreigners. Aliens. People who were heretofore beyond their reach, isolated by language. The flame communicated. God's sense of timing is impeccable, and His delivery is carefully crafted. And on Pentecost, the Holy Spirit did not descend as a dove or pour forth as water. On Pentecost, the Holy Spirit burned. -- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." — Psalm 104 ©LPi
LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK: The disciples at Pentecost were given the grace to speak in the tongues of many nations. When we engage with those who do not believe, who disagree with us, are we speaking the right language? We have to use the words they are able to understand — not just the words we want to say. ©LPi
WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Question: My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith? Answer: There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns. Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you! ©LPi
