BEING DISCIPLES OF JESUS

Fr. Tirso Villaverde
Pastor

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

This weekend, I wanted to report on a few things.

First, some have asked about the Holy Land Pilgrimage that we recently announced. We are still working on a few details before we can open it up to registration. Among those details includes financial assistance to interested pilgrims in order to make the trip as affordable as possible. As soon as we can figure out that plan, we can begin taking registrations. But, for those who may be interested and need the dates to request time off, we will be visiting the Holy Land from September 17 – 26, 2024.

Second, Kristen Maxwell who has been our Coordinator of Youth Ministry for the last year will resign at the end of this month. She felt called to go back to a classroom setting and was offered a position at a Catholic high school. Kristen has done a lot of good work for both St. George and us. I, for one, will be grateful to her for her contributions and wish her well on her next endeavor.

Please join me in thanking God for Kristen who has been a gift to us and to St. George. We on the staff will miss her. But we all understand that Kristen has responded to her vocation in the best way she knows how.

With Kristen resigning, how will we handle youth ministry? This involved a bit of a challenge. For one, there is our continuing struggle with finances. Although we are much better now than we were several years ago, our budget remains very tight. Hiring another Youth Minister – on our own or shared – would involve a big expense in salary and benefits. So, the financial aspect remains a big concern.

To come up with a solution, I consulted first with Nathan Roy our Director of Lifelong Faith Formation. The ongoing faith formation of our youth truly is a part of his role as DLFF. He has agreed to assume some of the responsibilities of providing our youth with those moments to grow in their faith. Yes, this will involve more work on Nathan's part but I am glad that he has agreed to add this to his ministry. Of course, he will need support from the staff which I am sure he will receive. I have every confidence that Nathan will be able to develop a way for the parish to help our youth become stronger disciples.

As Nathan takes on this added responsibility, his focus in regards to youth ministry will be limited just to the parish of St. Julie. In other words, he will not be shared with another parish as we did with Kristen. Running a shared youth ministry program was challenging enough for Kristen. This would be impossible for Nathan. So his focus again will be the youth of our parish but, of course, there will always be room for collaboration with the neighboring parishes.

Third item to report, for the next couple of weeks we will have bulletins with reduced number of pages. We have a contract with a company that prints our bulletins every week. Luckily, the printing of our bulletins is at no cost to the parish. Further, the parish gets some money back from the bulletins because of the businesses who have taken out ads. Our contract, though, requires us to reduce the number of pages from time to time. Together with Darla Draus and Tony Serratore who put the bulletin together every week, we decided that summer weeks would be the best time to reduce the pages. Summer tends to get a little bit lighter with events and activities. So in case you end up wondering what is going on with our bulletins, I wanted you to be informed.

For the time being, I hope that everyone is enjoying your summer months. May this be a time to rejuvenate and reenergize.

Peace,

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father."

- Matthew 10:32

Let us talk about an ever present reality in this world – SUFFERING. Jesus has two important thoughts about it. First, here on earth there is no escape from it. We hear from some preachers that if we believe hard enough in Jesus, He will take away all our suffering. Jesus never said that. Jesus told us that if we want to follow Him, we will have to take up our cross every day. He told His Apostles not to be afraid of those who kill the body, but He didn't say that no one would try to kill them. In fact, all of Christ's first Apostles were martyred - except St John the Evangelist, who miraculously survived being boiled in oil. Following Jesus will not save us from suffering in this life. That is His first thought.

His second thought explains why He allows His followers to go through suffering. Suffering entered the world with sin, as St. Paul reminds us in the Second Reading. To save us from suffering, Jesus would have to eliminate all sin, but that would mean eliminating all freedom, since sin is a freely chosen rebellion against God. However, eliminating freedom would also eliminate the possibility of experiencing and giving love. If so, we would become God's robots, instead of God's children. Instead of eliminating suffering, Jesus transformed it, turning it into a channel of grace. Being faithful to his friendship, even in the midst of opposition and suffering, will make that friendship grow. "Everyone who acknowledges Me before others," He explains, "I will acknowledge before My Father." In other words, by choosing to bear our sufferings as Christ bore His, with trust in God, patience, courage, and love, uniting our crosses to Christ's cross, those sufferings actually become channels of wisdom, grace, and holiness, which are the fountains of happiness in this life and the life to come.

If we reflect on this more deeply, it would make sense why Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta wanted "to love till it hurts". Let us pray for God's grace for us to do the same in our own unique way.

COMPENDIUM of the Catechism of the Catholic Church
Part One - The Profession of Faith
Section Two - The Profession of the Christian Faith
CHAPTER ONE I Believe in God the Father

The Symbols of Faith

"I believe in God the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth."

Heaven and Earth

Man

68. Why does the human race form a unity? 360-361 All people form the unity of the human race by reason of the common origin which they have from God. God has made "from one ancestor all the nations of men" (Acts 17:26). All have but one Savior and are called to share in the eternal happiness of God.

69. How do the soul and body form a unity in the human being? 362-365; 382 The human person is a being at once corporeal and spiritual. In man spirit and matter form one nature. This unity is so profound that, thanks to the spiritual principle which is the soul, the body which is material, becomes a living human body and participates in the dignity of the image of God.

70. Where does the soul come from? 366-368; 382 The spiritual soul does not come from one's parents but is created immediately by God and is immortal. It does not perish at the moment when it is separated from the body in death and it will be once again reunited with the body at the moment of the final resurrection.

OUR PRAYER LIFE

TODAY'S READINGS AND REFLECTION

First Reading: "Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!" (Jer 20:13)

Reflection Question: We hear how the prophet Jeremiah turned to God when he felt alone and attacked. What do you need to pray to God for this week?

Psalm: Lord, in your great love, answer me. (Ps 69)

Second Reading: But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one-man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. (Rom 5:15)

Reflection Question: Paul taught that through the grace of God, Christ reversed the sin of Adam, which brought death to all. When have you felt God's grace in your life?

Gospel: "What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul." (Mt 10:28)

Reflection Question: Jesus encourages his disciples not to be afraid. What are some fears you have that you could turn over to God?

PRAYER TO STS PETER AND PAUL APOSTLES

Grant, we pray, O Lord our God, that we may be sustained by the intercession of the blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, that, as through them you gave your Church the foundations of her heavenly office, so through them you may help her to eternal salvation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

CATHOLIC REFLECTION OF THE WEEK	RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
When I was in middle school, there were times I didn't want my fellow students to see my parents drop me off or pick me up in the school parking lot. I was embarrassed of my parents. Why? I have no idea. Maybe it was our station wagon. Or I didn't want to look like a little kid. But in retrospect that was a silly thing to do. I was a kid. And I had two parents who loved me and had built a wonderful family. I was afraid of the other kids' judgment. How silly! I should have been afraid of forgetting or downplaying my family, which is where my identity had its deep roots. This is a way to understand Jesus' words to his disciples this Sunday, when he says, "Don't be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." Fear, in this sense, refers to where we find our deepest identity and our highest love. That's why Jesus says next that when we acknowledge him before others, he will acknowledge us before the Father. It doesn't mean we're brash or boastful. But rather we unhesitatingly and humbly embrace our identity as followers of Jesus and children of God the Father. After all, if we love who we are and where we come from, who cares what the other kids think about us? — Father John Muir ©LPi	I have a necklace that originally belonged to my great-grandmother. I don't really know much about the man who gave it to her, most of those details have been lost to time. But I know that he wanted to marry her, and that she refused, and it had something to do with religion — ultimately, he did not share her faith. And while I've certainly seen many interfaith couples have loving and successful marriages, in this particular case, my great-grandmother discerned that this would not be one of those marriages. Like I said, I don't have many details about this man, but I know that she felt she couldn't marry him because it might jeopardize the souls of her children, and therefore the souls of their children, and their children after them — me. She turned him down because of me. My great-grandmother never sold that necklace, not even when the Great Depression further reduced her financial circumstances. She kept it, and she gave it to her daughter, who gave it to her daughter, who gave it to me. The necklace is always given with a warning: there is something worse than being poor, worse than being scared, worse even than being desperate. Worse than all of these things is separation from God. When I wear this necklace, I think about my grandmother and this man she possibly loved a hundred years ago. I think of the many decisions we make every day — large and small, good and bad — that reverberate down through the generations in ways we cannot, at the time, imagine. I think of the God who knows every hair on my head. -- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK: Christ promises to acknowledge us before his Father if we will acknowledge him. In what ways are we called to acknowledge Christ today? In what ways are we tempted to deny him, to distance ourselves from him? ©LPi	"And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." — Matthew 10:28 ©LPi
WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Question: What is Lectio Divina, and how is it associated with the Benedictine Monastic tradition, whose founder, St. Benedict, we honor on July 11? Answer: Benedict desired his monks to live in community, praying the Liturgy of the Hours together, contemplating sacred texts, and doing manual labor. The monks developed a technique to facilitate a spiritual and devotional reading of the Bible known as Lectio Divina, the holy reading of a text. This method encourages the reader to hear the biblical text with an open heart and focus on whatever God wants to highlight and then apply it to daily life. There are variations on Lectio Divina, but essentially, the technique consists of a three-step process of reflection. When the reflection is done with a group, the responses are shared by all the participants. Once the text is selected, it is read meditatively, and the following are then explored: a word or phrase that attracts you; how and where the content of this reading touches your life today; what you believe that God wants you to do during this coming week (month, year, lifetime). Thanks to Benedict, the Christian community has been gifted with this special way of entering into the biblical text. This week, use the Lectio Divina process on one of the readings for the coming Sunday and make a note of the life connections you are making. How is this reflection on the biblical text drawing you closer to God and others? ©LPi

SACRED JOURNEY YOUTH MINISTRY

Kristen Maxwell
Youth Minister
St. Julie / St. George
kristen@stjulie.org

We are excited to be offering Totus Tuus at St. Julie's Devine Center July 9-14! Totus Tuus is sponsored by the Archdiocese of Chicago and is led by young missionaries, including some young men who are considering the priesthood. It aims to inspire young people to seek holiness, desire conversion, and renew their faith through prayer. This year's theme is "The Mystery of Salvation." The evening program is for 7th-12th graders and runs July 9th-13th from 7-9pm. Teens are also encouraged to help with the day program to earn service hours. They can come to the evening program for free if they volunteer during the day. There is a link on both parish websites to register, as well as forms in the St. Julie parish office and St. George rectory. Please see flyer for more details.

*We are looking for volunteers to help us by donating the following items to the parish office any time before July 9. They can also be dropped off at the Devine Center the week of Totus Tuus. These items are needed for snacks and games: individually wrapped snacks (such as granola bars or chips), sundae toppings, water balloons, plain unscented shaving cream.

* Thanks to all the teens who enjoyed Great America with us! It was a beautiful day!

* I am so grateful that the teens, chaperones, and I were able to grow in faith while having a safe and healthy trip to Kentucky. God definitely answered our prayers and blessed us incredibly. The priests, Sisters of Charity, and young missionaries did an excellent job of connecting the Real Presence of the Eucharist with service, reminding us that we are living tabernacles and we must see Christ in others and bow to one another in service. We helped a woman who has been suffering since the flood last July. She is a widow and has four young boys and their home has been suffering ever since. We cleared out and helped straighten up the house, and we also installed insulation and dry wall. Thank you to our wonderful parishioners to have supported us with prayers and donations. This couldn't have been possible

KY Youth Mission 2023

Hello! My name is Emily Conneely. I am 17 years old and will be a Senior at Andrew High School this fall. I am a parishioner at Saint Julie Billiart. I was a participant on our recent mission trip to Jenkins, Kentucky, through an organization called Catholic Mission Trips. I had so much fun on this trip, and I would recommend it for any teens in the Church in the future. This was my first trip; I did not really know what to expect, but I had a blast! Catholic Mission Trips is very good at tying together faith, service, and fun.

CARE FOR CREATION

Consider zero-waste options for picnics, BBQ and camping meals. Reusable items add a touch of class, sensibility and significantly reduce waste. Use lightweight reusable plates, utensils, bowls, cups and cloth napkins. Get creative with packaging. Reusable containers? Of course. What about Mason jar desserts? Go heavy on finger foods: cut vegetables and mixed nuts. Wipe off food when finished and use a washable cloth bag to hold used dinnerware for dishwashing later. Reserve a bag for recyclables and a container for compostables. If you must go disposable, use biodegradable paper products instead of plastic. Ditch the straws. Use a large thermos for drinks. Take other beverages in metal or glass containers and recycle. Skipping bottled water saves money and the environment.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

What Will Your Legacy Be?

We hope you will consider including a gift to our parish in your will or trust to support the future of our faith community. A bequest can be made to our parish using the following language:

"I give [insert specific dollar amount, or percentage of net or residuary] to The Catholic Bishop of Chicago, Tax ID #36-2170826, a corporation sole located in Chicago, Illinois, to be used for the benefit of <insert name of parish> located in <insert city>, Illinois. However, if <insert name of parish> ceases to exist in its current form, then to the new parish or parishes erected in its stead."

Please consult an attorney and financial advisor when drafting your will or trust. For more information, please contact <Name of parish contact, phone, and email>. [(OPTIONAL) or contact Deacon Greg Vogt, Philanthropy Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.995.0686 or gvogt@archchicago.org].
