BEING DISCIPLES OF JESUS

Fr. Tirso Villaverde
Pastor

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Totus Tuus begins again this weekend. On behalf of the entire parish community, I welcome at this weekend's Masses the missionaries that will be running the weeklong camp for teens and young children. This is an opportunity that I and others have been encouraging children and parents to take part in for the benefit of the faith journey of our youth.

For those who might need a refresher, the phrase Totus Tuus comes from the Latin meaning "Totally Yours." It was the motto of Pope Saint John Paul II. The phrase refers to a dedication to the Virgin Mary. In becoming totally dedicated to the Virgin Mary, she, in turn, teaches us the way to belong totally to Christ.

There are five pillars of the program:

1. The Eucharist

Every day, all of the participants in the day program will go to Mass at 11:15am. As we have done in the past, ALL parishioners are invited to join the campers for Mass. The Eucharist is the "source and summit" of our Christian lives. The experience would be missing a great deal without this essential component.

2. Marian Devotion

The motto of Pope St. John Paul II was centered on a devotion to Mary. She is the preeminent disciple — the one who truly shows us the way to hear the Word of God and act on it. Marian Devotion is also another important aspect of the Totus Tuus experience. Participants will pray the rosary and learn to appreciate the beauty of this most ancient prayer to form their total dedication to Christ through their love of the Virgin.

3. Catechetical Instruction

A Catholic Summer Camp loses meaning and focus if catechesis is not an essential component. To become better disciples of Jesus within the Catholic Church, our younger generation needs to understand what we believe in order to live it out. This weeklong camp is not meant to replace what children will gain from either a Catholic school experience or a parish Faith Formation program. Instead, it is meant to enhance and enrich what they already are learning.

4. Vocation Discernment

We can all agree that our younger generation is faced with so many more distractions than before. Totus Tuus seeks to give the participants some of the tools in order to discern what are "things of the world" and what are the "things of heaven." In being able to distinguish between the two, future generations will be better equipped to discern their individual vocations. A vocation is not only a calling from God but also a way of dedicating oneself to a particular way of life through which he/she can live out one's discipleship.

5. Fun

The final essential component to Totus Tuus is fun. Disciples have to be "on fire" with love for Jesus and this will never happen unless they are formed in such a way where they see clearly that the life of discipleship has a direct impact on their daily lives. Totus Tuus never wants to see the children bored about their faith. Instead, we seek to see them more and more engaged.

In the coming week, I ask that we all pray for our Totus Tuus missionaries and the children and teens from both St. Julie and St. George together with all our volunteers. May we all grow in our love for Jesus.

Peace,

*"For my yoke is easy,
and my burden light."*

- Matthew 11:30

I mentioned last week that it is hard to follow Jesus, but it is worth it. Inevitable pain and suffering is what makes it hard, like a burden put on our shoulders

- a yoke. However, once we learn to pick the yoke that is of the Lord and recognize more fully the preciousness of what is beyond this world, the joy and peace deep within us begin to transform every experience of doing what is previously considered impossible because of suffering and pain.

Christ brings peace to our souls. We have all experienced Christ's peace, at least a little bit. We have tasted the joy of his forgiveness in the sacrament of confession, the assurance that He is taking care of loved ones who have died, the consolation of knowing that He is near. However, for most of us, that interior peace is not so deep and steady as we would like. The storms of life still seem to upset the ship of faith on which our hearts sail. Is there anything we can do to experience Christ's peace more steadily, securely, and deeply? "Take My yoke upon you," Jesus says, "and I will give you rest." What is that yoke? Jesus tells us, "Learn from Me, for I am meek and humble of heart." Humility is the secret to experiencing Christ's peace. The more we grow in humility, the more Christ's peace, strength, and wisdom takes over our hearts.

Like all the virtues, humility grows gradually, like a muscle, if we exercise it. There are three very easy ways to exercise humility. First, prayer. Every time we pray sincerely, we acknowledge our dependence on God - an act of humility. St. John Vianney used to say, "God commands you to pray, but He forbids you to worry," - variation of the old saying, "Courage is fear that has said its prayers." Second, speaking well of other people. Every time we observe and praise the good points of others, we loosen the shackles of arrogance and envy that bind humility. Third, obedience to God's will. Whenever we fulfill our responsibilities in life, follow our conscience, and obey God's will, we are humbly reversing the arrogant rebellion of original sin.

Jesus continues to exercise His own humility and love by coming to us in Holy Communion. We respond by allowing ourselves to long for His peace, and ask Him to lay His restful yoke of humility upon us.

COMPENDIUM of the Catechism of the Catholic Church
Part One - The Profession of Faith
Section Two - The Profession of the Christian Faith
CHAPTER ONE I Believe in God the Father

The Symbols of Faith
Heaven and Earth—The Fall

73. How should we understand the reality of sin? 385-389 Sin is present in human history. This reality of sin can be understood clearly only in the light of divine revelation and above all in the light of Christ the Savior of all. Where sin abounded, he made grace to abound all the more.

74. What was the fall of the angels? 391-395; 414 This expression indicates that Satan and the other demons, about which Sacred Scripture and the Tradition of the Church speak, were angels, created good by God. They were, however, transformed into evil because with a free and irrevocable choice they rejected God and his Kingdom, thus giving rise to the existence of hell. They try to associate human beings with their revolt against God. However, God has wrought in Christ a sure victory over the Evil One.

75. What was the first human sin? 396-403; 415-417 When tempted by the devil, the first man and woman allowed trust in their Creator to die in their hearts. In their disobedience they wished to become "like God" but without God and not in accordance with God (Genesis 3:5). Thus, Adam and Eve immediately lost for themselves and for all their descendants the original grace of holiness and justice.

OUR PRAYER LIFE

TODAY'S READINGS AND REFLECTION

First Reading: See, your king shall come to you; a just savior is he, meek, and riding on an ass, on a colt, the foal of an ass. (Zec 9:9)

Reflection Question: The prophet Zechariah saw the future king of Israel restoring both the land and the people, bringing peace and justice to all the nations. How might you help build toward this promised future?

Psalm: I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God. (Ps 145) Or Alleluia.

Second Reading: For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (Rom 8:13)

Reflection Question: Paul speaks of the power of the Spirit living in those who believe in Jesus. When have you felt or experienced the presence of the Holy Spirit in your life?

Gospel: Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. (Mt 11:29)

Reflection Question: Jesus invites all who are burdened and laboring to find "rest" in him. What burdens do you or your family need lifted from your life?

ST KATERI TEKAKWITHA-FEAST JULY 14TH

On July 14th, we celebrate the feast of the "Lily of the Mohawks." St. Kateri Tekakwitha is the first Native American woman to be canonized. Orphaned by a smallpox outbreak, Kateri survived with severe scarring and impaired eyesight. Despite tragedy, she was a devout girl at a young age, often building crosses from sticks in the woods. When she was 18, she began secret instruction in the Catholic faith with French missionaries. Her commitment to Christianity and vow of virginity was misunderstood and ridiculed by her fellow villagers.

She escaped to a nearby mission, where she attended daily Mass, taught the children, and cared for the sick and the elderly. Sometimes the greatest misunderstandings can come from those closest to us. Like St. Kateri, God invites us to be faithful to our commitments of faith and to always respond in love.

Letters from St. Julie Billiart

You won't be driven beyond your strength; there will be someone to show you what you don't know, so you will have support.

CATHOLIC REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

Do you ever feel restless? I certainly do. Daily tasks and challenges, but also the more basic demand of simply existing — sooner or later, this can all feel crushing and tire us out.

Which is why Jesus' words are such stunningly good news: "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). How vastly weird that this man speaks as though he is capable of giving us the deep repose we desire. Is his claim the height of absurd grandiosity? No, because next he immediately proclaims that he is "meek and humble of heart."

We here touch a mystery: Jesus is capable of giving us rest because he is the one who forever reposes in the heart of God the Father. He is "yoked" to the Father in his divinity. But he is humbly "yoked" to us, sharing in our humanity.

The good news, my fellow tired-out friends: we don't have to despair in our burdens and exhaustion, no matter how heavy they feel. This week, join me in opening our hearts to hear him say to us, "Come! I will give you rest." We come to him in the Church, Eucharist, the Scriptures, prayer, in the poor. There he will give us rest.

— Father John Muir

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Coming Back to Church

Question: I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer: If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back. This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

A Ballad of Flesh and Spirit

"My yoke is easy and my burden is light," says the man hanging from a cross. And if we only went on what we see with our eyes — flesh driven through by nails and sword, swollen from beating and inches from expiration — it would seem like a joke.

I'll tell you something we all know: this life on earth is hard. It's either too long or it's too short. It's frequently painful. It's riddled with problems that seem to make no sense. It is, as Dickens wrote, "made of ever so many partings welded together."

But it's also shockingly, senselessly beautiful. It is full of physical experiences of love, joy, and peace that are so powerful they leave you breathless.

It is both these things — good and bad, hard and wonderful, just as we are both body and soul, spirit and flesh.

No one knows the Father except the Son, who entered into our bodily existence to free us from enslavement to it. No one knows the Son except the Father, and the means by which they know one another — the love passing between them, the Third Person himself — has been shared with us, has made its dwelling within us through baptism.

-- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

PRAYER TO ST BENEDICT ABBOT

O Glorious St. Benedict, sublime model of virtue, pure vessel of God's grace! Behold me humbly kneeling at your feet. I implore you in your loving kindness to pray for me before the throne of God. To you I have recourse in the dangers that daily surround me. Shield me against my selfishness and my indifference to God and to my neighbor. Inspire me to imitate you in all things. May your blessing be with me always, so that I may see and serve Christ in others and work for His kingdom. Graciously obtain for me from God those favors and graces which I need so much in the trials, miseries, and afflictions of life. Your heart was always full of love, compassion, and mercy toward those who were afflicted or troubled in any way. You never dismissed without consolation and assistance anyone who had recourse to you. I therefore invoke your powerful intercession, confident in the hope that you will hear my prayers and obtain for me the special grace and favor I earnestly implore (mention your favor). Help me, great St. Benedict, to live and die as a faithful child of God, to run in the sweetness of His loving will, and to attain the eternal happiness of heaven. Amen.

Laundry Energy Saving Tips

There are two ways to reduce the amount of energy used for washing clothes—use less water and use cooler water. Unless you're dealing with oily stains, the warm or cold water setting on your machine will generally do a good job of cleaning your clothes. Switching your temperature setting from hot to warm can cut a load's energy use in half.

- Wash your clothes in cold water using cold-water detergents whenever possible.
- Wash and dry full loads. If you are washing a small load, use the appropriate water-level setting.
- Dry towels and heavier cottons in a separate load from lighter-weight clothes.
- Don't over-dry your clothes. If your machine has a moisture sensor, use it.
