A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

It was about a year ago this time that the parish community found itself saying farewell to a great woman of faith. I speak of our beloved Pat Kmak. At that time, we thought that we were going to join together in wishing good luck for a well-earned and well-deserved retirement. However, God seemed to have other plans for her. As her children came home to join in the retirement celebration, the sudden shock came to all of us that Pat's earthly journey had come to an end and God had called her home. Instead of celebrating her retirement, we ended up celebrating her Christian burial.

Pat Kmak still remains a huge part of our life as a parish community. She was there from the very beginning and perhaps even before. Before the parish was declared a parish, Pat was part of the planning process to build a parish community in this part of Tinley Park. Then, once the parish was formed, Pat was there throughout the entire process—choosing a name, breaking ground for buildings, creating a faith formation program, etc. In every way, Pat Kmak was as much a pioneer as our founding pastor—Fr. Devine. As we mark the first death anniversary of our beloved Pat Kmak, it is good for us as a parish community to remember her example of faith and her life of generosity.

For the next couple of weeks, Pat's picture will be displayed in the narthex as a reminder to us all of her faith, love, and commitment to making disciples. I take this time to remind everyone of the other ways we as a parish have kept her example alive. For one, part of the Devine Center has been renamed as the Pat Kmak Center for Faith Formation. There is already a sign on the façade of the Devine Center that reflects this. Second, we continue to have the Pat Kmak Faith Formation Fund. Parishioners are constantly invited and encouraged to contribute to that fund. It is meant to keep Pat's legacy alive of helping to form future generations of faithful disciples. Whether it is through financial assistance to those families who might need it or providing for transformative experiences, the Pat Kmak Faith Formation Fund is a great way to honor the life of a woman to whom this parish owes so much.

Pat's death last year was a huge shock to all of us. Pat was such a strong person—not only in the faith but physically as well. Even when her body felt the effects of aging, she never let on that she was going through anything. I am sure that all of us expected Pat to live many more years allowing her the opportunity to enjoy retirement. Again, though, God called her home and she accepted that invitation. Even if she were still alive, she would be the first to say that all of the attention is unwanted. That was the type of person Pat was. Still, as a parish community it will be good for us to remember.

Lord our God, the death of our sister Pat recalls our human condition and the brevity of our lives on earth. But for those who believe in your love death is not the end, nor does it destroy the bonds that you forge in our lives. We share the faith of your Son's disciples and the hope of the children of God. Bring the light of Christ's resurrection to this time of testing and pain as we pray for Pat on her death anniversary and pray for those who love her. Through Christ our Lord.

(from the Order of Christian Funerals)

Eternal rest grant unto Pat, O Lord. Let perpetual light shine upon her.

May she rest in peace. Amen.

May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

Peace,

"Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom."

- Cf. Matthew 11:25

Very important lesson we need to learn, or be reminded sternly because we already know it, is to avoid rash judgments. The sower in today's Gospel had to wait because the wheat and weeds looked so similar as they were growing that he didn't want to uproot wheat while he was pulling up weeds. The First Reading reminded us that the Lord is merciful and lenient as well as just. He permits us to live our lives as we wish, good or bad so that we exercise the freedom with which he has blessed us. The Second Reading reminds us that he is the one who searches hearts. He has an insight into people that we'll never have. A rash judgment is when we jump to conclusions about something or someone, and many times those rash judgments are wrong. Unfortunately, there are as many rash judgments in society today as there are weeds, even from Christian quarters. Imagine if it had never occurred to someone that a mustard seed might grow into something even more useful, or that yeast would take baking to a whole new level. Even worse would be to admit a "weed" into our life thinking it was wheat, or excluding wheat thinking it was a weed. Our Lord is the just judge. Let's leave the judging to Him.

CHAPTER TWO

I Believe in Jesus Christ, the Only Son of God

79. What is the Good News for humanity?

422-424 It is the proclamation of Jesus Christ, the "Son of the living God" (Matthew 16:16), who died and rose from the dead. In the time of King Herod and the Emperor Caesar Augustus, God fulfilled the promises that he made to Abraham and his descendants. He sent "his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons" (Galatians 4:4-5).

80. How is the Good News spread? 425-429

From the very beginning the first disciples burned with the desire to proclaim Jesus Christ in order to lead all to faith in him. Even today, from the loving knowledge of Christ there springs up in the believer the desire to evangelize and catechize, that is, to reveal in the Person of Christ the entire design of God and to put humanity in communion with him.

81. What is the meaning of the name

"Jesus"? 430-435; 452 Given by the angel at the time of the Annunciation, the name "Jesus" means "God saves". The name expresses his identity and his mission "because he will save his people from their sins" (Matthew 1:21). Peter proclaimed that "there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we can be saved" (Acts 4:12).

Please join us for a special dedication of the

Pat Kmak Center for Faith Formation

On Sunday, July 23 immediately after the 9:30am Mass, we will have a blessing marking the new signage on the Devine Center.

It is fitting that Fr. Devine's name remains on the left side of the Activity Center and Pat's name now joins him on the right side. Fr. Devine hired Pat as our very first Director of Religious Education and she served in that role for 48 years.

We are grateful to both Fr. Devine and Pat Kmak.
They began a Faith Formation journey here at St. Julie that continues to grow today. It has been nothing short of remarkable.

We hope you can join us for this special occasion to honor Pat Kmak. All are welcome!

We will have Coffee and treats in the Parish Hall
after the dedication.

TODAY'S READINGS AND REFLECTION

First Reading: And you taught your people, by these deeds, that those who are just must be kind; and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins. (Wis 12:19)

Reflection Question: Our Jewish wisdom writer describes God as lenient, powerful, and kind. What words would you use to describe God?

Psalms: Lord, you are good and forgiving. (Ps 86)

Second Reading: The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings. (Rom 8:26)

Reflection Question: Paul encourages the believers in Rome that the Spirit intercedes for us and teaches us what to pray for. What could you pray for this week?

Gospel: "'Let them grow together until harvest; then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters, 'First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather the wheat into my barn.'" (Mt 13:30)

Reflection Question: In the parable of the weeds among the wheat, Jesus speaks privately to his disciples of the presence of the evil one, the devil in this world. How can we best defend our family and loved ones from evil?

STS JOACHIM AND ANNE

Dear Saint Anne and Saint Joachim, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and grandparents of Jesus, our Divine Savior, have pity on thy loving and trusting client, and listen to the petition which I present before thee.

Oh, blessed Saints, thou art both most dear to the Heart of Jesus, Whose beloved Mother was thy own tender, devoted child! Can He refuse anything to thee, in whose veins the same blood flowed which afterwards furnished the precious price of our Redemption? Great Saints, nothing was impossible to thy power and influence over the young Jesus "Who grew and waxed strong, full of wisdom" under the maternal care of thy glorious Daughter, the Queen of Heaven and Earth. In mercy and compassion, be like unto Him "Who went about doing good," and come to the aid of thy servant in my great necessity!

Saint Anne, Saint Joachim, beloved parents of Mary, "our life, our sweetness and our hope," pray to her for me and obtain my request. Amen.

CATHOLIC REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Patience is rooted in Hope (an image of a bush filled with birds would be great)

Life, like the church, is often burdened with evil, smallness, and impurities. The Lord's parables give us a hope-filled perspective on all three.

Evil: in Jesus' parable about the good farmer whose enemy plants weeds at night, Jesus tells us that God is not the cause of evil but permits evil to exist with good out of his patient love. He will finally deal with it, but his love lets things stay messy for a time.

Smallness: It's funny that Jesus says his kingdom looks like ... wait for it ... a bush. What a letdown! Yet this little shrub still somehow has room for all the birds of the sky. The smallness of the Church, and even our own little lives, still provides plenty of room for all whom God sends.

Impurities: divisions and hypocrisies in the Church and our own hearts exasperate us. Recall that Jesus compares his kingdom to a lump of dough with impure leaven eating away at it and therefore making it expand. It's the secret of the Cross. Not how we'd prefer it. But finally, great news. The field, the bush, the loaf: all three parables invite us to embrace a patience rooted in hope: one day the field will be weeded, the bush filled with birds, and the risen loaf leaven-free.

— Father John Muir

ST JAMES THE APOSTLE

Saint James the Apostle is also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater to distinguish him from the other James in Jesus' group of twelve. Most of what we know about Saint James is recorded in the New Testament. He and his brother John were collected by Jesus along the sea of Galilee.

Matthew 4:18-22 tells the story of Jesus calling first Simon Peter and his brother Andrew and then the sons of Zebedee. In Mark 3:17 the brothers receive a nickname from Jesus who calls them "sons of thunder" because of their many extreme reactions, like that in Luke 9:54 when they offer to call down fire on a Samaritan village. Saint James was part of Jesus' intimate circle, a witness to the Transfiguration, the resurrection of Jarius' daughter, and the agony in the garden of Gethsemane. In A.D. 44 Herod Agrippa had "James, the brother of John, killed by the sword." (Acts 12:2) He is the only apostle whose martyrdom is written of in the New Testament.

According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela, Spain where his relics were rediscovered in 9th century. This tradition has sometimes been attributed to a passage in the Song of Roland which tells of St. James appearing to Charlemagne in a dream, prophesying that Charlemagne would conquer the Moors in Spain. This was followed by a vision of stars which if followed would lead to the saint's lost tomb. In the Middle Ages Compostela was a hugely popular pilgrimage site. The saint's relics continue to rest in the cathedral there and one can still undertake the pilgrimage.

There's a dangerous myth that exists among pockets of faithful, observant Catholic families. I call it the Legend of the Catholic Bubble.

Here's how the legend goes: you find a devout Catholic parish and a devout Catholic community filled with devout Catholic people who care about devout Catholic things, and you stay away from everything and everyone else, you and your children will be safe from the influence of the evil one. Your children will never fall away from the faith, or even be tempted, and your own faith will stay steel-strong amidst the many tempests and trials of this earthly life.

But like the Loch Ness Monster and the Abominable Snowman, it's all made up.

Don't misunderstand me: I love a good devout Catholic parish. I live for a supportive, devout Catholic community. It's one of the biggest blessings in the Christian life, and I cannot overstate how helpful it is to raise children in an environment that upholds your Catholic faith and does not denigrate it. But. But. Make no mistake: the Catholic Bubble will not save you. The trials and the temptations will find you there, too: on the parish council, at Catholic school, in your Catholic moms' group. No community on earth is so supportive that it mimics Heaven. The weeds have been sown with the good seed, and the harvest time is not yet upon us.

Cherish your community, certainly — but beware of the lure of the Catholic Bubble. We are called to be yeast in the loaf of bread, and yeast is nothing on its own.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Question: Why do priests wear a Roman collar?

Answer: The practice of priests wearing the Roman collar developed in the mid-nineteenth century as an alternative to wearing the cassock which in some places was seen as impractical or which was even outlawed by anti-Catholic legislation. Since its introduction, it has taken different forms, and if you visit different countries today, you will see variation in what priests wear.

The Code of Canon Law simply observes that priests wear "suitable ecclesiastical garb" according to the judgments of the national bishops conferences and local custom (no. 284). The US Bishops have instructed that outside of liturgical functions, a "black suit and Roman collar are the usual formal attire for priests. The use of the cassock is at the discretion of the cleric." Priests who are members of religious communities are to follow the rules of their institute regarding the habit or other approved clothing.

In the end, whether a priest wears the Roman collar, a religious habit, or, as is the case in many European countries, a suit and tie (to distinguish them from Protestant clergy who wear a collar) the goal of their clerical clothing is to serve as a sign of their commitment to guide and to serve, and to also allow them to be truly public figures because they are ordained for the service of all.

“... to defend the earth and to safeguard water is to protect life.” – Pope Francis

CARE FOR CREATION

Plastic waste is a huge and growing problem. Only 9% of the 9 billion tons of plastic produced has been recycled. There is very little demand for the plastic you do recycle. 40% of all plastic is designed to be used once and tossed. Plastic doesn't decompose easily and can last 100s of years. The waste clogs landfills and waterways, and poses hazards to animals and fish life. It breaks up into ever smaller microplastics getting into our air and food chain with unknown health effects.

What you can do:

- Say NO to single-use plastic. Carry your own cups, bags, to-go containers, utensils and forget the straws.
- Say NO to bottled water and pop. Carry refillables.
- Choose more biodegradable/recyclable materials like glass, paper, cardboard and metal instead of plastic... and then recycle those items.
- Avoid products with excessive packaging, excessive plastic packaging and parts. If it leaves behind plastic trash, try not to buy it.

Recycle what you can't refuse, reduce or reuse.
