BEING DISCIPLES OF JESUS

Fr. Tirso Villaverde

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

So I bet that you never thought that there were this many “secret prayers” involved in the celebration of the Eucharist. But, there are several more that happen right before and after receiving Communion.

Picking up from last week, right before receiving Communion himself, the priest prays silently:

May the Body of Christ keep me safe for eternal life.

Likewise, with the chalice, the priest prays:

May the Blood of Christ keep me safe for eternal life.

These simple phrases are a strong prayer of trust that it is only the grace of God that the priest – and indeed all the faithful – will be brought to eternal life. The priest prays that receiving Holy Communion with Jesus’ Body and Blood will keep himself on the path that will lead him to eternal life. This is a reminder to us that even though the path to salvation has been clearly paved out for us by Jesus himself, we, by our own will, can choose to stray from that path. When we stray from that path, we can lose the gift of eternal life.

Then, at the end of Communion, the priest purifies the sacred vessels. In essence, the priest is “washing the dishes after the meal.” This is his responsibility and, even though the purification can be postponed until after Mass, doing so in front of the people conveys a simple yet powerful message. The priest is not above “doing the dishes after the meal.” For this very reason, purifying the sacred vessels at the altar immediately after Communion sends the message that the priest has been conformed to imitate the life of Jesus who came to “serve and not to be served.”

As the priest purifies the sacred vessels, he is to pray silently:

What has passed our lips as food, O Lord,
may we possess in purity of heart,
that what has been given to us in time
may be our healing for eternity.

With these words, the priest prays on behalf of the entire faithful. He first acknowledges that the Body and Blood of Jesus were received in Holy Communion is food and drink. However, Communion is not so much for physical nourishment for we will never receive the full day’s worth of daily nutrients. Still, the Sacred Body and Precious Blood of Jesus provides a nourishment that even earthly food cannot give to us.

As we have seen from these “secret prayers,” silence in prayer plays a huge role in the celebration of the Eucharist. Silence opens us up to the presence of God who speaks to us in those silent moments. If we remember the story of the Prophet Elijah in the cave, God’s voice was not heard in the loudness of earthquakes and such. Rather, the voice of God was clearly heard in a tiny whispering voice which required the prophet to be in a state of silence in order to hear the voice of God.

Likewise, we need silence in our prayer to be able to focus on the voice of God speaking to us. Prayer is incomplete when we ourselves are doing all the talking. Prayer is true prayer when we are able to be in silence and listen to God talking to us. There are times when we feel as if God is not speaking to us or we cannot hear Him talking to us. Perhaps what we lack is simply the silence in order to develop the skill to open ourselves up to listen to God’s voice. I hope this has helped you understand the liturgy a little better.

Peace,

Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

- Matthew 16:16

There are lots of opinions on who Jesus is or who He was, but the Lord reminds us that the most important opinion is our own: who do I say that Christ is? In the Gospel, Jesus starts quizzing His disciples about the rumor mill regarding Him but then hits them with a pop quiz. Who did people think Our Lord was? Simply a prophet, and, for most, not even a new prophet: one back from the dead. Little did the disciples realize as they rattled off the theories that they would have to answer for themselves too.

Peter taught us how we should respond to the question: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Peter's profession of faith was bolstered by grace, not just his own sleuthing. The Father revealed something about His Son in Peter's response, and Peter's faith should be our faith. Peter's faith in Christ was rewarded by Christ's trust in him. Peter was entrusted with the keys to the kingdom of Heaven. Our Lord promised him that the gates of the netherworld would not prevail against the Church that the Lord would found, upon him as the Rock. Who is Christ to you? If our response lacks any element of Peter's response, it is time to reexamine and deepen our faith.

COMPENDIUM of the Catechism of the Catholic Church
Part One - The Profession of Faith
Section Two - The Profession of the Christian Faith
CHAPTER TWO
I Believe in Jesus Christ,
the Only Son of God

94. What is the meaning of the expression "conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit..."? 484-486 This expression means that the Virgin Mary conceived the eternal Son in her womb by the power of the Holy Spirit without the cooperation of a man. The angel told her at the Annunciation that "the Holy Spirit will come upon you" (Luke 1:35).

95. "...Born of the Virgin Mary": Why is Mary truly the Mother of God? 495; 509 Mary is truly the Mother of God because she is the Mother of Jesus (John 2:1, John 19:25). The One who was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and became truly her Son is actually the eternal Son of God the Father. He is God himself.

96. What does the "Immaculate Conception" mean? 487-492; 508 God freely chose Mary from all eternity to be the Mother of his Son. In order to carry out her mission she herself was conceived immaculate. This means that, thanks to the grace of God and in anticipation of the merits of Jesus Christ, Mary was preserved from original sin from the first instant of her conception.

97. How does Mary cooperate in the divine plan of salvation? 493-494; 508-511 By the grace of God Mary was kept free from every personal sin her whole life long. She is the one who is "full of grace" (Luke 1:28), "the all holy". When the angel announced to her that she would give birth to "the Son of the Most High" (Luke 1:32), she freely gave her consent with "the obedience of faith" (Romans 1:5). Mary thus gave herself entirely to the person and work of her Son Jesus, espousing wholeheartedly the divine will regarding salvation.

SAINTS: WHAT ARE THEY? WHAT ARE THEY GOOD FOR?

*Please add a picture of St. Jude if you can find one via the internet.

Many people have heard the term “saint” before, perhaps even used phrases such as “For Pete’s sake”. But what exactly is a Saint? Well, the simplest answer is that the term Saint is a word that Catholics use to describe a person who we know is IN FACT in Heaven with God. Since you are reading this now, odds are that you are hoping to be a Saint one day (at least you should have that goal, you can do it!). In order to become a Saint, the Catholic Church has a process that they go through in order to determine whether or not a person has attained the status of Saint. First, a person becomes a Servant of God, when a number of people who knew the person while they were alive petition the Bishop of the area in which the prospective Saint lived. When the Bishop agrees to investigate based on the petitions and person earns the title Servant of God. After The Congregation for the Causes of Saints from the Vatican has reviewed the petitions and determined that the person has lived a life of Virtue, they earn the title of Venerable. This allows individuals to ask for the person to intercede for them. If the candidate answers said prayers with a miracle (which is heavily vetted by outside scientific and medical experts) then the candidate is given the title of Blessed. The final step in the process is for a second miracle to occur at the intercession of the candidate. After the authentication of the second miracle, the candidate is canonized a Saint! Now you know, so go out there and start living a life of Virtue so that you can become a Saint too!!

WHO IS CALLED TO BE A CATECHIST?

Being a catechist is indeed a sacred vocation. The qualities of a good catechist include faith that manifests itself in their daily life, a love for the Church, missionary fervor and a sincere love for their brothers and sisters. Our Baptismal commitment strengthens these qualities in us. Spend some time reflecting on whether you are called.

TODAY'S READINGS AND REFLECTION

First Reading: "I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder; when he opens, no one shall shut, when he shuts, no one shall open." (Is 22:22)

Reflection Question: The Lord condemns Shebna (the master of King Hezekiah's palace) for ignoring Isaiah's prophetic warning and gives to Eliakim the authority and honor that belonged to Shebna. What helps you stay focused on following God's commandments?

Psalms: Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands. (Ps 138)

Second Reading: For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen. (Rom 11:36)

Reflection Question: Paul celebrates the wisdom and knowledge — the mystery — of God. If you could ask God one question, what would it be?

Gospel: "And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven." (Mt 16:18-19)

Reflection Question: In Peter confessing Jesus as "the Messiah, the Son of the living God," Jesus gives him the authority to hold the keys to the kingdom of heaven. How do you use authority in your life?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK:

"Who do you say that I am?" Let our whole lives be the answer, given not in words, but in action. If the world looked at your life, your decisions, your words, and your deeds, would they conclude that you are a person who believes Christ is the son of the living God? ©LPi

HOLY SPIRIT PRAYER OF ST AUGUSTINE

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit, That my thoughts may all be holy.
Act in me, O Holy Spirit, That my work, too, may be holy.
Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, That I love but what is holy.
Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, To defend all that is holy.
Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, That I always may be holy. Amen

Care for Creation

Sept. 1, 2023 Pope Francis' message for
WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE CARE OF CREATION

Pope Francis urges us to “seek first the kingdom of God” (Mt 6:33), maintaining a right relationship with God, humanity, and nature so that justice and peace will flow. Francis tells us to act now with greater urgency, so we do not miss our chance to create a more sustainable and just world. “We can and we must prevent the worst from happening.” An “ecological conversion” is needed, which Saint John Paul II encouraged us to embrace: “the renewal of our relationship with creation so that we no longer see it as an object to be exploited but cherish it instead as a sacred gift from our Creator.” We are challenged to be mindful “about our habits and economic decisions so that all can thrive” – using resources with moderation and a joyful sobriety, recycling waste, and making use of available products and services that are environmentally and socially responsible. Francis reminds us we must listen to science and

THOSE WHO NEED HEALING

In the bulletin on page 12, there is a place for Those Who Need Healing.

Names will appear on this list, as well as mentioned before all weekend Masses for three weeks. After that, if you would like the person on the list again, you would need to call the parish office again.

If the bulletin has already been submitted for printing, the name will only be in the bulletin for two weeks, BUT the name will be read at all the weekend Masses for three weeks.

If you would like to put a name on this list, call the Parish Office or stop by during regular office hours.

NOTE: You NEED to be a family member and you MUST have permission from the person being placed on the list.

If you have any questions, please call the office 708.429.6767.

CARDINAL JOSEPH BERNARDIN

9250 West 167th Street, Orland Hills, IL

as an "Exemplary High Performing National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence"

August 2023

WE ARE YOUR PARISH SCHOOL!

Pre-K 3 through 8th Grade

CJB is a cutting-edge, regional Catholic school sponsored by St. Francis of Assisi, St. Julie Billiart, St. Stephen Deacon & Martyr, and St. Elizabeth Seton. In addition to these four parishes, we also welcome children from other parishes or households whose parents are seeking a Christ-centered, excellent educational environment. Our address is 9250 W. 167th Street in Orland Hills. We are adjacent to St. Elizabeth Seton Parish. CONTACT US FOR A PRIVATE TOUR!

"OPEN REGISTRATION" for new students is happening NOW! Our online application is available at www.cjbschool.org. Submit the online application, then mail or drop off an original birth and baptismal certificate (originals will be returned), and a one-time family registration fee of $250. For Grades 1-8, include a copy of the 2022-23 first semester report card and standardized test results.

SHOPPING & GIFTING MADE EASY EARN TUITION SAVINGS - MAKE A CONTRIBUTION RECEIVE CASH BACK

- Scrip is SAFER than using credit cards.
- No fraud, no data breach, no identity theft.

Buy gift cards at face value (the same ones you buy at the store).
For every card you buy you get a rebate. You can use that rebate to donate to:

- St. Julie Parish.
- Your family's Religious Education tuition at St. Julie Parish.
- The Pat Kmak R.E. Scholarship Fund..
You can also:
- Apply towards any Catholic school tuition, or you can
- Receive a cash rebate.

To purchase your cards:

Complete an order form available in the St. Julie Narthex or at the Parish Office. We can also order cards for you in the Parish Office. Your cards will be delivered to the Parish Office for pickup.

SJB MONTHLY 50/50 RAFFLE

- $5 per entry (Entries must be submitted in our preprinted salmon colored envelopes only.)
- No limit to the number of entries per person per month, but each $5 entry must be submitted in a separate envelope (Any amount in a single envelope that exceeds $5 will automatically be considered a donation to the general fund, and that envelope will still be considered a single entry.) For details, please visit stjulie.org.
- ENVELOPES ARE DUE IN THE PARISH OFFICE BY 8AM, MONDAY, AUGUST 28TH TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR THE AUGUST RAFFLE.

FAITH DIRECT-ON LINE GIVING

Signing up with a recurring gift is easy, and Faith Direct will help if you need assistance. You may call their Customer Service team at 866.507.8757 or email info@faithdirect.net. I ask you to give eGiving your prayerful consideration so we can continue to help those who thirst for the love and acceptance of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The more parishioners we have signed up for eGiving, the more consistent and predictable our offertory will be each month. This will help us do even more to spread Christ's love in our community.

Peace,

Fr. Tirso Villaverde
