A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

As you may recall, last weekend we welcomed our seminarian Ben Anderson who shared his vocation story and invited us to support the Annual Seminary Appeal. Also last weekend at the 9:30am Mass, we recognized and commissioned all of our catechists. I wanted to refer to those moments last weekend as a way to invite more parishioners to move toward becoming more involved in our spiritual home.

On other occasions, I explained that there are two things every Catholic parish ought to be doing. The first is Pray Well. The second is Teach the Faith. I shared that if a parish is not doing both of those things then there is something seriously lacking. The staff here have taken those phrases to heart and have joined me in making it the center of our mission. However, as the staff and I have progressed, I have tended now to add a third aspect—Live the Faith.

Praying well is the first step. We have to come together in worship and prayer. We must center our lives on God alone. Otherwise, nothing will make sense and nothing will ever have value. Without God as the very center and focus of everything we say and do, nothing will have meaning no matter how many programs, events, or activities we have as a parish. Praying well is essential and we are already doing that.

Teaching the faith flows from our prayer. We will never be able to understand everything about God or what He expects of us. This is a continual and ongoing process that takes an entire lifetime. As a parish, we need to be teaching the faith not only to children but even to adults of all ages. All of us are learners who are called to sit at the feet of Jesus the Master and learn from Him.

The third aspect is what I encourage everyone to reflect on today. Living the faith must also be a daily call that we must answer. Living the faith involves a spirituality and lifestyle centered around true stewardship. Whenever we use that word, though, we instinctively think of monetary donations. That is only one aspect of stewardship. In reality, stewardship is a sharing of time, talent, AND treasure as a way to express our deep gratitude to God for all that He has given to us.

We may have heard the phrase, “full and active participation.” For those familiar with liturgy, this is a call for all the faithful to participate in the act of worship fully and actively according to each one’s proper role within the liturgy. However, full and active participation is not limited just to what we do in church on Sundays. Rather, in living the faith, we are all called to put our faith into action in ways that truly express the relationship we have with God. I refer back to our catechists as well as the example that Ben Anderson is currently giving to us.

Our catechists have answered the call to living the faith. In dedicating themselves to pass on the faith not only to children but also to adults, our catechists share their time, talent, and treasure. They, of course, give of their time to prepare for lessons that will encourage others to deepen their own relationship with the Lord. They share the talent of their desire to help others rejoice in the same gift of faith that they themselves have received. They share the very treasure of faith—a relationship with God where we recognize that God is the very best gift that anyone can ever receive.

Ben Anderson is one of our parishioners responding to God’s call in a unique way. He is currently discerning a vocation to the priesthood. He has several more years to go but his is a journey that has lead him to hearing God’s voice inviting him to take his faith to exploring ordained ministry. Ben is truly an example of one who prays well because in praying he has disciplined himself to listening to God’s voice. He is also one who teaches the faith as he has participated in ministries such as Totus Tuus among others. He is one who is striving to live the faith by dedicating himself to a life of service to others in imitation of Jesus Himself.

Starting this weekend, the parish staff and I want to encourage and invite everyone else in the parish to consider ways to share time, talent, and treasure. Imagine a parish community where every single person in the pews is involved in some way in any of the many ministries of the parish. So often, parish communities like ours have reached the point where it is the same people volunteering for everything. There comes a time when they may no longer be able to exercise the ministry in the same way as they did before. However, if no one comes forward to "take the reins," what happens to those ministries?

Here at the parish we have so many people from various walks of life. We have young and old, men and women, people from various ethnic backgrounds. As much as we appreciate the fact that you come here week in and week out to pray with us and worship God in the Eucharist, we pray now more than ever that you might take it to the next level. Instead of just being a faithful churchgoer who comes to Mass every week, we ask you to consider ways you might be able to teach the faith. If you are a parent of young children, look into our Family Faith Formation where both parents and children are given the tools to teach one another the richness of our faith.

We take this time to encourage and invite you to look into ways where you can live your faith through a fuller and more active participation. Living the faith involves understanding the way we express our gratitude. The more aware we are of God's goodness to us the more easily it will come to show our thanks through sharing of time, talent, and treasure. Can you volunteer even a little bit of your time in some capacity? No matter how big or small you might consider it to be, is there a talent you have that might be of benefit to others in the parish community? Finally, treasure does not necessarily involve financial donations. The more we consider our faith to be the greatest treasure, the more we will want to share it. The more we recognize that our relationship with God is the greatest gift we can give to others or to ourselves, the easier it will be to share every aspect of our lives with the people around us.

Let us renew our discipleship by praying well, teaching the faith, and living the faith.

Peace,

Faithful. Billy Joe

OUR PARISH MINISTRIES

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Their mission is to knit/crochet shawls prayerfully to bring comfort and solace to those facing life's challenges as well as those celebrating life's joys. They're given to the homebound, the sick, those with terminal illness as well as RCIA candidates upon acceptance into our faith.

The shawl maker always begins with prayer and blessings for the recipient. Though we're not meeting in person right now, for more information how you may get involved, please email Sheila@stjulie.org.

ST JULIE PRAISE MINISTRY

You're invited to consider joining us!

There are no meetings!

Deacon Rich Miska sends out a monthly letter filled with wonderful reflections as well as the needs of our parish and the world to hold in prayer. You'll receive a prayer booklet to use, if you would like. This is a wonderful ministry for those who:

- 1) Love to pray
- 2) Would like to take a few quiet moments out of their day to pray for others
- 3) Are looking for a closer relationship with Christ through prayer.

Whatever the reason, you cannot go wrong being a prayer warrior.

*"For to me life is Christ,
and death is gain."*

- Philippians 1:21

I started my marathon running journey with the motivation of gaining a bragging right when I get it done. Asking the grace of God, I went through (and I am still going through, because growth continues as I breathe) the process of purifying my intention. In all that we do, if we are to strive for God's reward in heaven rather than praise and recognition from other people here on earth, we are headed towards achieving so called purity of intention. We strive to love God and to love our neighbor, to do good to others so as to be mirrors of God's own goodness in this fallen world. God is like the sun, giving off heat and light to all people, the humble and grateful, and also the wicked and self-serving. Purity of intention makes us like that. It frees us from being slaves of other people's fickle opinions, bringing peace and equanimity to our souls.

This does not mean we should not take pleasure in the gratitude and recognition that sometimes comes to us even here on earth - that is fine and healthy. The dangerous thing is to make such recognition our goal. There is one very easy way for us to take the temperature of our purity of intention: look at our reaction when we do something for someone and they do not say "thank you". The natural reaction is to give into feelings of resentment and anger, and maybe even vengeance. The supernatural reaction, the one that shows purity of intention, is to let those feelings pass by, like clouds, and keep the eyes of our soul focused on Christ's cross. When others do not appreciate us, we are being treated a little bit as Christ was treated. And if we are true followers of Christ, that alone should give us deep spiritual joy.

Let us then ask the Lord to give us the interior peace that comes from learning purity of intention. As for me in joining the 2023 Chicago Marathon, I ask the Lord the grace that I may keep in my heart and mind those who will be helped by the Pat Kmak Fund that I raise funds for.

COMPENDIUM of the Catechism of the Catholic Church
Part One - The Profession of Faith
Section Two - The Profession of the Christian Faith

CHAPTER TWO I Believe in Jesus Christ, the Only Son of God

106. What do we learn from the temptations of Jesus in the desert? 538-540; 566 The temptations of Jesus in the desert recapitulate the temptation of Adam in Paradise and the temptations of Israel in the desert. Satan tempts Jesus in regard to his obedience to the mission given him by the Father. Christ, the new Adam, resists and his victory proclaims that of his passion which is the supreme obedience of his filial love. The Church unites herself to this mystery in a special way in the liturgical season of Lent.

107. Who is invited to come into the Kingdom of God proclaimed and brought about by Jesus? 541-546; 567 All are invited by Jesus to enter the Kingdom of God. Even the worst of sinners is called to convert and to accept the boundless mercy of the Father. Already here on earth, the Kingdom belongs to those who accept it with a humble heart. To them the mysteries of the Kingdom are revealed.

108. Why did Jesus manifest the Kingdom by means of signs and miracles? 547-550; 567 Jesus accompanied his words with signs and miracles to bear witness to the fact that the Kingdom is present in him, the Messiah. Although he healed some people, he did not come to abolish all evils here below but rather to free us especially from the slavery of sin. The driving out of demons proclaimed that his cross would be victorious over "the ruler of this world" (John 12:31).

*Let us thank and support the following runners of

CATECHIST PRAYER

Gracious and all-loving Father, out of love for all people you spoke your Word who became flesh for our salvation. May your Word transform me so that the message of your Son, our Lord, may be echoed through my teaching. Allow me to guide the hearts of those whom I teach in such a way that they will enter more deeply into your way of truth and salvation. Grant me the insight needed to lead them to know, love, and serve you. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, may they become hearers and followers of your Word, so that they might help transform the world to follow the way of life to which your Son has called us all, for he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Care for Creation

"All of us can cooperate as instruments of God for the care of Creation." – Pope Francis

Reducing air travel can dramatically reduce your household carbon emissions. Air travel accounts for 10% of all U.S. transportation greenhouse gas emissions that warm the planet. Driving may be a better environmental option on shorter trips. Driving higher mileage cars with additional passengers is almost always a better environmental option.

Reducing the number of flights you take is the most effective way of cutting your aviation footprint. If you have to fly, non-stop coach flights are typically the best alternative. Reducing the amount of stuff you take, and avoiding flights on very small or very large planes can also reduce your emissions impact.

You can calculate emissions for various flight options at www.google.com/flights/. To compare emissions for flying vs. driving for a specific trip, use the "car" tab and the "flight" tab on this calculator to compare at www.carbonfootprint.com/calculator.aspx

2:00 – 3:30PM

North side of church along 159th St.
All ages are welcome! See you there.

The Zipper Club Ministry has begun! This NEW ministry will offer support to parishioners who are facing heart surgery or have recently had heart surgery/ procedures. We welcome every stage of this process and also invite heart surgery veterans to participate in the form of support. Patients, family support and friends are welcome. Come pray with us and voice your concerns along with your stories of success recovery.

Next meeting: October 2 4–5:00pm in the Great Room. I hope to see you there! For more information: Mary Beth Norton Williams at mbnorton@comcast.net or sheila@stjulie.org.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA ROSARY RALLY

Come join us as we pray the rosary as our Lady has asked us to do.

Saturday, October 14
Meet in the Narthex at 11:45am.

There will be light refreshments in the Parish Hall afterwards.
All are welcome!

Baby Bottle Project Our year-round Baby Bottle Project enables the whole family to participate in helping The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland's pro-life mission. Empty baby bottles are dispersed at local parishes and schools for families and students to bring home and collect their spare change to help fund the work that we do. At the same time, participants pray for women and children who are vulnerable to abortion. This project is a wonderful way for the community to show its support for life and for children to learn the beauty of giving to help others. Thank you for your generosity and for your prayers. Look for the Baby Bottles in the Narthex beginning in October!

We are so grateful to be community partners with Osco Pharmacy right here in Tinley Park (171st & Harlem). They have been providing top notch healthcare specialists for our yearly flu shots and vaccines when needed! Come see them on Saturday September 30 from 9:00am until Noon. Held in the Great Room. All are welcome.
