Forgiveness

In this weekend's Gospel passage from Matthew, Peter asks Jesus HOW MANY times we must forgive. The answer from Jesus suggests more WHY we should forgive than how many times. In my fascination with the concept, I have come to identify 3 types of WHY:

The philosophical Why
The inquisitive Why
The motivational Why

We may forgive someone because we see the philosophical aspect of forgiveness. Philosophically we may say, "Yea, it is a good idea to forgive." Often in the Sacrament of Reconciliation I ask people if they believe God forgives them. Some answer with a somewhat philosophical, theological or general answer such as, "Yes, God forgives." When I sense a lack of personal application I follow up with, "But do you believe God forgives YOU?"

The inquisitive why has less application in this situation. However, the motivational WHY certainly does.

Why should we forgive? Here are some suggestions based on the Gospel this week. Genuine forgiveness is a matter of the heart, not the calculator. Forgiveness fosters hope through new opportunities. Forgiveness can win out over the source and motivation for the sinning, however significant or small. Genuine forgiveness can often be a significant step in someone else believing that God forgives him or her. In other words, a reason why we should forgive is to extend the unconditional love and forgiveness of God into our world.

Why we do anything is an essential and potentially spiritual endeavor, particularly if we espouse what Ignatius of Loyola does, that we can find God in all things.

Another reason why we should forgive is that it is part of the Reconciliation process. Forgiveness, genuine forgiveness, complements examining our conscience, entering into the prayerful ritual, committing ourselves to CONTRITION (which means CHANGE), doing an activity outside of the intimate "confession" conversation (Penance), and finally receiving the blessing of God, which is also the blessing of the Church and also the blessing of Absolution from the priest.

Why should we forgive? Because it is so important to the larger sacred reconciliation process, both formal and informal, ritualized by the tradition of the Church, as well as ritualized and experienced in the sacredness that is present throughout our lives.

Finally, we should forgive as a CHOICE, not as an obligation or something taken lightly or that we think would be a good idea.

Reconciliation Times

Any of the priests who preside here would be open to an appointment for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. EVERY Monday evening from 5:30-7:00pm, the Sacrament is offered in church, and EVERY Advent and EVERY Lent we offer a Reconciliation Service with individual Reconciliation.

Be More

Please familiarize yourself with the BE MORE Ignatian Fitness Program that will constitute our Adventure in Grace Pilgrimage this year (see details on page 7 of this bulletin). Throughout the year you will hear the term IGNATIAN a lot, which is a way of describing the spirituality of Ignatius of Loyola.

As you may already know, Ignatius of Loyola (Spain) had a profound conversion experience from being a very worldly, overconfident young soldier to being ordained a priest and founding the Society of Jesus, also called the Jesuits. The conversion was fueled by a cannon ball shattering the lower part of his leg, the risk of never walking again, walking with a limp for the rest of his life and the Spiritual Exercises that he wrote in the early 16th century as he recovered. This recovery was humbling and put him in touch with the all-encompassing presence of God and a focus for one's very purpose in life.

Our BE MORE adventure will begin during weekend Mass homilies Sunday, October 8 and then a more in-depth presentation on Wednesday, October 11. Fr. Rick McGurn S.J., a Jesuit priest from Bellarmine Retreat House in Barrington, will give an introduction explaining more details about the life of Ignatius of Loyola and Jesuit Spirituality. Please put this event on your calendar today.

Plan to join us for Fall Fest on Sunday, September 24.

The festivities run from 11-3pm in the parking lot. The Knights will host their Café that morning from 8:30-12:30 in the social center if you want to start your day with a great breakfast. I hope to see you there.

ANNOUNCING NEW SCC-GiG OPPORTUNITIES

Beyond the Garden Statues: Explore and Grow Your Faith with St. Francis

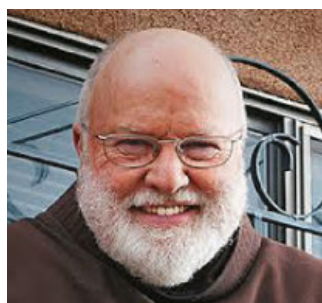

This new SCC-GiG will explore ways for lay people to live the Franciscan charism here at Holy Family, and is open to men and women of all ages. The key aspects of this charism are creating a caring community, compassionate action for those in need, reverence for Creation, and Peace-making.

Please join us as we “go from Gospel to Life, and Life to Gospel.”

We will meet on the third Monday of each month, 7:00 – 8:30 PM, beginning September 18.

For more information, please contact Jerry Stecker at Jerrysteck@aol.com.

An Evening with Fr. Richard Rohr, OFM

Fr. Rohr is a noted Franciscan priest, speaker, and author on spirituality rooted in the Franciscan tradition. This evening (Wednesday, Sept. 27, 7:00-8:30 PM, in Common Ground) will include the viewing of Fr. Rohr’s video on “Trinity and Your Transformation,” followed by small group discussion.

In the video, Fr. Rohr discusses the Trinity, focusing on themes of mysticism, contemplation, and the Cosmic Christ. This is a great opportunity for those who are unfamiliar with Fr. Rohr and are curious, as well as those who are already familiar with him and his writings.

We will also discuss the desirability of forming an SCC-GiG based on Fr. Rohr’s approach to spirituality for those who are interested.

The Good Book Club

Jan Wood will be facilitating a Bible Study SCC-GiG on Tuesday evenings called “The Good Book Club”

beginning September 26 at 7:00 pm. This will be a relaxed and comfortable group where beginners to Bible Study are welcome along with those who have studied the Bible before.

The group will begin by unpacking the Gospel of Mark in preparation for our next liturgical cycle.

Please register in advance so we can prepare for materials by contacting Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org or visiting your Realm account.

BE MORE...

an Ignatian Spiritual Fitness Program

This year's Adventure in Grace invites us to experience "BE MORE... An Ignatian Spiritual Fitness Program. St. Ignatius of Loyola challenges us to discover God in everything by actively participating in the Spiritual Exercises that he wrote during his powerful conversion in the 16th century, and are still very pertinent today. Just as our bodies need physical exercise to be fit, our spirits need spiritual exercise to mature, flourish, and BE MORE.

In collaboration with our Jesuit friends at the Bellarmine Retreat House in Barrington, we are hosting a five-evening series here at Holy Family. We will follow a similar format as we have in the past two years of AiG programming: Wednesday evening sessions, preceded on the Sunday before by homilies focused on the topic for each evening. Each session will include a presentation followed by time for small-group discussion, enhanced by wine and cheese, or other delectable offerings.

Come and experience the freedom to become the person God meant for you to be, to love and accept love, to make good decisions, and to experience the mystery of God's unconditional love as revealed in the everyday world in which you live.

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected--the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

Work is, as has been said, an obligation, that is to say, a duty, on the part of man. . . Man must work, both because the Creator has commanded it and because of his own humanity, which requires work in order to be maintained and developed. Man must work out of regard for others, especially his own family, but also for the society he belongs to, the country of which he is a child, and the whole human family of which he is a member, since he is the heir to the work of generations and at the same time a sharer in building the future of those who will come after him in the succession of history. On Human Work (Laborem Exercens...), #16

CREATION CARE MINISTRY PRESENTS: ENERGY WORKSHOP

Tuesday, September 19th at 7pm in Common Ground

Learn about energy-saving tips to be better stewards of God's creation and Save Money

Holy Family, assisted by Faith in Place (faithinplace.org), recently completed a thorough energy audit of our facility. Join our Creation Care team and Dan Huntsha from Faith in Place as we review the findings of that audit - what we found, what we are doing well, and what additional opportunities we identified. We will then use information from the audit to review and discuss steps you can take - in your homes and in the community - to make a difference in how we care for God's creation. We'll review energy savings programs, including available free at-home energy audits and savings programs, the various solar opportunities now available, and how to measure where you are now.

Have you noticed how many environmentally-friendly brands and/or products are available these days? Do you go straight to your old favorite or try something new made with recycled materials? Attend the workshop and register for a drawing. You may be lucky and go home with a bin full of fun things to try or an eco-friendly toy! **Must be present to win!*

For questions about the workshop or more information, contact Jeff at jeffhitz@gmail.com.

Season of Creation September 1 –October 4

"Taking action during the Season of Creation is living out our Catholic faith. The Church, following the teachings of Jesus, from the Social Doctrine, throughout time has exhorted believers to work for the common good, which requires dignifying life in all its forms, caring for the common home, committing to the construction of more just, supportive, fraternal and peaceful societies, among other fundamental aspects to achieve what Pope Francis calls integral ecology in Laudato Si'. In other words, he is not only a creator God, but a loving Father who tenderly cares for the work of his hands and has a vision of fraternity for all humanity.

Accordingly, the Season of Creation is a celebration that allows all people to recognize ourselves as "the work of the Lord's creative act," to contemplate nature and all that dwells in it, and to care for our Common Home."

FM Family Mass Theme for this Sunday

Forgive, Forgive, and Forgive Again

Read the Gospel— Matthew 18:21-35

Keep On Forgiving

Then Peter came to him and asked, "Lord, how often should I forgive someone who sins against me? Seven times?" Matthew 18:21 (NLT)

Based on Matthew 18:21-35 (NIV)

Family Discussion Questions

When Jesus was asked if they had to forgive as many times as seven, Jesus said "not seven but seventy-seven" times.

When you are truly sorry for something you did...

- 1) How can you ask to be forgiven?
- 2) Is it always easy to forgive?
- 3) How would you feel if you were not forgiven?

4) Why is it important to forgive those in your family?
