Anointing of the Sick

Please know that recent hospital privacy laws have significantly limited our knowledge of parishioners who are hospitalized. If you have a loved one who is ill, please contact Jeannie Parry in our Pastoral Care office at 949-632-2059 or jparry@holyfamilyparish.org to request the Anointing of the Sick. The ideal time for anointing is when family is present and not necessarily in the final hours of life. Anointing of the Sick is offered on the First Friday of every month following the 9:00am morning Mass.

Bob Lanigan to Receive Ministry of Acolyte

Kristin & Bob Lanigan with Bishop Robert Lombardo

This Sunday, our Deacon Candidate Bob Lanigan will receive the Ministry of Acolyte at the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception on the campus of Mundelein Seminary.

This ministry will commission Bob and his 11 classmates to:

- Assist Priests, Deacons and Bishops in carrying out the celebration of the Eucharist
- Be Eucharistic Ministers and Ministers of Care
- Because they are uniquely called to this ministry, they should strive to live more fully by the Lord's example given to us in the Gospel and seek more fully to be molded in His likeness
- They should seek to understand the deep spiritual meaning of what they do to offer themselves daily to God as spiritual sacrifices acceptable to Him through Jesus Christ.

Bob has been in formation for Ordination to the Office of Permanent Deacon for two and a half years now. He and his wife Kristin participate regularly in academic and formation activities including Sacramental Theology, Foundations of Catholic Doctrine, Moral Theology, Liturgy, Homiletics, Spiritual Theology and Deacon Roles in Renew My Church. He and Kristin have made retreats and this year Bob will participate in a series of field education experiences centered around Baptisms, Weddings and the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

Currently there are 550 active Deacons in the Archdiocese of Chicago including our own Deacon Dennis Brown and his wife Marge. There are 61 men and their wives, including Bob and Kristin, in Formation and Diaconal studies.

Bob seeks to be ordained in 2025.

Please join me in prayerful support of Bob and Kristin as they continue this very important preparation.

Be More

Next weekend and then on the following Wednesday evening, November 15, we welcome Erin Maiorca to continue our Ignatian Spiritual Fitness Program.

Erin will be focusing on Be More ... Aware — primarily through offering different prayer methods that will aid us all in discovering what will be best to challenge us to grow stronger spiritually. Deepening and expanding prayer forms will lay a foundation for the wondrous encounters of the abundant love of Christ that lies ahead. All of this will deepen our awareness of God in all things.

Annual Report Follow Up

If you didn't hear the Annual Report presentation at Mass last weekend, please go to the website or pick up a copy of the bulletin that contains the details. One thing I neglected to mention in my presentation is the encouragement for you to serve in one of our many ministries AS A FAMILY. I am confident that such service will strengthen your family and ours.

Migrant Donation Drive

The number of migrants arriving in Chicago continues to rise. There is a growing need for supplies, especially for the families being housed in Chicago police stations. At all Masses the weekend of November 11/12, specific donation items will be accepted. Please see the Human Concerns page and the website for these most needed items as well as additional information. As always, I thank you for your generosity and compassion toward migrants in our midst.

Use Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs) from your IRA to help Holy Family and your tax bill!

Making a donation as a part of your annual Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) as a QCD directly from your IRA can:

- Help you meet your annual RMD minimum
- Since a QCD is not included in your taxable income it can lower your tax obligation
- A QCD could result in a lower Medicare surcharge
- Provide a donation to help Holy Family and other charitable organizations fulfill our missions

Some Important Points to Keep in Mind

- QCDs must be made directly from the IRA to the charitable organization to qualify
- IRA owners must be 70 ½ years old to qualify
- To count toward your RMD and be eligible to lower your AGI, the QCD distribution must be before you meet your annual RMD total.
- Make sure you get a letter from the charitable organization stating they received your QCD
- Many investment firms such as Fidelity, Vanguard and Schwab allow you to request a QCD either online or over the phone.

Talk to your financial analyst or tax advisor to understand how a QCD could help you and Holy Family

BE MORE...

an Ignatian Spiritual Fitness Program

This year's Adventure in Grace invites us to experience "BE MORE... An Ignatian Spiritual Fitness Program. This program will challenge us to discover God in everything by actively participating in the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises. Just as our bodies need physical exercise to be fit, our spirits need spiritual exercise to mature, flourish, and BE MORE.

In collaboration with our Jesuit friends at the Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House in Barrington, we are hosting a five-evening series here at Holy Family. Our Oct. 11 first session (available for viewing on our parish website) focused on the background of the Spiritual Exercises through the life of St. Ignatius. Our second session, "BE MORE...Aware," is Wednesday, Nov. 15, 7:00-8:30 PM, in the church, and our speaker will be Erin Maiorca, Executive Director, Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR OUR SPIRITUAL WORKOUT TO BEGIN!

Put on your exercise clothes and join us!

In this session, we begin the first phase of the Spiritual Exercises program focusing on Awareness. The goal of this phase is to get started. We are in training mode to develop a deeper awareness of both self and God through prayer. We will consider our own individual image of God, and how that might expand or evolve through intentional prayer. Different prayer methods will be offered so that you can discover what will best challenge you to grow stronger. We will also be attentive to the What, Where and How of your prayer life... that is passage/scripture, place, posture, and presence. Bring your "A" game to this training phase, as it is the groundwork for your journey ahead. There will be wondrous encounters with the abundant love of Christ as you deepen your awareness of God in all things, and BE MORE.

Erin's presentation will be followed small-group discussion, enhanced by wine and cheese, or other delectable offerings.

Please register on Realm or contact Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org

Human Concerns

Migrant Donation Drive November 11 & 12

The number of migrants arriving in Chicago continues to rise. There is a growing need for supplies, especially for those families being housed in Chicago police stations before they move to other transitional housing. Holy Family will be partnering with Family Empowerment Center, a non-profit dedicated to meeting migrant needs in Chicago.

At all Masses the weekend of November 11/12, donations from the list below will be accepted. Please refrain from donating items that are not on the list as space and logistics will not make them practical at this time.

- New Men Hanes briefs - size medium
- New Women Fruit of the Loom bikini briefs - size 5-6
- New Boys & Girls underwear, any size
- New Socks (men, women, & children)
- New or clean, gently used heavy-weight blankets (not thin fleece) and comforters.
- Lightweight duffle bags
- Target or Walmart $25 gift cards (please drop them off in the office)

All donations should be left in the east coatroom (by the Adoration Chapel) on the weekend of November 11/12.

Your generosity is greatly appreciated as Holy Family responds to this humanitarian need. The "Welcome the Stranger" ministry continues to coordinate with other agencies (i.e.: Exodus, Viator House, St. Anne Home, etc.) to provide our assistance. If you would like additional information, contact: Sue Geegan at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3443.
