Love

How many songs celebrate the elation of love, the drama of love, the joy and triumph of love? How many others extol the heartache, the sorrow, the tragedy and messiness of love? How many movies depict the complexity, tenderness, intimacy and downright craziness of love? I believe the many variations are rooted in the popular experience of falling in love, which almost always eliminates reason and fact from the experience of love. On the other hand, psychologists and self-help gurus often encourage us to choose love wisely, which often fails amidst the mystery of love.

Just look at the titles of love songs and love stories, and significant lines that are a part of the compositions. If you take some time to do so, you will find all kinds of philosophies and expressions of love. Some will make you cry.

My friend and theologian Jack Shea says, "In our struggle to love, we incarnate God in the world." I love that statement for many reasons, but among them is the redemptive nature of love's drama.

As is often cited, we have only one word in English to express LOVE. The Greeks and other languages, including sign language, have several.

We have an extended commentary on love in our scripture readings for Mass this weekend.

From the first letter of John, "...love is of God." This is a reminder of love's origin and our very ability to love. It goes on to say, "God is love." We can't get much clearer than that statement, which is not only a metaphor, but a profound statement of belief. The passage continues, "This is love, not that we love God, but that God loves us." This statement puts our profound love into context. The fact/belief that God loves us is more significant and foundational than our love for God.

The Gospel, also from John, quotes Jesus directly: "Remain in my love." How do we remain in the love of God through Christ? The answer is if we keep the Commandments. Using the word IF sounds conditional, doesn't it, particularly when reflecting on the unconditional, abiding and remaining love of God for us?

Let us consider the Ten Commandments, with an added emphasis on the word love. Let us consider all ten statements, including the word love. Some are more obvious than others.

- Love God (and Love Neighbor)
- Love the One True God, don't love false gods.
- Love God's name
- Complement your personal Love and praise for God with communal Love and praise (in the Eucharist)
- Love life, ALL LIFE
- Love your elders, mentors and their wisdom
- Live out the exclusive, committed Love you have promised to one other person
- Don't steal Love from others
- Pursue the truth to which genuine love leads. Love in truth and for truth.
- Love what you have, not what you desire.

Through these Commandments Jesus promises to remain in us as God remains in him, and he concludes with an eleventh Commandment:

- Love one another.

He goes on to give us a reason for this commandment. "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete." Joy is one more emotion that these readings connect with love. Often, we can ask ourselves what gives us joy, or why we feel so joyful at certain times? As we contemplate our experiences of Joy notice that love is never far away. Joy and love are never far away from each other. They often mutually generate each other and flow from one another.

The final aspect of love that is presented in the Gospel this weekend is Jesus' statement, "It was not you who chose me, it is I who chose you." Similar to the realization that God's love for us is more significant than our love for God, the choice of the divine for us is more significant than our choice for God. We choose humanly. God chooses divinely.

This weekend's scripture passages have a lot to say about Love. Let us ground our love for one another in the love that God has for us, and God's primary choice of and for each of us.

Welcome George & Toni Flaherty!

Dear fellow parishioners:

We are very excited to join this wonderful parish and wanted to take a brief moment to introduce ourselves.

We are George and Toni Flaherty and have lived most of our lives in the NW Suburbs of Chicago. We are a diaconate couple and try to serve together as much as possible. George has been an ordained Permanent Deacon in the Archdiocese of Chicago, for almost 30 years, most recently serving St Francis De Sales in Lake Zurich for 20 years.

We believe our primary ministry as a deacon couple is our marriage and family, as we believe the church begins at home. We also believe our ministry extends to the workplace, careers, friends, extended family and neighbors. We have been married for 40 years and have four wonderful adult children. We have served in various ministries throughout the past 35 years, in four different parishes, including Las Vegas! It has been a wonderful faith journey that we hope to continue now at Holy Family.

Even though it has only been a short time since joining the parish we have received a very warm welcome and feel at home. We look forward to getting to know you and serve here in various capacities and ministries as best we can.

Peace and Love, George and Toni

CATHOLIC CHARITIES MOTHER'S DAY APPEAL May 11 and 12

“Welcome the Stranger” How are Catholics Responding?

Catholic Charities will hold its annual Mother's Day Appeal next weekend. It is the only time Catholic Charities requests financial contributions from parishioners to support their ongoing programs serving over a million people a year in Cook and Lake Counties. Please be as generous as possible. Envelopes are available at church.

Pope Francis has asked all Catholics to respond to the Gospel mandate to welcome the stranger into our communities. Many local parishes have established outreach programs to assist refugees and asylum-seekers. Holy Family established a ministry in 2023.

As of last November, the Chicago region has welcomed over 36,099+ new arrivals since October 2022. Catholic Charities President and CEO, Sally Blount, shared that Catholic Charities has helped resettle 20,000 of the 36,000 migrants that have come through Chicago. We often do not realize the results accomplished through many of the social agencies sponsored through the church. Many of the results are not always visible to us.

At Holy Family, our “Welcome the Stranger” ministry complements the work of Catholic Charities. Resettling a family into an apartment is just the beginning of assimilating them into a new community. Through Holy Family's generous donations of household staples and volunteers working with Exodus World Service and Partners for Our Communities, we provide a welcome and smile.

Men's Retreat

On Saturday morning, April 27th the men of Holy Family joined the men of Illuman of Illinois in a joint event titled Healthy Masculinity and the Spiritual Journey. The discussion focused on the challenges that men face on their spiritual journey, led by Juan Hinojosa, an Illuman Wisdom Elder. The morning included drumming, ritual, storytelling and small group discussion. It was a wonderful opportunity for men to connect with other spiritual men at the heart level. We hope to hold additional joint events in the future.
