Fr. Stan's Utterances

The coming of the Kingdom of God will bring a time of judgement when Jesus comes with glory with the legions of angels from Heaven, and while Jesus' words in today's gospel seem harsh and not the Jesus we want to hear this way, His words are spoken and are true whether we like His tone or not. Remember, God is God and we are not. Jesus is strongly urging us to seriously consider our choices Jesus proclaims: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing." There's a vibrant urgency to these words that must have been apparent in his voice. What does he mean? Why is he so passionate about this? In the ancient Jewish world, fire was generally associated with judgment. So what kind of judgment does Jesus bring? He brings the judgment of the Cross. He brings the judgment that God so loved the world that He gave His only Son for us. He brings the judgment that brought St. Paul to exclaim that "He loved me and He gave Himself for me. So when we really look at the crucifix, we see the judgment of God. We see the horror of sin, and the infinitely greater love of God who came to die to set us free from sin and unite us to Himself.

When Jesus states that He wants to set the world on fire, Jesus really means it, but not a physical fire of destruction, but with the fire of God Himself! The fire of God's love given to us freely by the power of the Holy Spirit. We all have been baptized and confirmed in this fire in Holy Baptism and Confirmation. Recall the words of John the Baptist, "I baptize you in water for repentance, but the one who is to follow me is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to carry His sandals; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire (Matthew 3:11)."

The fire is here now and always as God is fully present in His Church and in all of the seven living sacraments of God! Are we igniting the lives of others with our fire for God!? "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done," as we pray in the Our Father Prayer. Is our fire spreading into other people like wildfires spread in forest fires? This is the fire that Jesus is speaking about and in our very own time. This fire is needed more than ever when we hear and read statistics how less and less families, children and adults, of all ages, are not coming to Sunday Mass. Many have become too comfortably a part of the movement of our modern secular culture, and this comfort has resulted in a dangerous complacency toward the life giving words of Jesus. Too often, we hear Jesus' words, but not allow them to penetrate our hearts, transform our lives, and set the world on fire. There is something ultimately attractive, powerful and free when we become all that God created us to be. It is this striving that we need to rediscover again with zeal as intentional disciples of Jesus. I leave you with the words of St. Cyril of Alexandria (who lived in the 4th and 5th century) as he stated in his homily: "We affirm that the fire Christ sent out is for humanity's salvation and profit. May God grant that all our hearts be full of this! The fire is the saving message of the gospel and the power of its commandments. The gospel ignites all of us on earth to live a life of piety and makes us fervent in spirit, according to the expression of blessed Paul. Besides this, we are also made partakers of the Holy Spirit, who is like fire within us. We have been baptized with fire and the Holy Spirit. This fire is the fire of the gospel that comes to us by the Holy Spirit in holy baptism and confirmation."

Jesus calls us to change the world, to set it on fire with His love. Each person can share in this love, no matter how small the action seems to be today since there is no such thing as a small action in the eyes of God. There's an everyday martyrdom to which we're all called to. It means smiling at someone when we feel lousy at times. It means a kind word when we feel angry or upset when somebody is mean to us. It means, refusing to give in to bitterness or hatred of our society and showing and living in kindness and making a spiritual difference because we do not know what the other person is going through in their own lives. Those little acts of witness to Christ's love, of martyrdom, help to set the world on fire with His love.

May God continue to bless all of us. Our Lady, Undoer of Knots, pray for us! St. Daniel the Prophet, pray for us! Have a great week and enjoy life with a great smile! Pray always!

Health Quest - Anxiety Revisited.

Anxiety is a complex emotional state that includes fear and worry. Many strategies have been developed to help us deal with such feelings aroused by life's uncertainties. The perspective of St. Francis de Sales, as detailed in the following quote, provides thoughts for meditation:

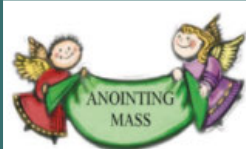

Do not fear what may happen tomorrow. The same loving Father who cares for you today will care for you tomorrow and everyday. Either He will shield you from suffering or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace then, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginings.

Your Parish NursesSt. Vincent de Paul Clothing Drive

The St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Drive has been changed to October 18 & 19. What a great way to empty out your closets of all the clothes you no longer need or wear. Used and abused clothing can be brought to the Parish Center parking lot where two trailers will be set up. The hours will be from 9 AM until 1 PM on both Saturday and Sunday. All clothing should be boxed or bagged. They accept abused clothing because they sell them by the pound for rags. They will also take shoes and small household items. If you are a student and need to complete some community hours, call the rectory and leave your name and number and someone will get back to you.

Every first Saturday of the month we offer the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at the 8:30 AM Mass. All who are ill, in fragile health, or suffering from infirmity of age are welcome to celebrate and receive this sacrament on Saturday, September 6th.

Following the Mass there will be Rosary and Confession.

Please join us for First Friday Rosary which will be recited in the Good Shepherd Adoration Chapel on Friday, September 5th, at 7:00 PM.

THE CALL TO PRAYER

*Let us pause to take time out for a few minutes of prayer.
The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.*

A reading from the holy Gospel according to: Luke

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three; a father will be divided against his son and a son against his father, a mother against her daughter and a daughter against her mother, a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

Reflection:

The division Christ speaks of is not anti-family or anti-community. Rather it is about building a household that is not dominated by social expectations and conformity. Instead of allowing others to choose for us, let us choose the yoke that brings lightness and joy! Being yoked to Christ, who is perfect and never leaves us, is far better than being yoked to the imperfect and sometimes bullying wills of our neighbors. So let us seek to create our family in and with Christ. It is he who gives us our mother, our brothers, and our sisters!

Concluding Prayer:

O God, who have prepared for those who love you good things which no eye can see, fill our hearts, we pray, with the warmth of your love, so that, loving you in all things and above all things, we may attain your promises, which surpass every human desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Respond Program

Religious Education Classes for Children with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

Classes Begin September 13th!

The Respond Program has been Saint Daniel the Prophet's religious education program for students with intellectual and developmental disabilities for over thirty years. Through the Respond Program, a generation of students with special needs has been successfully prepared to receive the sacraments of Communion and Confirmation in classes that are adapted to meet their needs and provide a nurturing and accessible learning environment.

Classes will begin in September and will be held on Saturday mornings from 9:30 - 11 AM on a biweekly basis. Students can enroll beginning at age 6 through their late teens, to learn about their Catholic faith and receive sacramental preparation.

The Respond program is a tuition free ministry, which has been supported by donations and fundraising for over thirty years! All materials, including textbooks, are provided.

If your child could benefit from learning about their faith through the Respond program or if you share this information with a family member, friend, or neighbor whose child might benefit, you can begin the registration process by sending an email to Jim Bruton at jbruton83@gmail.com with the subject line "Respond Program."

.. the process by which adults become Catholic.

Are you unbaptized, but recognize a need for spirituality in your life? Are you a baptized Catholic who never pursued your First Holy Communion and Confirmation? Are you baptized into another religion and wish to become a member of the Catholic Church?

Then the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the place for you! Over the years our parish has led many adults to the joy of understanding our Catholic Faith, through the OCIA program. There is no cost to you. All materials are supplied by the parish. The only thing you need to bring is the desire to know the teachings of our Catholic faith.

Sessions will begin on Thursday, September 25, 2025. If you or anyone you know wants to become a fully initiated Catholic (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation), or if you have any questions, call Deacon Bob at (773) 742-1431.

Meet The Rest Of Our New Faculty Members

Hello! My name is Ms. Isabella Gunningham, and I'm so excited to begin my first year as a classroom teacher. While this is my first year leading a class of my own, I've spent the past five years gaining experience through tutoring, observing, and student teaching. I recently earned my master's degree from Northwestern University in Educational Studies, and before that, I completed my undergraduate studies in Elementary and Special education at the University of Miami. I loved my time in Florida but was definitely ready for a break from the heat! I mostly grew up in Seattle, Washington, though my family now lives in Connecticut. Outside of school, I love staying active—tennis, golf, and pickleball are some of my favorite ways to spend time. I'm looking forward to a fun school year full of learning!

Hello Everyone! My name is Carol Cho-Oates, and am thrilled to be back. I have truly missed teaching here. This school year, I will be starting my 23rd year of teaching various grades. I will be teaching Junior High math and 8th grade Religion. Originally from Los Angeles, CA, I moved to Chicago and have been a resident of Garfield Ridge for 20 years. I received my B. A degree in education from Franciscan University of Steubenville in Ohio. Then went on to receive my Master's in Education with a concentration in Teaching Mathematics from California State University, Los Angeles. I have been a long-time parishioner of St. Daniel the Prophet Church. My Catholic faith is very important to me. Having faith is crucial as it provides strength, fosters hope, and shapes our actions and beliefs, influencing how we navigate life's challenges and relationships. I am excited for this new beginning, and I am looking forward to learning and growing with my students this year!

Hello! My name is Maggie Butterfield, and I am so excited to be joining the SDP family as a new 3rd grade teacher. I recently graduated from Illinois State University and am looking forward to beginning my teaching career here. I am so excited to create a positive, engaging classroom where students can grow both academically and in their faith. I feel blessed to be part of this wonderful community and can't wait to get to know my students and their families.
