OUR MISSION and OUR VISION

MISSION STATEMENT - Who We Are

The mission of the faith community of Mary, Mother of Divine Grace is to inspire spiritual growth by worshiping, teaching and living by example our love of Jesus, His Church and our neighbors.

VISION STATEMENT - Who We Strive to Be

The parish of Mary, Mother of Divine Grace will continually serve all people by being good stewards for future generations. We make Christ known by living and teaching our faith.

For additional information regarding our parish, please see page 11 or visit our website: marymotherofdivinegrace.org

There is the old television commercial that began with the words being spoken off-screen, “When E.F. Hutton speaks, people listen.” A hush would descend over the room, as people on-screen waited to hear what the brokerage firm E. F. Hutton had to say.

Well, if E.F. Hutton can silence a crowd, what does the voice of God do? In Genesis, we see the word of God is so powerful that it creates what is spoken. “Let there be light” and there was light.

If God’s “word” is powerful, how powerful is the love of the Father for the Son and the Son’s love for the Father?

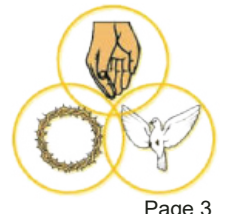

This love is so “powerful,” so effective, so transformative, that, from eternity, that mutual love of Father and Son is the Holy Spirit. This is not saying that Father and Son cause the Spirit, so as to suggest that the Spirit comes a moment later in time. No, the three persons of the Trinity are co-eternal. Rather, what our Church teaches is that our understanding of the Trinity has a dimension that we look to the life within the Trinity (called “the immanent life of the Trinity”). In the eternal relationship of loving, giving and receiving, Father, Son and Spirit, that is God; that is the Three Persons. Acknowledging that all analogies limp and fail, we can think of the generative love of humans, such that life arises from love of the married couple. That new life, born of love, is a home, a marriage, a relationship, and, yes, even children. Love is generative and the internal life of the Trinity teaches us to look for that in our midst.

But, wait, there is more!

Of course, we ourselves are in relationship with Father, Son and Spirit. The three Divine Persons have, so to speak, an external life, a life that reaches to us. Technically, it is called “the economic life of the Trinity.” It is “economic” in the sense that this life is outwardly flowing, active, reaching you and me. We experience the outward life of the Trinity. We see the Father in creating all that is. We see the Son as our Redeemer. We see the Spirit as the one who guides us, inspires us and steers our Church.

Some clerics have called Trinity Sunday “a preacher’s nightmare,” suggesting that preaching about the Trinity runs the risk of being particularly abstract, theoretical and disconnected from our everyday lives. I will have to disagree. The Church’s teaching and reflection on the Trinity over the millennia and God’s own self-revelation lead us to our knees. From this vantage point, we can seek to know (and never truly succeed this side of Paradise) the depths of the love of Father, Son and Spirit, while we simultaneously give praise and adoration for this Trinity who is with us in every dimension of our lives. The three divine persons of the Trinity come to us as Creator, Redeemer and Inspirer—not three “modes of being,” but three persons in one God.

-Deacon Richard Hudzik

Knights of Columbus Visit to Our Lady of Champion

In October of 1859, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to a young woman who was walking to Mass one Sunday. Our Lady told Adele Brise that she was "the Queen of Heaven who prays for the conversion of sinners, and I wish you to do the same."

The National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion near the city of Green Bay, Wisconsin, was built to commemorate the apparitions. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has designated the site of the Shrine as the first National Shrine with a Marian Apparition.

Our Knights of Columbus Council would like to visit the shrine and wants to know if anyone would like to join us. If there is enough interest, we would hire a bus for the three and one-half hour trip to Champion, with lunch included. We would probably schedule the trip in August.

If you are interested in visiting this beautiful Shrine with the Knights of Columbus, please let us know.

You can email us at KofCdivineinfant@gmail.com or drop a note at the rectory addressed to Knights of Columbus, or call Bob Bezouska at 708-562-4016 and leave a message.

If we get enough positive responses, we will begin planning the trip.

Our country celebrates Memorial Day this Monday. We remember all those who gave their lives in service to our nation, as well as their families who mourn them. We pray for them, for all our veterans, our active military personnel and for their families. Three years after the Civil War an organization of Union army veterans established this day to honor all who died in that terrible conflict among the states. Originally called Decoration Day, it was a time for the nation to decorate the graves of the war dead with flowers. Major General John Logan established Decoration Day on May 30, probably chosen because flowers would be in bloom all over the country. The first major celebration was held at Arlington National Cemetery near Washington, D.C. It was not until after World War I that the commemoration was expanded to include those who died in all American wars. Congress declared Memorial Day a national holiday in 1971.

Pope Saint Paul VI was one of the first popes to face the many challenges and blessings that have come from modernization. He sought to keep the ancient faith of the Church ever ancient while also making it ever new and relevant to a world in need. He sought unity among Christians, peace among nations, and respect for the dignity of all. As we honor this recent saint, ponder the effects that he has directly had upon your life. His prayerful decisions, especially regarding the way we celebrate the liturgy, have led many to engage the sacraments in a more active way, participating more fully in the sacred offering of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ to the Father in Heaven. Nothing in life is more important than that.

Celebrated on May 31, the Feast of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary commemorates the Virgin Mary's visit to her cousin, Elizabeth. The meeting of these two women was a joyful and unique event. Both found themselves pregnant in unusual circumstances - Elizabeth in her old age after suffering from infertility, and Mary by the Holy Spirit.

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."
