THANK YOU!

Our semi-annual blood drive was held on January 20. 49 units were collected in total. 13 were Power Red donations which count for a double donation and 24 were whole blood donations. Most of the donors were from SCL. A huge thank you for making this a successful blood drive! SCL always answers the call to donate and to volunteer at the blood drive. Our next blood drive will be held on July 28, 2025 at SCL. Due to the weather conditions this month, many blood drives across the area had to be cancelled and there is a critical shortage of blood and blood products. Please consider going to the Red Cross center in Crestwood at 9230 Watson Rd, St. Louis, MO 63126 to donate if you were unable to come to our drive.

WELCOME TO THE SCL 2025 VICTORY GARDEN.

Come join us and follow St. Vincent's steps to help those in need. The time from the fall garden to now has gone by so quickly. However, it is now time to start thinking ahead for the early spring beds and those that will follow. If you would like to find out more, or if you know someone interested, our planning meeting and sign-ups will take place on Thursday, February 13, at 6:30 p.m. in The Parish Center. There is something for everyone; not all are labor-intensive.

We also would to invite everyone to Fellowship. This is an opportunity to meet other parishioners. Fellowship meets on Tuesdays, after the 8:15 mass. February and March gatherings will be limited to the first Tuesday of the month in the church Gathering Space. Watch for updates for the April and summer gatherings. Gatherings are either in the garden or if the weather isn't cooperating, the Gathering Space of church. We hope to see many joining. Help us to "Make Good Things Grow".

Human Dignity–Not Dependent on Citizenship or on a Person’s Immigration Status

The U.S. Bishops, Catholic Charities, and the Catholic Health Association of the U.S. will continue to respond to government actions that ignore the human dignity of each person who is created by God and made in His image and likeness. The attached article states this viewpoint. What can you and I do as Catholics to respond to community actions that ignore the human dignity of others?

- Pray, pray, pray for our government leaders and those carrying out orders that they treat each person with human dignity. Pray for those who are suffering from fear, anxiety, and cruelty that they receive the resources they need for their families and themselves.
- Attend the Mass for Racial Unity–Tuesday, Feb. 11, 7:00 p.m. at St. Cletus Parish 2705 Zumbuhl Road St. Charles, MO 63301. Carpools available from St. Catherine Laboure. Contact Cathy Griner 314-849-2314 if you would like to carpool.
- Request that your senators and representatives pass just laws that respect the human dignity of each person and that provide safety in homes, schools, churches, hospitals, and communities. Participate in the Immigrant Accompaniment Program sponsored by the Immigrant and Refugee Ministry at St. Pius V (a Vincentian parish in the city). Training is required. You can volunteer as little or as much as you wish. migrantministrySTL@gmail.com–314-772-1525
- Read the article below and other documents from the USCCB regarding immigration.
- Do one small action each day with love to help others.

WASHINGTON – The following statement was issued in response to action taken by the Trump Administration rescinding guidance related to "protected areas" in immigration enforcement.

“Catholic health care, Catholic Charities agencies, and the Church’s other social service ministries work daily to feed, house, heal, educate, and meet people’s needs in communities across our nation. Through these ministries—together with the Church’s responsibility to proclaim the Gospel and celebrate the sacraments—we uphold the belief that all people are conceived with inherent dignity, reflecting the image of God. Through our parishes, shelters, hospitals, schools, and other Church institutions, we recognize that this dignity is not dependent on a person’s citizenship or immigration status. Moreover, the charitable services we provide are fundamental to who we are as Christians. ‘For the Church, charity is not a kind of welfare activity which could equally well be left to others, but is a part of her nature, an indispensable expression of her very being’ (Deus caritas est, no. 25).

“We recognize the need for just immigration enforcement and affirm the government’s obligation to carry it out in a targeted, proportional, and humane way. However, non-emergency immigration enforcement in schools, places of worship, social service agencies, healthcare facilities, or other sensitive settings where people receive essential services would be contrary to the common good. With the mere rescission of the protected areas guidance, we are already witnessing reticence among immigrants to engage in daily life, including sending children to school and attending religious services. All people have a right to fulfill their duty to God without fear. Turning places of care, healing, and solace into places of fear and uncertainty for those in need, while endangering the trust between pastors, providers, educators and the people they serve, will not make our communities safer.

“Our organizations stand ready to work on a better path forward that protects the dignity of all those we serve, upholds the sacred duty of our providers, and ensures our borders and immigration system are governed with mercy and justice.”

LIFE MINISTRY

No Sin is Beyond God's Unfathomable Mercy, says Bishop Thomas on the Anniversary of Roe v. Wade

As chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Pro-Life Activities, Bishop Thomas offered the following reflection on the 52nd anniversary of the decision by the Supreme Court of the United States in Roe v. Wade that legalized abortion nationwide...

WASHINGTON – “As we celebrate this Jubilee Year as Pilgrims of Hope, Pope Francis invites us to experience God’s love ‘that awakens in hearts the sure hope of salvation in Christ,’” said Bishop Daniel E. Thomas of Toledo. As chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops’ Committee on Pro-Life Activities, Bishop Thomas offered the following reflection on the 52nd anniversary of the decision by the Supreme Court of the United States in Roe v. Wade that legalized abortion nationwide:

“I join all Catholics throughout our nation in observing January 22 as a day of prayer and penance. As we prayerfully continue the essential work of restoring full legal protection of all preborn children and supporting parents facing difficult pregnancies, we also recognize our need for asking forgiveness and healing from the Lord for when we have given in to the culture of death.

“Abortion inflicts deep and lasting wounds on society, but more directly on individuals and families. Many mothers and fathers may feel they have no choice except abortion. Some are pressured or coerced. No matter the circumstances of the abortion, we must recognize the often-silent grief of parents for their child and their despair of being worthy of the love and forgiveness of God and others.

“To the parents of children who have died by abortion, I am deeply sorry for your loss. Know that our Lord loves you as His daughters and sons no matter your actions. No sin is beyond His unfathomable Mercy. Jesus greatly desires our repentant hearts and invites us into an encounter with Him. For Catholics, the Sacrament of Reconciliation is always available for those seeking God’s forgiveness, hope, and peace.

“As we celebrate this Jubilee Year as Pilgrims of Hope, Pope Francis invites us to experience God’s love ‘that awakens in hearts the sure hope of salvation in Christ’ (Spes Non Confundit, 6). Hope allows those who have been involved in abortion to turn to God and repent, confident that He will forgive and make them whole.

“This January 22 and beyond, we need to be reassured that Jesus Himself, who is the source of our hope, was first wounded for our offenses, and suffered for every sin of ours, including abortion. Please join me in praying that God will fill the hearts of mothers and fathers suffering the emotional and psychological wounds from abortion with the hope of forgiveness that only He can give. We invite them to seek support from the Church’s compassionate and confidential ministries.”

If you or someone you know is interested in confidential help after abortion, please reach out to your local Catholic parish, or visit the national Project Rachel Ministry websites, www.HopeAfterAbortion.org or www.EsperanzaPosAborto.org for a listing of diocesan abortion healing ministries.

Workshop for Parents

MARCH 11TH AT 6:30PM

SCL PARISH CENTER

Youth today are more anxious, more depressed, and less independent than they were a generation ago. They sometimes struggle to attend school, they have diminished attention spans once in the classroom, and they seem all-consumed with social media and video gaming. They often receive their first smartphone even before starting middle school.

Parents of all ages of students are welcome.

For parents and guardians only

Parents of young children who may not feel that this issue yet affects them are especially encouraged to attend.

Parents leave with specific ideas on how to reduce overparenting habits and increase their children's time spent offline.

The program is two hours in length, incorporating a professional presentation as well as time spent in breakout groups for discussion, brainstorming, and planning.

Presenter: Amy Maus at West County Psychological Associates.

The Women Kristin Hannah

Women can be heroes. When twenty-year-old nursing student Frances "Frankie" McGrath hears these words, it is a revelation. Raised in the sun-drenched, idyllic world of Southern California and sheltered by her conservative parents, she has always prided herself on doing the right thing. But in 1965, the world is changing, and she suddenly dares to imagine a different future for herself. When her brother ships out to serve in Vietnam, she joins the Army Nurse Corps and follows his path.

As green and inexperienced as the men sent to Vietnam to fight, Frankie is over-whelmed by the chaos and destruction of war. Each day is a gamble of life and death, hope and betrayal; friendships run deep and can be shattered in an instant. In war, she meets—and becomes one of—the lucky, the brave, the broken, and the lost.

But war is just the beginning for Frankie and her veteran friends. The real battle lies in coming home to a changed and divided America, to angry protesters, and to a country that wants to forget Vietnam.

The Women is the story of one woman gone to war, but it shines a light on all women who put themselves in harm's way and whose sacrifice and commitment to their country has too often been forgotten. A novel about deep friendships and bold patriotism, The Women is a richly drawn story with a memorable heroine whose idealism and courage under fire will come to define an era.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, Jesus shows us that we are called to place gospel values before any other values and to be willing to put our lives on the line for them. Taking care of God's poor is indeed living gospel values.

Is God is calling you to join the Society of St.
Vincent de Paul?

THE CALL TO MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP SEEING JESUS

In Luke's Gospel we see and hear about a devout man named Simeon who "it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Messiah of the Lord." After Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple, Simeon hugged Jesus and said, "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace...for my eyes have seen your salvation." At a local soup kitchen, one of the priests would frequently say, "Be the face of Jesus to others and see the face of Jesus in others." As sons and daughters of God, we are made in His image and likeness. Do your words and actions reflect the face of Jesus to others? Do you reflect God's love and mercy to see the face of Jesus in others? If not, it's not too late to start.
