FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BILL...

Of many things....

Here are our ACA numbers so far. (they run about two weeks behind, between timing of this column, and when I get new reports.) Thank you already – we have already surpassed our parish goal. And now are looking toward our challenge goal, which is to equal the amount we raised last year. (which was AMAZING....)

2025 Published Goal	$79,560
Challenge Goal	$188,922
Total to Date	$110,320

So, every so often you receive a little pearl of wisdom from that vortex called social media. In this case, it was a Facebook post a woman wrote who was dying from brain cancer, asking her friend to post it when she died. That day, apparently has come. She spoke of a question asked by a shaman after her second brain surgery:

“Are you running towards life or running away from death?”

Whoa! That got my attention. There’s a BIG difference. I got it wrong more often than not. Don’t let fear fuel your choices. Live fearlessly. Run TOWARDS life.

She goes on in the post – speaking of helpful things she learned running toward life: cultivating friendships, surrounding yourself with voices that affirm (including your own) and ending with that oft quoted aphorism: And always eat dessert first, especially if there’s pie!"

Her shaman’s question, though, is worth pondering. Are you running toward life or away from death? Because I think it is a great way to spend these last days of the Easter Season – running as hard and fast as we can to the outpouring of God’s gift we call the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. With a week to go this Easter Season, what better way to ‘orient our lives’ toward the grace and power of the resurrection. Run toward life. Not merely away from death.

Having heard nearly two years of Saturday morning and afternoon confessions, that question resonated in a different way. How might I, as a confessor, invite people to do more than run from death? People come to the confessional very ready to do that – “I want this (fill in the blank) in my life to be gone. I want to be done with this grievance, this habit, this annoyance, this addiction.” Don’t get me wrong. That is not a bad place to start. But my experience in my own journey is that this is never enough to get me where God is calling me – simply running away from death, running away from the mess that sin costs me in my life and my relationships. Running toward the grace of the Sacrament, running toward the gifts of the Spirit at Pentecost is what has the power to transform, to truly change my life.

So, during this last week of the Easter season, between the celebrations of the Ascension of our Lord and Pentecost – do a little ‘running toward’ in your spiritual journey. Run toward: A little extra silence in your prayer. A daily act of charity and kindness toward a family member or neighbor. An extra tithe to a local charity. A letter of affirmation to a teacher here at Sacred Heart/BTC. A note to a nursing home staff member who takes care of a loved one. An intentional word of kindness to the person checking your groceries. And.... you get the picture.

Finally, keep Fr. Thomas and the Pilgrims of Uganda in your prayers these next 14 days. (It does sound like a title for the next DC comic series.) He promised to bring them home safely. They should be home by June 14th. So, pray for that outcome, as well as a renewed missionary spirit in their and our lives because of this pilgrimage.

Finally, it is nearly time for the great garage sale at the Thomas the Apostle site. MANY HANDS are needed, both before and during the event. Call Theresa Brandt to volunteer (314-303-1720), or just show up. More information can be found in this bulletin.
