28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves,
"Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said,
"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.
All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"When [Christ] gave the bread he did not say,
'This is the symbol of my body,' but, 'This is my body.'
In the same way, when he gave the cup of his blood
he did not say, 'This is the symbol of my blood,'
but, 'This is my blood.'"

We ought not regard [the elements] merely as bread and cup, but as the body and blood of the Lord, into which they were transformed by the descent of the Holy Spirit.

~ Theodore of Mopsuestia

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

I would like to thank Kurt Odenwald and Jane Azar and the rest of the talented Oktoberfest 2024 Team for putting on a wonderful event last Friday evening! Wow, the number of people who attended was amazing and the food and drink was memorable. We had traditional German music that we sang along with and everyone seemed to enjoy the desserts as well. The weather cooperated making it a pleasant experience to cherish until another one occurs next October. I would also like to thank those who brought their pets to church last Sunday for a special annual St. Francis of Assisi blessing! It was once again a large turn out and the animals all went home with halos around their heads.

We have placed prayer cards in church entitled, Pray to Safeguard Them Both: Vote No on Amendment 3. We will pray this prayer, much like we did during the All Things New initiative, at the end of mass until election day. We are reminded to respect life this month and we can pray through Mary's intercession to help us achieve this. Whether this was an election year or not, especially with the Amendment 3 issue, we would still be invited to respect the one life God has given us. Based on the way the amendment is written, we will be respecting life if we vote against it. So let's do that, shall we? I compose these simple words now so they will stay with us and inform our consciences by the time election day comes. May we pray to Almighty God, the source of all life, with the Blessed Virgin Mary's help, for a much more respected world that promotes and sanctifies the dignity of life from the moment of conception until natural death.

Father Charlie

PROVIDE A CATHOLIC EDUCATION TO LOCAL STUDENTS IN NEED, AT NO COST TO YOU!

Thank you from the St. Mike Golf Classic Committee

For the first time in 30 years, we finally lost to the odds and were rained out on the annual St. Mike Golf Classic.

It officially took a hurricane to ruin our streak! But thanks to our amazing golf teams and committee, not all was lost. Without a single hole of golf being played, we still managed to raise over $13,800 for the St. Mike St. Vincent DePaul Society and our parish. It is a testament to the generosity and loyalty of our golf teams that we were able to still make this event a huge success. In the true spirit of charity, not one team asked for their payment back.

While I would like to take the credit to Father's kind words as to the success of this day, it was the committee who spontaneously created a great event for our teams on the day of the tourney. We ended up having a full-day event in the St. Mike gym for all our teams to enjoy. John Kennebeck, Steve Meyer and the Women of St. Mike packed amazing lunches from Mom's Deli. Marc Langhauser and Joe Moore packed coolers of beverages while Ed Kopff and Shawn Harmon organized tournaments of cornhole. Ben Scherer arranged all the sponsor signs around the gym while Dan Schreckenber and Mike Tabash made sure every dinner attendee went home with at least a thank you gift. Greg Lauter trouble shot issues all day as they came at us. Among other things, he contacted our local First Responders to ensure any left over lunches did not go to waste and instead were used as a thank you to the brave men and women who serve our community. Lauren Odenwald, Ali Holekamp, Janet Collins, Peggy Eakle and Carol Basler sold hundreds of dollars in raffle tickets without making the teams feel gouged. Mary Manzella supplied us with dozens of tasty shots for our golfers to partake. Ron and Diane Gentile set up a golf simulator so we could still have some skill contests for our teams. Brian Preiss from Biggies served a delicious dinner for all our team in attendance. Truly amazing. And a special thank you goes out to Ed Kopff who filled in last minute as our dinner emcee. This day was a testament to how lucky we are to have such wonderful volunteers and parishioners who put charity before self.

Thank you to all our golf teams and all the volunteers who gave their time and money to the success of this event. We will see you all again next year on Friday Sept. 26th when hopefully we get to enjoy the day on the course!

Cheers,
Greg Meyer

Reading I

Wis 7:7-11

I prayed, and prudence was given me;
 I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me.
 I preferred her to scepter and throne,
 and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her,
 nor did I liken any priceless gem to her;
 because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand,
 and before her, silver is to be accounted mire.
 Beyond health and comeliness I loved her,
 and I chose to have her rather than the light,
 because the splendor of her never yields to sleep.
 Yet all good things together came to me in her company,
 and countless riches at her hands.

The word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 90: 12-13,14-15,16-17

*Fill us with your love, O Lord,
 and we will sing for joy!*

*Teach us to number our days aright,
 that we may gain wisdom of heart.*

Return, O LORD! How long?

Have pity on your servants!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord,
 and we will sing for joy!

*Fill us at daybreak with your kindness,
 that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days.*

*Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us,
 for the years when we saw evil.*

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord,
 and we will sing for joy!

*Let your work be seen by your servants
 and your glory by their children;
 and may the gracious care of the LORD our God
 be ours;*

prosper the work of our hands for us!

Prosper the work of our hands!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord,
 and we will sing for joy!

Reading II

Heb 4:12-13

Brothers and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart. No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

The word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God

Gospel

Mk 10:17-30

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him,

"Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good?"

No one is good but God alone.

You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother."

He replied and said to him,

"Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth."

Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him,

"You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

At that statement his face fell,

and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Jesus looked around and said to his disciples,

"How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!"

The disciples were amazed at his words.

So Jesus again said to them in reply,

"Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?"

Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.

All things are possible for God." Peter began to say to him, "We have given up everything and followed you."

Jesus said, "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come."

The Gospel of the Lord. R. Praise to you Lord, Jesus Christ
