The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,

may the faith you have gifted us in your son

Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity kindled in our hearts

by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us, the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into diligent cultivators of the evangelical seeds that make humanity and the cosmos rise unto the confident expectation of the new heavens and the new earth, when with the powers of Evil overcome, your glory shall be manifested eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, the yearning for heavenly treasures and pour over all the earth the joy and peace of our Redeemer. To you God blessed in eternity, be praise and glory for ever and ever.

Amen.

SYMBOLS FROM THE CEILING OF THE SACRED HEART CHAPEL

KNOWING GOD THROUGH SACRED ART

If you are standing at the altar, looking out toward the pews, you will see this medallion in the center of the fourth bay of artwork. This is clearly a depiction of the 10 Commandments which were given to Moses on Mount Sinai. You may wonder why the numbers are not evenly distributed on each tablet. That is to show the difference between these sets of commandments. The first three commandments are all about God. They are as follows (in layman's terms): do not commit idolatry (or put anything before God), do not use God's name in vain, and make holy the Sabbath day (which for us means going to Mass every Sunday). Commandments four through ten are about our brothers and sisters in Christ. They are as follows (in layman's terms): honor your mother and father, do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not lie, do not covet (or jealously desire) someone's possessions, do not covet someone's wife (or any other person).

God did not give us the commandments to limit our freedom. Rather, He revealed these morals truths to help us live a good life. Sin always causes damage to our relationship with God. It also hurts others and ourselves. God wants to protect us from this damage. He wants us to live in accordance with the good nature that He created us in. God does not make stupid rules. Even if we struggle to understand all the moral teachings that God has revealed to us through the scriptures and His Church, we should trust that they are for our own good. While some might see Catholic morality as oppressive, in reality, God is protecting us from enslavement to sin. He values our freedom even more than we do. Following the commandments and turning to the sacrament of reconciliation anytime we seriously fall, will allow us to freely follow God and truly love others.

*All of the artwork on the ceiling of the Sacred Heart Chapel was exclusively designed and hand painted by Chicago artist, Lisa Rigali.

As Christians, we are called to Open our hearts to God's goodness in service to our brothers and sisters in need. Through the CMAA, we show generosity toward the most vulnerable members of our community. We also benefit, as a parish, from the many ministries the CMAA supports, including vocations, Catholic education, and faith formation. Our parish goal for the 2025 CMAA is $116,900. The diocese will return 70% of any amount we raise over our goal to us, to be used fruitfully within our own parish. Please prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal. The results of the graph are as of May 11th.
