Flames of Faith

(Sanctuary Lamps and Adoration Chapel Candles)

Intentions for the week of September 22:

Special Family Intention

FLAMES OF FAITH

Have you noticed the red candles flickering in the church and in the Adoration Chapel? These Flames of Faith are constantly burning to show Jesus is there, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. We have two red sanctuary lamps on either side of the tabernacle in church, and two candles before Jesus in the adoration chapel. For a $10 donation, you can keep these Flames of Faith burning for one week with your special intentions.

Please stop in the Parish Office to arrange to have a candle burn in the Adoration Chapel or in the Church for your intentions. We will then publish those intentions in the bulletin each week.

Your Response to Deacon Matt's Homily Today

During the next two years, Deacon Matt Napoli will be participating in the Institute for Homiletics Preaching for Encounter Program. He is dedicated to improving his homilies and would love to hear your feedback on his homily today at the 8:30am Mass.

Please scan the QR code and take a few minutes to let us know how it impacted you. Thank you for your help in supporting him to preach better!

FR. LEE'S EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL REFLECTIONS

An interesting directive about receiving Communion says, “It is most desirable that the faithful, just as the Priest himself is bound to do, receive the Lord’s Body from the hosts consecrated at the same Mass and that, in cases where this is foreseen, they partake of the chalice, so that even by means of signs, Communion may stand out more clearly as a participation in the sacrifice actually being celebrated” [The General Instruction of the Roman Missal #85].

Why such a directive? Aren’t consecrated hosts reserved in the tabernacle just as much the Body of Christ as the hosts consecrated at a particular Mass? Of course they are!! But there is an important difference. The bread and wine brought forward to the altar by members of the assembly during the Presentation of the Gifts represent the lives of the people attending that particular celebration of the Eucharist. Receiving Communion (hosts and/or from the chalice) from the gifts presented and consecrated at the Mass in which they are offered is seen by the Church as another way of fully and actively participating by the faithful in the sacrifice being celebrated in this moment.

Although many parishes, including ours, do not follow this directive many times, can we find ways to make it happen at every Mass? It is important to note that consecrated hosts from previous Masses are reserved in the tabernacle so that Communion can be brought to the sick at home, the dying, and hospital patients by Eucharistic ministers. They are not meant to be used regularly to be the Communion received at scheduled parish Masses, whether on Sunday or weekdays. Exceptions to this practice can occur because of unforeseen pastoral need, but the presumption that Communion “from the tabernacle” as a regular practice is not to happen.

What is “most desirable” is not what is practical, easier, or the way we have gotten used to doing things. What is “most desirable” is that our ritual actions fully express that the gifts we bring to the altar at each celebration are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ and then given back to us so that we can become what we receive—the Body of Christ washed clean in his Blood at home, at work, at play, and in service to those in need. What could be more desirable than for our Eucharistic rituals to inform and strengthen our Eucharistic faith?

FR. LEE BIBLE STUDY

We will meet next on Thursday, September 26, from 7:00-9:00 PM to look at the Wisdom Literature in the Old Testament, and especially at the Books of Proverbs and Ecclesiastes. We will discover these books have 2 very different approaches to understanding life through reflection and experience, even though both are written from the perspective of Israel's faith in God. Take a look at Chapter 23 in the Boadt book to get an idea of how Wisdom Literature differs from the Pentateuch, the prophets, and the historical books we have been studying so far in the Old Testament. Our last meeting for 2024 will take place on October 24, and will be concerned almost exclusively on the Book of Job. See you later this month!!

Adoration Chapel

Fall is officially here and Our Lord is still waiting for you to spend time with Him.

Just open the door to the Chapel, walk in and sit or kneel for awhile and embrace the solitude. It is in this stillness that the Lord speaks to us.

“Be still and know that I am God.” Ps. 46

Enjoy a brief excerpt from Dn. Andy Cirimo's reflections regarding Eucharist Adoration:

*From You I came yet wandered far,
so far I could barely see
From where I came, You still remain,
Forever patient, waiting just for me
But lately now I've come to know
Your presence in every way
In my loves and fears and often doubts
You're always here, right here, to stay.*

Loaves & Fishes

SES Loaves & Fishes Ministry Needs Your Help

Donations have lagged following the reopening of the parish after the virus shutdown. Your help is needed. Please consider donating on a weekly or monthly basis if possible.

Packaged and canned foods as well as personal care items and cleaning products are always needed for the Loaves & Fishes food pantry. Deposit all donations on the wood cart located on the lower level between the stairs and the entrance to the boys restroom. Volunteers will then transport the items to the Loaves & Fishes food bank.

No fresh food of any kind will be accepted.

Please consider a donation. For those of you that donate directly to the food bank save yourself the trouble of driving to Loaves & Fishes, the parish has a committed group of volunteers who will deliver your donations to Loaves and Fishes for you.

NEED YOU RIGHT NOW Your Parish Mental Health Ministry

Heisman Trophy winner and former NFL QB,
Johnny Manzel:

"I had the chance to walk across the stage at Radio City Music Hall and be a No. 1 draft pick in the NFL. I had everything in my life I could have ever wanted. I had money. I had fame. ... And, for some reason, when I got there and I got everything that I wanted, I think that was truly the most empty I had ever felt inside."

"I think from there I started to really turn and isolate and focus on doing the wrong things, doing things that temporarily made me feel better, that temporarily made me happy. So, I learned slowly what depression was."

In the midst of the struggle, we rarely admit to ourselves that we are actually struggling. Others see it, we rarely do. There is hope! There are lots of resources available!

TO HOPE AND ACT WITH CREATION

SEASON OF CREATION 2024

EARTH CARE SEASON OF CREATION

The month of September until St. Francis Feast Day Oct 4 is known among Christians around the world as the Season of Creation.

Whenever we fail to care for our brothers and sisters in creation, the way is opened to destruction and hearts are hardened. Lord, grant that each one of us will all be “protectors” of creation, protectors of God’s plan inscribed in nature, protectors of one another and of the environment. Some of the practical things we can do in our own little world are:

- ✓ Eat less meat by going meatless on Mondays and Fridays,
- ✓ Compost, recycle, do away with some of the plastic in our home,
- ✓ Buy less, reuse, join the Earth Care ministry’s upcoming activity at Springbrook Forest preserve Sept 21, go on a family nature walk,
- ✓ Join us in an outdoor mass at St. Jude in New Lenox Saturday Sept 28 at 5 P.M. (bring your own chair),
- ✓ Watch “The Letter” and/or “We Are All Plastic People” on YouTube.
- ✓ Read the book “A Future We Can Love”

Our Season of Creation theme this year is “To Hope and Act with Creation” WHAT WILL YOU DO???

Music at All Saints

The halls are always filled with the sound of music at All Saints. Preschool through grade 8 students enjoy music class once a week as part of their specials rotation for their entire time at All Saints.

Our youngest preschool saints are learning about music by experiencing it: through movement, dance, playing instruments, clapping rhythms, and singing rhymes. They are recognizing fast and slow, loud and soft, high and low.

Intermediate students have been enjoying the beautiful weather outdoors as they explore the art of square dancing.

All junior high students learn to play the ukulele as part of their extensive exploration of various music genres that include jazz, western music history and musical theatre, and music appreciation and composition.

At All Saints, we educate the whole child – mind, body and spirit – to ensure personal growth in all areas. The study of music is something that will give students enjoyment for a lifetime, with students prayerfully recognizing and giving thanks for their God given talents and gifts.
