"Ascension" by John Singleton Copley (1775)

" 'You are witnesses of these things. And behold I am sending the promise of my Father upon you...' As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven. They did him homage and then returned to Jerusalem with great joy..."

" 'Ustedes son testigos de esto. Ahora yo les voy a enviar al que mi Padre les prometió...' Después salió con ellos fuera de la ciudad, hacia un lugar cercano a Betania; levantando las manos, los bendijo, y mientras los bendecía, se fue apartando de ellos y elevándose al cielo..."

Here I Am

Just over a year ago, I prostrated myself before the bishop and before this altar here at St. Vincent de Paul. I promised lifelong celibacy, prayer, and obedience to my bishop, and I was set apart as and transformed into a deacon—a servant—of Jesus and His flock. That day, my life changed forever. And this weekend, I return to this same altar, now as a priest.

You know, I'm not really sure how I got here—wearing this collar, being called "Father," standing at this altar—but here I am. And I am happy to be here. I am thankful to be here. I wouldn't want to be anywhere else.

I think that for each of us, our lives are mysterious. Sure: we can see how we got from point A to point B, how this experience led to that later choice, how this memory moved us in that direction. But on the whole, we are mysteries to ourselves: caught up in the current of life, somehow we find ourselves, well, here, older than we could have guessed, living a life different than we expected. I, like you, don't really know how I got here, but here I am. Here we are.

And here, in this church—the church where I became a young man—I offer my first Masses as a Catholic priest. On this altar, from which I've been nourished since my childhood, I say those sacred words—"this is my body, this is my blood"—and they actually do something. My ordination changed me, and now I change the bread and wine, and they become the flesh and blood of God. It's all a mystery to me.

And all of this, I do with and for you: you who have walked with me, you who have taught me, you who have loved me, you who have prayed for me. Together, we offer this sacrifice. And together, we offer it for the world, that all might come to know Him whom the Father sent.

I don't know how I got here. I don't know how you got here. But I do know it's because of Him. Jesus said, "when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all people to myself" (John 12:32). To this altar, He has drawn us. To His heart, He has called us. And here, He fills us. Here, He gladdens us. Here, He is. And here, we are. Together, let us adore Him.

Today, I begin the rest of my life. I don't know where it will lead. I don't know how it will end. But I know that it's all up to Him. I'm just along for the ride. And that's, really, all that any of us can do: be present, be faithful, love those He's placed before us. And eventually, we'll return to Him. And there, you and I and He—we—will be one: there, where all will be well.

Thank you, St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church, for everything. Please pray for me, that I might be a holy priest. May our resurrected and ascended Lord bless you.

In Christ,
Fr. Joel Brackett

Aquí Estoy

Hace poco más de un año, me postré ante el obispo y ante este altar aquí en San Vicente de Paúl. Prometí de por vida el celibato, la oración y la obediencia a mi obispo, y fui apartado como y transformado en un diácono—un siervo—de Jesús y su rebaño. Ese día mi vida cambió para siempre. Y este fin de semana, vuelvo a este mismo altar, ahora como sacerdote.

La verdad, no estoy muy seguro de cómo llegué aquí—llevando este collar, siendo llamado “Padre,” presidiendo en este altar—pero aquí estoy. Y estoy feliz de estar aquí. Estoy agradecido de estar aquí. No quisiera estar en ningún otro lugar.

Creo que para cada uno de nosotros, nuestra vida es misteriosa. Claro: podemos ver cómo llegamos del punto A al punto B, cómo esta experiencia nos llevó a esa elección, cómo este recuerdo nos movió en esa dirección. Pero, en general, somos misterios ante nuestros propios ojos: absortos en la corriente de la vida, de alguna manera nos encontramos, pues, aquí, con más años de lo que podríamos haber imaginado, viviendo una vida diferente a la que esperábamos. Yo, como tú, no sé realmente cómo llegué aquí, pero aquí estoy. Aquí estamos.

Y aquí, en esta iglesia—la iglesia en donde me crié—ofrezco mis primeras misas como sacerdote católico. En este altar, del que he sido nutrido desde mi niñez, yo pronuncio esas palabras sagradas—“este es mi cuerpo, esta es mi sangre”—y realmente cambian algo. Mi ordenación me cambió, y ahora cambio yo el pan y el vino, y se convierten en la carne y sangre de Dios. Todo es un misterio para mí.

Y todo esto lo hago con ustedes y para ustedes: ustedes que han caminado conmigo, ustedes que me han enseñado, ustedes que me han amado, ustedes que han orado por mí. Juntos ofrecemos este sacrificio. Y juntos lo ofrecemos por el mundo, para que todos lleguen a conocer a Aquel a quien el Padre envió.

No sé cómo llegué yo aquí. No sé cómo llegaste tú aquí. Pero sí sé que es gracias a Él. Jesús dijo: “Cuando yo sea levantado de la tierra, atraeré a todos hacia mí” (Juan 12:32). A este altar Él nos ha atraído. A Su corazón, Él nos ha llamado. Y aquí Él nos llena. Aquí Él nos alegra. Aquí, Él es. Y aquí, estamos nosotros. Juntos, adorémosle.

Hoy comienzo el resto de mi vida. No sé adónde conducirá. No sé cómo terminará. Pero sé que todo está en Sus manos. Sólo voy a seguir. Y eso es, en realidad, todo lo que cualquiera de nosotros puede hacer: estar presente, ser fiel, amar a aquellos que Él ha puesto delante de nosotros. Y eventualmente regresaremos a Él. Y allí, tú y yo y Él—nosotros—seremos uno: allí, donde todo estará bien.

Gracias, Iglesia Católica San Vicente de Paúl, por todo. Por favor oren por mí, para que sea un sacerdote santo. Que nuestro Señor resucitado y ascendido los bendiga.

En Cristo,
Padre Joel Brackett
