Holy Family

Bevil Bramwell, OMI—Sunday, December 30, 2012

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. The glowing nativity scenes in our churches speak volumes about the integrity of the family as an enduring and graced human reality. God chose to use a human family as the way to bring his incarnate Son into the world as its savior.

The natural wonder of a man and a woman getting married and having kids became the context for the birth and growth of the Savior into the history of the People of God. Created reality became saving reality through the power of the Spirit of God: “the power of the Most High will overshadow you.”

Interestingly, on this Sunday we do not hear about some idyllic family scene with the kids romping on the lawn and parents sitting on the porch. Instead, we hear of the Holy Family under threat.

They had to flee to Egypt to avoid the murderous rage of King Herod. They were refugees as so many families are today. Yet they all went together to Egypt. There is no thought of dumping the child because of the inconvenience. Despite all odds, the sustained integrity of the family made it possible to face the threat. The Providence of God protected the natural organic group of the mother and father and child. He sent messengers to guide the family to Egypt – and later back to Nazareth.

George Bernard Shaw once said that: “Perhaps the greatest social service that can be rendered by anybody to this country and to mankind is to bring up a family.” The fact that a family exists and is stable through the years is an inestimable service to the history of mankind.

It is almost as if the regular family echoes the Holy family in performing a service to mankind at large. Vatican II spoke intensely of this rich network of relationships that we call family. It first applied the word “family” to the whole of humankind and then voiced the Church’s abiding concern for:

the whole human family along with the sum of those realities in the midst of which it lives; that world which is the theater of man’s history, and the heir of his energies, his tragedies and his triumphs; that world which the Christian sees as created and sustained by its Maker’s love, fallen indeed into the bondage of sin, yet emancipated now by Christ. (GS 2)

Within this often underappreciated communion, which the Church is here to develop, the council pointed out two sets of relationships that we cannot do without: namely, our family and our social and political structure. These are inescapable because “Man’s social nature makes it evident that the progress of the human person and the advance of society itself hinge on one another.” (GS 25)

This is the key: human growth and development require certain presences in all our lives. In a far from exhaustive list, we need a male and a female presence. We need to see the full flourishing of the male as man and husband, and the full flourishing of the female as woman and wife. There are many layers to each of these aspects of human existence as they ground interactions between younger and older, between man and woman, and much, much more.

In the married union of man and woman, there is a “transference of personalities” in knowledge and desire. (Gilson) They form a deep spiritual and physical union that leads ultimately to children. Vatican II described this union:

Firmly established by the Lord, the unity of marriage will radiate from the equal personal dignity of wife and husband, a dignity acknowledged by mutual and total love. The constant fulfillment of the duties of this Christian vocation demands notable virtue. For this reason, strengthened by grace for holiness of life, the couple will painstakingly cultivate and pray for steadiness of love, large heartedness and the spirit of sacrifice. (GS 49)

The story of the Holy Family is a story that radiates these qualities and it remains the type of Christian families as they deal with the tensions with each other and with the world at large.

The spiritual and psychological depth of the family just keeps on unfolding in such a way that “the family is a kind of school of deeper humanity.” (Vatican II) It is the sheer intensity of the number and type of interactions in the family that stretch and move each person into ever-richer habits and concepts of what it means to be a mother and a father and a son and a daughter.

This always presumes, of course, the large heartedness and spirit of sacrifice that are the Christian trademark. The little scenes of the Holy Family that grace our homes and churches speak of this communion of life and its constant opening out in deeper humanity. And they also tell of a life bathed in the Providence of Almighty God, which happens in a family – and nowhere else.

Penitential Rite

Celebrant: Brethren, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

R: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then they continue:
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Celebrant: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. +

First Reading

1 Sm 1:20-22, 24-28

In those days Hannah conceived, and at the end of her term bore a son whom she called Samuel, since she had asked the LORD for him. The next time her husband Elkanah was going up with the rest of his household to offer the customary sacrifice to the LORD and to fulfill his vows, Hannah did not go, explaining to her husband, "Once the child is weaned, I will take him to appear before the LORD and to remain there forever; I will offer him as a perpetual nazirite."

Once Samuel was weaned, Hannah brought him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and presented him at the temple of the LORD in Shiloh. After the boy's father had sacrificed the young bull, Hannah, his mother, approached Eli and said: "Pardon, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood near you here, praying to the LORD. I prayed for this child, and the LORD granted my request. Now I, in turn, give him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he shall be dedicated to the LORD." Hannah left Samuel there.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 84:2-3, 5-6, 9-10

R: Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord.

Second Reading

Col 3:12-21

Brothers and sisters:

Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Wives, be subordinate to your husbands, as is proper in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and avoid any bitterness toward them. Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing to the Lord. Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they may not become discouraged.

Gospel

Lk 2:41-52

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

R: And with your spirit.

Celebrant: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

R: Glory to you, O Lord.

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

R: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Holy Communion

Prayer for making a Spiritual Communion (if you are at home)

At Thy feet, O my Jesus, I prostrate myself and I offer Thee the repentance of my contrite heart, which is humbled in its nothingness and in Thy holy presence. I adore Thee in the Sacrament of Thy love, the ineffable Eucharist. I desire to receive Thee into the poor dwelling that my heart offers Thee. While waiting for the happiness of sacramental Communion, I wish to possess Thee in spirit. Come to me, O my Jesus, since I, for my part, am coming to Thee! May Thy love embrace my whole being in life and in death. I believe in Thee, I hope in Thee, I love Thee. Amen.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph The union of man and woman that establishes family life is a sacred reality at the very foundation of the social order. Bonded in love and in obedience to the Lord of life, the family reflects the holiness of the Holy Family, centered on Jesus. By the grace of union with Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, family life—with its challenges and its joys—becomes a path to holiness. “The Christian family is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit. In the procreation and education of children it reflects the Father’s work of creation. It is called to partake of the prayer and sacrifice of Christ. Daily prayer and the reading of the Word of God strengthen it in charity” (CCC 2205). Printed from the December 2021, Magnificat, Sunday 12/26/2021

NEUROPATHY RELIEF IS POSSIBLE!

Peripheral Neuropathy is a result of damage to the nerves, often causing weakness, pain, numbness, tingling, and the most debilitating symptom, balance problems. This damage is commonly caused by a lack of blood flow to the nerves in the hands and feet. Every part of the body relies on blood via blood vessels, for oxygen and nutrients. Without it, the body begins to lose function.

If pain, numbness, and imbalance is impacting your life, medications with side effects may not be your only option. Call 651-272-7998 to schedule a consultation to determine if the neuropathy affecting you can be treated.

Minnesota Integrative Medicine & Acupuncture offers cutting edge, non-surgical, natural pain interventions. Acupuncture helps to stimulate blood vessels and the peripheral nerves so they are able to receive proper nutrients needed to heal and repair.

The amount of treatment needed to allow nerves to fully recover varies from person to person and can only be determined after a detailed neurological and vascular evaluation. Then a customized treatment plan will be mapped specifically for you.
