Co-Cathedral of
St. John the Evangelist

A Welcoming Catholic Community in the Diocese of Winona-Rochester

11 4th Ave. SW • Rochester, MN 55902 • www.sj.org

WITNESS OF BELONGING

Welcome to
Co-Cathedral of
St. John the Evangelist

Our parishioners, the parish staff and I, as rector, hope that your visit to our church will be a prayerful time while at the Mayo Clinic or while you are visiting our city for any other reason. We encourage you to consider the Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist as your church away from home. If we may serve you with any of your needs please do not hesitate to contact us at the Parish Center.

The Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist Community is committed to proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ as we partner with the city and our neighbor, the Mayo Clinic. If you have recently moved to our city and desire to join the parish community, please find a form on our web page and register as a member. Together we pray that the Holy Spirit will lead us in being a welcoming Catholic community.

Fr. Jerry Mahon
Rector

Dear Baptized companions on the journey:

As you may recall, this past weekend Deacon Randy shared with us about the adults in RCIA already baptized in another faith tradition and how they have been walking with Teresa and Deacon Randy for several months. They desire to profess their faith in the Catholic Church and be received into the community and fully participate by celebrating the sacrament of Reconciliation, Confirmation and Eucharist. It is always an awakening for all of us as we share in their excitement and commitment in this walk of engagement and continue to discover the beauty of our baptismal belonging, which they give such a profound witness to by saying "yes". It is a grace for me and all of us to experience this new life with them.

During the past days, I have been visiting with Megan about some children who also desire Baptism. My conversation with Megan focused on four children who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil as they are not babies. Normally, the Baptisms at the Easter Vigil are for those who will also be ready to receive Eucharist. One of the amazing factors is the reality that they come from four different countries: South Sudan, Mexico, Korea and Cambodia. This diversity is an enormous gift as we ready ourselves to welcome all of them into our community and recognize the wonder of different cultures, ethnicity, and the call to unity in the embrace of Jesus Christ risen from the dead. One of these young people is a 9th grader and he has been inspired by other students which brought him to ask for Baptism.

St. Paul speaks of baptism as he wrote: "[You] have been seized and made one with Christ" (ref. Phil 3:12). We have been seized. "You did not choose Me, but I chose you," Jesus says (John 15:16). Choosiness is our posture, and this election changes our lives as we continually discover a presence that is beyond limitations. Christ is always inviting us to a maturity unto eternity. Father Luigi Giussani states: "This is an objective choice that we can never rid ourselves of again; it is a penetration of our being that does not depend on us and that we can no longer erase." People often speak of wanting to discover their identity and to know who we are. This baptismal belonging is our identity but there is a work that each of us must do to stay alert and engaged with the dignity that changes our lives. It breaks my heart to have so many experiences in which it is obvious that people no longer experience a presence, and that they have no clue of being seized. However, there are surprises all of the time where someone is moved by the Mystery and once again has a longing to search for the meaning of their identity in being chosen.

Giussani continues: "There is nothing culturally more revolutionary than this conception of the person, whose meaning, whose substance is unity with Christ, with an Other, and through this, a unity with all those whom He seizes, with all those whom the Father puts into His hands." The call is self-awareness as we come to know deeply: "It is no longer I who live, but it is You who live in me" (ref Gal 2:20). This statement from St. Paul reveals an enormous self-awareness in being a new person. It is so significant to know and speak about an experience of the presence of Christ, to know in a simple and new way that presence on our journey of life. And this occurs in the concrete and real awareness of hearing our name and knowing a truth that we encounter in the here and now. Our journey of Lent is an important time to open ourselves and be ready for the surprise, to meet the face of Christ that our very being longs for now.

Lastly, I want to express my gratitude to Deacon Randy for his homily last weekend in which he invites us to join with one another in support of the Church of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester. Bishop Quinn does not have a community in which he receives an offering every week, but he comes to us once a year asking for our generosity to support the many ways in which the diocese reaches out and helps all of us. Basically, his staff of men and women need to be paid and receive benefit, this is a major portion of the budget.

Every year we come to you for your participation, and I so desire to increase the number of parishioners participating in this most important work of the Church. I most sincerely thank you for your sacrifice and way to remember the diocese and support the bishop in his office and to help him address the many needs of thousands of people. I have made my gift and am asking you to act and offer your treasure.

Blessings for our hearts on our journey to Jerusalem,

Father Jerry Mahon
Rector/Pastor

HEARING GOD'S VOICE WORKSHOP

In many walks of life, we are blessed to meet with people as representatives of God and ambassadors of God's love. Providing opportunities for others to share how they have come to know God, including their cherished faith practices, their experiences of being called to be in the world, their joys, struggles, and life-learned wisdom can be a profound gift to them. These experiences can also deepen our own understanding of those we serve, ourselves and our God.

Kate Piderman, a chaplain and researcher at Mayo Clinic and a spiritual director, will present the way she and her team have gathered spiritual stories from those who are ill and invite us to consider how we might adapt this work to listening more deeply to those we encounter, personally and professionally, and to our own prayer and discernment. The next workshop will be on Saturday, March 19th at 10:00am. Register by emailing Michelle Schmid at mschmid@sj.org.

Synod Corner:

(Hear how our parish responded to the synod questions)

The Eucharist is our Summit, it sets us apart. It IS Jesus, not just a symbol. He gave us Eucharist to continue along the journey and said "I will be with you always."

The Eucharist is the food of the Church.
