Welcome to the
Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

Our parishioners, the parish staff and I, as rector, hope that your visit to our church will be a prayerful time while at the Mayo Clinic or while you are visiting our city for any other reason. We encourage you to consider the Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist as your church away from home. If we may serve you with any of your needs please do not hesitate to contact us at the Parish Center.

The Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist Community is committed to proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ as we partner with the city and our neighbor, the Mayo Clinic. If you have recently moved to our city and desire to join the parish community, please find a form on our web page and register as a member. Together we pray that the Holy Spirit will lead us in being a welcoming Catholic community.

“He will provide the way and the means, such as you could never have imagined. Leave it all to Him, let go of yourself. Lose yourself on the Cross, and you will find yourself entirely.” – St. Catherine of Siena

This quote sums up what the experience of Holy Week and the Easter Triduum means to me. Each year, I come to retreat, reflect, and remember. When I fully enter into this experience, I get swept up in God's love, leaving it all to Him, losing myself on the Cross, and finding myself entirely in the Resurrection.

Retreat—For me, a retreat is an opportunity to disconnect from our worldly lives, free ourselves from distractions, and enter into intentional prayer. During this time, I pray for myself, the ones I love, the whole world, and even my enemies. I spend time in silence listening to God speaking to me. I find stillness letting God's love consume me.

Holy Week and the Easter Triduum offer ample opportunities to enter into a fruitful retreat. For the past several years, I've volunteered for the music ministry at St. John's. I play the flute and sing in the choir. Being part of the music has conditioned me to treat the Triduum as one continuous service, a 3-day retreat, beginning on Holy Thursday with the Last Supper commemoration followed by the withdrawal into the Garden of Gethsemane, a rendition arranged in the gathering space.

We leave from here in silence and return the next day journeying with the Cross through the streets of downtown Rochester as we contemplate the road to Golgotha. When we enter into the church sanctuary on Good Friday, we come solemnly and ready to lose ourselves on the Cross as we ponder Christ's Passion.

Reflect—Holy Saturday, also known as the Easter Vigil, is our invitation to keep the vigil outside Christ's tomb as we await His glorious Resurrection. At St. John's, the Easter Vigil Mass is an amazing celebration. I've always loved the music, and much of the Mass is sung.

The Mass begins in darkness in the gathering space. As the Easter Candle is blessed and lit, representing the Light of Christ, we light candles one-by-one that each person holds as we process into the church. The flame symbolizes Christ's victory. As the trumpets and organ play a triumphant fanfare, I can't help but imagine we are exalted to heaven in this moment.

Additionally, the Easter Vigil Mass poses an awareness that all of this Triduum stuff isn't just something that happened once upon a time in history. Seeds are constantly being planted and sown across every nation. We come together in solidarity as a universal church to reflect and thank God for His goodness to us. We let go of ourselves to become part of the One Body.

Remember—The Easter Triduum reminds me who I am, a beloved daughter of the King, who died for me, and rose on the third day, so that I might have eternal life. We are all beloved children of God, and we're reminded of who we are at every Mass.

CO-CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST

PALM SUNDAY

Particularly this reminder chimes audibly in the Easter Vigil Mass as we renew our Baptismal promises and witness RCIA candidates make their profession of faith for the first time. I love how everyone applauds as we welcome our new members into the community. I imagine all the angels and saints exuberantly cheering for them, as surely must happen every time we poor sinners repent and return to God with all our hearts.

The party continues on Easter Sunday as we gather again for Holy Mass. It is yet another occasion to assemble as a family and celebrate the victory won for us – He is risen!

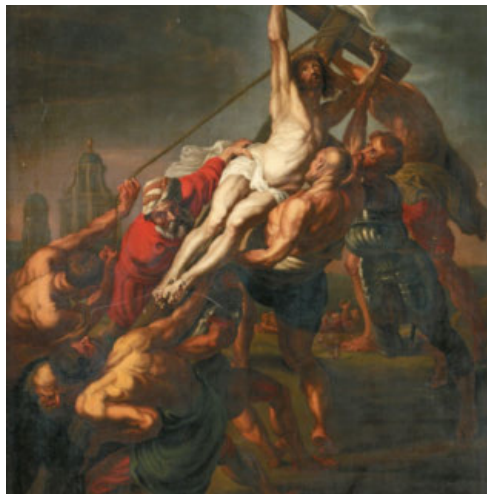

As a single woman, I'm tempted to feel lonely from time to time. Surely, the isolation and social distancing resulting from the pandemic these past two years have been trying times for many humans. We must remember that we're never alone. My comfort and hope comes from the realization that God is with me, and I belong to His Catholic Church. Every time I engage in Mass and the Sacraments or in activities at my parish, I remember that God loves me. Living in this truth is where I find myself entirely.

During this Holy Week, I pray that you will open your hearts to retreat, reflect, and remember, so that you may also experience all the beauty and grace God desires to give you throughout the Triduum. May God bless you, and may you remember always that you are the beloved sons and daughters of Christ the King.

LAUDATO SI LENT WITH THE IGNATIAN SOLIDARITY NETWORK

The Laudato Si Action Platform (LSAP) is Pope Francis' guidelines for implementing "Care for Our Common Home". Our Lenten reflections lead us to action on behalf of our common home and all life. LSAP Goal 7 Community resilience and empowerment envisage a synodal journey of community engagement and participatory action at various levels. What steps do we need to take in order to enroll in the Laudato Si' Action Platform? Who would be involved in such an effort? How do we already promote empowerment and advocacy? What additional ideas do you have to promote community resilience and empowerment in our faith community, and beyond to the wider community? God of resurrection, we ask for the grace to collaborate with members of our community and all people who are working towards ecological justice and restoration. We pray for the spirit of discernment as we consider how our unique talents and vocations can support our community in this endeavor. Through our own discernment and engagement, we pray that we can empower others to see their own gifts and to act for ecological justice. God of justice, may we as a community commit ourselves to advocacy and action as we more firmly root ourselves in the care of our common home, both locally and globally.

Hearing the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor, as we enter Holy Week, prepare to celebrate Jesus' Resurrection, and approach Earth Day 2022, what is one action, from each of the 7 Laudato Si Goals, you would like to help implement to restore new life to "Our Common Home"?
