Welcome to the
Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

Our parishioners, the parish staff and I, as rector, hope that your visit to our church will be a prayerful time while at the Mayo Clinic or while you are visiting our city for any other reason. We encourage you to consider the Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist as your church away from home. If we may serve you with any of your needs please do not hesitate to contact us at the Parish Center.

The Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist Community is committed to proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ as we partner with the city and our neighbor, the Mayo Clinic. If you have recently moved to our city and desire to join the parish community, please find a form on our web page and register as a member. Together we pray that the Holy Spirit will lead us in being a welcoming Catholic community.

Jesus Christ has Risen! Alleluia!

Pope Francis states: "Death, solitude, and fear are not the last word. There is a word that transcends them, a word that only God can speak: it is the word of Resurrection"! Christ has made good on all He promised. He is truly risen, and our celebration of new life opens the door of our minds and hearts to discover the depths of beauty and wonder.

"Beauty will save the world" Dostoyevsky said, because beauty is what attracts us to believe in the truth and to choose the good. Beauty is what we fall in love with, and therefore beauty is our soul's gravity, as St. Augustine says, "my love is my weight, my gravity." The beauty and wonder of Christ Risen is the force that attracts us beyond the pain and wounds of life. All the doors are opened to eternal life!

Our coming together is an experience of wonder and beauty in the liturgical life of the Church, and we need each other in faith, in conversation, and in discovering a Presence. All these factors open us up to the surprise of the Mystery.

Jesus Christ has Risen! It is such a joy for me and our staff to recognize faces that have returned to the community as we are called to companionship. In consideration of COVID we became separated in order to protect one another, and now our need to be worshipping together has become clearer. In a sense, we are inviting each other to return as we really need each other and as the community becomes a real place to come upon the face of Christ, beauty.

There are many reasons to be shaken as we continue to learn and experience the war in the Ukraine. It is beyond our comprehension in so many ways but this nation, a people belonging to each other, is filled with a longing and desire for beauty and wonder even though their hearts are broken. The suffering of Jesus led to a broken heart, which we experience as well, but our call to go beyond those limitations is the grace-filled sign that generates hope.

The passion, death and resurrection of Jesus is our path as well, and we all hold this promise in our hearts. This promise of suffering, dying, and rising is true for the people living through this tragic war, for those suffering all the pain and wounds of the world.

The great realist, Leo Tolstoy, was despised by the educated Russians as they did not accept his values which ran counter to received opinion. He said "no" to what others simply assumed, and that is our call as well, which we are not able to live and do in isolation but rather in staying together and helping each other discover the tiny moments of change. The ordinary events of our lives create a work of art with Jesus Risen and invite us to live. Too often these events are overlooked as we presume that they are not important or meaningful. Jesus was always forming a people by paying attention to every aspect of life and the tiniest moment led to a relational life of wonder and beauty.

CO-CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST

EASTER

Art begins where the tiny bit begins. Tolstoy remarks: "That saying is strikingly true not only of art but of all life. One may say that true life begins where the tiny bit begins - where what seems to us minute and infinitely small alterations take place. True life is not lived where great external changes take place - where people move about, clash, fight, and slay one another - it is lived only where these tiny, tiny, infinitesimally small changes occur." The truths we seek are to be found not in the remote distance but right in front of us, hidden in plain view. Our Easter walk for fifty days is an invitation to invite the tiny experiences of joy, suffering, the presence of Christ, and to take these moments in without concluding the ordinariness cannot touch the thirst of my heart. Again, we need the presence of one another, and our coming together as a community supports our discernment of meeting the Mystery in the tiny and being embraced with a depth we never imagined. Are we available to these small steps? Christ has made good on all he promised. He is truly Risen!!!

During these weeks we will hear such profound stories with the beginning of the Church and the friends of Jesus recognizing the Risen Lord Jesus! This is the same for us, as Resurrection is happening now for each of us and we need to pay attention to all that is given. Tolstoy describes receiving such a gift when he could no longer struggle with the nervous agitation he felt at the sight of tears and, for once in his life, yields to his agitation. When he does: "he suddenly felt that what he had regarded as a nervous agitation was on the contrary a blissful spiritual condition that gave him all at once a new happiness he had never known. He did not think that the Christian law he had been all his life trying to follow enjoined him to forgive and love his enemies; but a happy feeling of love and forgiveness for his enemies filled his heart. He knelt down, and.....sobbed like a little child" (this and other quotes taken from a variety of places).

The tiny reveals a presence that moves us beyond our calculation and touches tender parts of our humanity; when the pieces fit together, and peace is abundant: He is Risen!

Our entire staff joins me in expressing our inspiration and appreciation for your way of being. I am filled with gratitude for the enormous work our entire staff has been doing and living for these weeks and I know you recognize the beauty and wonder of their "yes"!

Happy Easter my friends,

Father Jerry Mahon
Rector/Pastor

MASS READINGS
WEEK OF APRIL 17
SPIRITUAL DIRECTION OPPORTUNITY

Have you ever wanted to deepen your relationship with God or enrich your prayer life? Have you ever wanted to increase your ability to make decisions from a spiritual perspective or talk through matters of spirituality that bring you joy or trouble you? If so, you may want to consider spiritual direction. Spiritual direction is an opportunity to talk with another spiritual seeker who is academically and experientially trained to support and guide others as they negotiate their spiritual journeys. Katherine (Kate) Piderman, a friend of St. John's, is a certified spiritual director with specific training in Ignatian spirituality and the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. Her background includes chaplaincy and research at Mayo Clinic and parish ministry. If you would like to learn more about spiritual direction with Kate, please contact her at kmpiderman@gmail.com. Focus and frequency of meetings will be discussed. In person (at SJE) or video meetings can be arranged. There is no charge for this ministry but donations are accepted.

*Other spiritual direction opportunities in Rochester, include those at Assisi Heights, Riverseasons, and Heritage Farm.

St. John's is excited to bring a parish group this year and would love to share more information with you. Please reach out to Megan Rodriguez at mrodriguez@sj.org if you have a child interested in joining us or if you are an adult interested in helping at Camp Summit! The full report for our parish synod is available at <http://sj.org/parish-synod/>. The journey isn't over, even though the official report is finished. Share your thoughts online with us. LAUDATO SI ACTION PLATFORM – CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

Our Common Home has many aspects and personas. Jesus talks about the many “rooms” God the Father has for us in Heaven. Our Mother Earth is the gift of “Our Common Home” from our Creator God. We have our family “common home” where so much of what we learn about the gift of creation and life, and dignity is shared. We also have our parish where we are nourished in our recognition and gratitude for the gift of “Our Common Home”. We circle back, by way of the universal Church, through the encyclical of Pope Francis “Laudato Si: On Care for Our Common Home”. We reflect on the “Cry of the Earth” and the “Cry of the Poor”, on how we have failed in this caring stewardship. But journeying with Christ, our repentance of Lent leads to the power of Resurrection and the reconciliation possible as God “makes all things new”! Our Creator God infuses all creation with the possibility of new life, and we are invited, called, compelled by the perfect sacrifice of Jesus, to respond with creative participation in the renewal of “Our Common Home”. In Hope and Joy, we recognize, with the vision of the relationship of a renewed creation, our creative opportunities in our various communities, to participate in this sacrifice of love. Participation in the Resurrection will happen from our desire to partner with the “Author of Life” to “Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature” (Mk 16:15) and “renew the face of the earth”!

“Discerning a response to the ecological crisis is a profound act of care. At this kairos moment, action is needed. The Laudato Si’ Goals guide our actions. They redefine and rebuild our relationship with each other and our common home. Their holistic approach acknowledges the planetary limits of all socio-economic systems and the human roots of the ecological crisis. They call for a spiritual and cultural revolution to realize integral ecology.” Laudato Si Action Platform

As we celebrate Jesus’ Resurrection, and approach Earth Day 2022, what is one action, from each of the 7 Laudato Si Goals, you would like to help implement to restore new life to “Our Common Home”? Goals: Response to the Cry of the Earth; Response to the Cry of the Poor; Ecological Economics; Adoption of Sustainable Lifestyles; Ecological Education; Ecological Spirituality; Community Resilience and Empowerment.
