Rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, persevere in prayer.

PLAN TO MAKE A GOOD LENT THIS YEAR

Lent. Lent is a penitential season, a time to “Turn away from sin and be faithful to the gospel” (Mark 1:15). The season lasts for forty days, the same amount of time that Jesus spent in prayer and fasting in the desert. The liturgical color is violet or purple, the symbol of repentance and sorrow for sin. Sin is real, and over the course of the year spiritual slippage normally occurs. Our sins can become more frequent or grow more serious. Lent is a time to re-examine, acknowledge how we have offended God and neighbor, admit our failings, seek God’s forgiveness, receive God’s healing grace, reform our lives, conform ourselves to God’s will, and make headway in virtue and holiness.

Lenten regulations. One way to make a good Lent is to observe the two Lenten regulations: abstinence and fasting. The abstinence regulation requires all those who have reached their fourteenth birthday to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all of the Fridays of Lent. The fasting regulation applies from one’s eighteenth to fifty-ninth birthday. All those in this age range are to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting means one full meal and two smaller meals that together do not equal the larger one, with no food between meals except beverages. This obligation does not apply to those with special health conditions or physically demanding work. Those in doubt should consult a priest or confessor.

Penitential Practices. Another way to make a good Lent is to observe the four penitential or ascetical practices: prayer, fasting, almsgiving, and works of charity.

Prayer. Prayer is at the top of the list. Lent offers an opportunity to intensify prayer, to pray more, or better, or with a richer variety. There are two main types of prayer: communal-liturgical and individual-private, and both are necessary for a well-balanced prayer life. Regular communication is key to every quality relationship, and if we hope to be close to God, regular prayer is a must.

Communal Prayer. The cornerstone of communal prayer is the Sunday Mass, and it is the indispensable starting point, whether in Lent or any time of the year. To have a good Lent, consider adding something to your communal prayer. The highest-rated option is daily Mass, one or two times a week, or possibly every weekday. Parishes offer a variety of other options: the communal recitation of Morning or Evening Prayer, the rosary, the Stations of the Cross, or a parish retreat or mission. At home, the family can offer prayers together at mealtime, bedtime, or any other time when two or more pray together.

Individual Prayer. Jesus frequently went off to pray by himself, and so should we. There are many options: Eucharistic Adoration; scripture reading and reflection; a silent or directed retreat, contemplation and meditation; the rosary, the chaplet, litanies, and prayer books; spiritual reading such as the writings or lives of the saints; a prayer journal; singing along with sacred music in the car; or a solitary prayer walk outside.

Fasting. Fasting is a form of self-denial, one of the most traditional forms of penance. In some circles it is not fashionable to give something up for Lent, with the objection that it is “too negative,” except self-denial is the path to self-mastery. If we want to have a good Lent, it would be worthwhile to give up some non-essential pleasure like dessert, candy, pop, ice cream, alcohol, tobacco, or television for a day or the week. The foremost form of self-denial is fasting from food, and Jesus demonstrated its importance when he fasted forty days and nights in the desert (Matthew 4:2), and he presumed that his disciples would do the same (Matthew 6:16,17). When hunger pangs come, it takes determination to say, “No!” and if we can consistently say “No” to something small like food, with improved self-control it is much more likely that we will be able to say “No” when something bigger like temptation comes our way.

Almsgiving. Almsgiving is not the same as stewardship of treasure or sacrificial giving, money shared to support the ministries of the parish and the wider church. Almsgiving is giving over-and-above what is given to the church: money, food or clothing, goods or services that are shared to help the poor and needy. Almsgiving is penitential, as scripture says: “Prayer and fasting are good, but better than either is almsgiving accompanied by righteousness” (Tobit 12:8); “Almsgiving expiates every sin” (Tobit 12:9); and “Atone for your misdeeds by kindness to the poor” (Daniel 4:24). A fine way to make a good Lent would be to make special donations to disaster relief, a food shelf, a soup kitchen, an orphanage, or some other charitable agency that cares for the poor or troubled.

Charity. Kind deeds are also penitential, because “love covers a multitude of sins” (1 Peter 4:8). Plan to do something thoughtful for someone: extend thanks, offer a compliment, fulfill a promise, listen attentively, run an errand, help with a job, make a phone call, send flowers or a card, be polite, tell a clean joke, or visit someone in a hospital or nursing home, just to name a few. Random acts of kindness are good, but planned ones are better. Acts of love toward a neighbor draw a person away from selfish preoccupation and closer to God.

Plan for Lent. Lent is a time to break sinful habits that have not received the remedial attention they deserve, implement spiritual upgrades that have been put off for a long time, and break out of a spiritual holding pattern. Our plan for Lent should be to “Turn away from sin and be faithful to the gospel” (Mark 1:15).

STEWARSHIP

Thank you for Your Continued Generosity!

“Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.”

- 1 Corinthians 10:31

Do a quick check of your priorities. Where does God rank in that list? If He's not first, you have some work to do. Putting God first in everything helps us from putting other “gods” (like our pride, ego, money and possessions) before God. Before making a decision, ask yourself, “Am I doing this for the glory of God or for the glory of me?”

- Point your smartphone camera at the QR code and you will be directed to a secure donation form.
- Go to st-barts.org/giving and make a secure electronic donation.
- Mail a check, payable to St. Bartholomew Church, to the church office.
- If you are making a stock donation, the date of the donation is the date you turn the stock over to our broker regardless of when the parish receives the check. Please let us know ahead of time when you plan to transfer stock by contacting Jeannie Judge, Director of Stewardship and Development, at jjudge@st-barts.org or 952-473-6601.
- Double your donation to St. Bart's! Find more information about Matching Gifts on our website at st-barts.org/giving.
