MERRY CHRISTMAS! In this short Christmas message, I take some of the words of Pope Francis in his message from December 25, 2020.

"I would like to bring to everyone the message that the Church proclaims on this feast with the words of the prophet Isaiah: "To us a child is born, to us a son is given" (Is 9:6) A child is born. A birth is always a source of hope; it is life that blossoms, a promise of the future.

Moreover, this Child, Jesus, was born "to us": an "us" without any borders, privileges or exclusions. The Child born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem was born for everyone: He is the "son" that God has given to the entire human family.

Jesus was born in a stable, but was embraced by the love of the Virgin Mary and Saint Joseph. By His birth in the flesh, the Son of God consecrated familial love. May Christmas be an opportunity for all of us to rediscover the family as a cradle of life and faith, a place of acceptance and love, dialogue, forgiveness, fraternal solidarity and shared joy, a source of peace for all humanity."

WELCOME. Christmas has a way of bringing to Church individuals and families who, for various reasons, have not been to Mass or the Sacraments for months or years. What a wonderful and grace-filled opportunity to begin anew that prayerful relationship with the Lord and His Church. I extend to all of you an open, grateful heart of welcome. May our Lord Jesus Christ, born in Bethlehem, bless you and your families!

As we celebrate the joyous feast of Our Savior's birth, I pray that the Christ Child will fill your hearts and minds with the blessings of His love, hope, and peace.

A HEARTFELT "THANK YOU" again this year to DOUG DOSE & family for the generous donation of our Christmas trees & wreathes.

Many thanks to all who donated the poinsettias for the church environment & to all those that helped decorate our church for the Christmas season.

How beautiful it looks!

Thank you to those who volunteered to serve at our Christmas Masses.

There are so many that help make this liturgy a meaningful event: Sacristans, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Readers & Hospitality Ministers. Thank you for being faithful to your ministry!

Welcome

Welcome to the Church of St. Francis of Assisi. Our church has helped to bring Jesus Christ to the city of Rochester since 1937. We seek to foster the spiritual growth of our parishioners through the celebration of the Sacraments, catechesis, community life, and personal prayer. Like our patron saint, we strive to rebuild the Church and to console the heart of Jesus by serving our neighbors in need.

A NOTE FROM FR LUIS

¡FELIZ NAVIDAD! En este corto mensaje de Navidad, tomo algunas de las palabras del mensaje del papa Francisco del 25 de Diciembre de 2020.

“Deseo hacer llegar a todos el mensaje que la Iglesia anuncia en esta fiesta, con las palabras del profeta Isaías: «Un niño nos ha nacido, un hijo se nos ha dado» (Is 9,5).

Ha nacido un niño: el nacimiento es siempre una fuente de esperanza, es la vida que florece, es una promesa de futuro. Y este Niño, Jesús, “ha nacido para nosotros”: un nosotros sin fronteras, sin privilegios ni exclusiones. El Niño que la Virgen María dio a luz en Belén nació para todos: es el “hijo” que Dios ha dado a toda la familia humana.

Jesús nació en un establo, pero envuelto en el amor de la Virgen María y san José. Al nacer en la carne, el Hijo de Dios consagró el amor familiar. Que la Navidad sea para todos una oportunidad para redescubrir la familia como cuna de vida y de fe; un lugar de amor que acoge, de diálogo, de perdón, de solidaridad fraterna y de alegría compartida, fuente de paz para toda la humanidad.”

A todos, ¡Feliz Navidad!

UNWRAPPING THE GIFT OF JESUS AT CHRISTMAS.

My father died on December 25th, 2017. One of the heirlooms I got from him was a large framed picture of the Nuehring family farm that has been in the family for over 100 years. This picture and my memories on that farm connect me to something bigger than myself, and help ground me, pun intended, in my families' roots.

The same is true with Christmas. One of the most profound images we have of Christmas is the crèche scene. This depiction of Jesus laying in a bed of straw in a stable connects us to something bigger than ourselves. Jesus' birth connects us to a rich faith history. Every Christmas, we are not just remembering what Jesus did for us 2,000 years ago when he was born, without also understanding in a deeper way what Jesus' life, death and resurrection did for us 2,000 years ago, too.

Jesus' birth, humble life of service and gruesome death challenge us in our faith. Jesus's impact did not end with this death. He gave us an example to follow. He was born in a simple stable to show his humility. He served people on the margins of society to model service for us, and he died a horrible death on the cross to save us.

Christmas is more than just adoring the baby Jesus. Christmas is the whole package and it takes time to truly unwrap the gift of Jesus at Christmas. Jesus is the REAL reason for the season! Merry Christmas.

FAMILY CONNECTION.

Today's Gospel describes a time of anxiety in the life of Jesus' family. We can imagine their panic and worry as they discovered that Jesus was not with the caravan returning to Nazareth. The Holy Family journeyed with family members and friends because traveling alone was dangerous. When they found Jesus at the Temple, Jesus spoke like a typical adolescent, unsympathetic to his parents' concern. Yet his words teach an important lesson about reducing anxiety in our family life.

In essence, Jesus says, "If you had remembered who I am, you would have known where to find me." In their panic, Mary and Joseph had forgotten what had been told to them before Jesus' birth, that their son was the Son of God. Knowing a person well helps reduce our anxieties for them because we can better predict how they will behave, and we know their capacity to handle the challenges life might present to them. As you gather as a family, have fun playing the game "How well do you know me?" Take turns trying to stump one another by asking family members questions about yourself, such as "What is my favorite memory of a family vacation?" "Given a choice, what dinner menu would I pick?" "If I could travel anywhere in the world, where would I go?" One member of the family might prepare and read the questions aloud as each person writes down the answers. Family members then take turns guessing the answers, playing this game as a quiz show. Observe that one thing about families is that we learn to know each other well.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family. This feast is part of the Christmas season, and we should place today's Gospel in the context of what Luke's Gospel tells us about the birth of Jesus. Luke has been answering the question "Who is Jesus?" through his stories of the births of John the Baptist and Jesus. Today's Gospel reading continues this theme. It has no parallel in the other Gospels and is the conclusion of Luke's Infancy Narrative.

Mary, Joseph, and Jesus are presented in this Gospel as a faithful Jewish family. They are participating in the annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, an event shared each year with family and friends. When Jesus is found, Luke describes him as seated in the Temple in the midst of the Jewish teachers. Although he is young, Jesus seems not to need teaching about his Jewish tradition. In his dialogue with these learned teachers, Jesus astounds them with his insight and understanding. Jesus is a child of Israel. His Father is God.

The dialogue between Mary and Jesus contains many references to family relationships. In fact, in this Gospel reading Mary and Joseph are never identified by name. Instead they are referred to by their relationship to Jesus. Ultimately, this emphasizes Luke's point about the identity of Jesus. When Mary and Joseph find Jesus in the Temple, they question Jesus and express their anxiety. Jesus replies in words that many have thought to be disrespectful. Jesus says that he was never lost; he was at home. Jesus is God's Son, and he is in his Father's house. Luke will continue to suggest that faith in Jesus establishes new family relationships as he describes Jesus' public ministry.

In Luke's Gospel, Mary's importance is even greater than her role as Jesus' mother. Mary is the first disciple and will be present with Jesus' disciples after his Resurrection at Pentecost.
