When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."

- John 2:3-5

PATHS TO PEACE FOR 2022. In his message for the World Day of Peace, Pope Francis considers three practical paths we must walk.

1. "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace." (Is 52:7)

The words of the prophet Isaiah speak of consolation; they voice the sigh of relief of a people in exile, weary of violence and oppression, exposed to indignity and death. The prophet Baruch had wondered: "Why is it, O Israel, why is it that you are in the land of your enemies, that you are growing old in a foreign country, that you are defiled with the dead, that you are counted among those in Hades?" (3:10-11). For the people of Israel, the coming of the messenger of peace meant the promise of a rebirth from the rubble of history, the beginning of a bright future.

Today the path of peace, which Saint Paul VI called by the new name of integral development, [1] remains sadly distant from the real lives of many men and women and thus from our human family, which is now entirely interconnected. Despite numerous efforts aimed at constructive dialogue between nations, the deafening noise of war and conflict is intensifying. While diseases of pandemic proportions are spreading, the effects of climate change and environmental degradation are worsening, the tragedy of hunger and thirst is increasing, and an economic model based on individualism rather than on solidary sharing continues to prevail. As in the days of the prophets of old, so in our own day the cry of the poor and the cry of the earth [2] constantly make themselves heard, pleading for justice and peace.

In every age, peace is both a gift from on high and the fruit of a shared commitment. Indeed, we can speak of an "architecture" of peace, to which different institutions of society contribute, and an "art" of peace that directly involves each one of us. [3] All can work together to build a more peaceful world, starting from the hearts of individuals and relationships in the family, then within society and with the environment, and all the way up to relationships between peoples and nations.

Here I wish to propose three paths for building a lasting peace. First, dialogue between generations as the basis for the realization of shared projects. Second, education as a factor of freedom, responsibility and development. Finally, labour as a means for the full realization of human dignity. These are three indispensable elements for "making possible the creation of a social covenant", [4] without which every project of peace turns out to be insubstantial.

EMPIEZA EL TIEMPO ORDINARIO.

Todo buen católico sabe que durante el año tenemos varios "tiempos" en los cuales distribuimos la lectura de la Palabra de Dios, meditamos sobre un aspecto de la vida de Jesús, y profundizamos en un misterio de la vida de Jesús. Tenemos el tiempo de Adviento, de Navidad, de Pascua, etc. Y hay un tiempo bastante peculiar, que probablemente sabemos poco de él, es el llamado Tiempo Ordinario.

¿POR QUÉ SE LLAMA ASÍ? La respuesta es sencilla: se llama "tiempo ordinario", porque en dicho tiempo se medita sobre la "vida ordinaria" de Jesús, es decir, qué hizo con sus discípulos, los lugares que visitó, los milagros que realizó. Pero, a diferencia de otros tiempos, en el tiempo ordinario se profundiza en la vida cotidiana Jesús.

Por ejemplo, en el tiempo de Navidad se profundiza sobre el nacimiento de Jesús, en el tiempo de Pascua se profundiza en la Resurrección de Jesús, mientras que en el tiempo ordinario no hay un misterio específico que se profundice, sino más bien se acompaña a Jesús en sus "actividades" de día a día.

Este tiempo es peculiar, es el más largo del año, dura entre 33 a 34 semanas, el color que se utiliza es el verde, comienza después de la fiesta del Bautismo del Señor y concluye con la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey del Universo. Y ahora ya sabemos, se llama ordinario porque acompañamos a Jesús en su vida ordinaria.

WELCOME! A warm WELCOME is extended to all who come to the Church of St. Francis of Assisi! We are grateful to our faithful parishioners and welcome our neighbors and guests who are visiting us. We want you to know that you are always welcome here!

¡BIENVENIDOS! ¡Una BIENVENIDA a todos los que vienen a la Iglesia San Francisco de Asís! Estamos agradecidos con nuestros fieles feligreses y damos la bienvenida a nuestros vecinos e invitados que nos visitan. ¡Queremos que sepan que siempre son bienvenidos aquí!

Faith Formation

Peace and non-violence were themes of Martin Luther King Jr.'s life. He was a minister who did his best to live by the Scripture passage, "love your neighbor as yourself." He was also trying to be a voice for those who were not seen as equal in the eyes of the majority. We have people in this country right now who are not seen as equals. I am sure you could name a few. The homeless in our community, those people who are on the opposite side of the Covid issue from you, or the refugees who are coming to our country from Afghanistan right now in search of a better life?

My great-grandparents migrated to the USA from Germany in search of a better life. It was not easy, but eventually they settled on a farm in northern Iowa, and that farm has now been in our family for over 110 years. My grandfather tilled that soil, and my father tilled that soil. What is your family's story about migrating to the USA? We all have a story!

As we think about and reflect on Martin Luther King Jr's life and legacy, perhaps we also think about how our great-grandparents laid the foundation for our good life. WE are all blessed and one of the ways of expressing that is to share our time and talent with those who have less.

I was so impressed with the Confirmation students who rang bells with me for Salvation Army. Service to others is one way of living out Martin Luther King Jr's legacy and it's a wonderful way to live out our faith.

God Bless!

- Mark (youthminister@stfrancis-church.org)

SYNOD ON SYNODALITY 2021-2023. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open Herself to mission.

SYNOD INVITATION: DUE TO ONGOING CONCERNS IN REGARD TO COVID TRANSMISSION, THE IN-PERSON EVENT HAS BEEN CANCELLED. WE WILL BE DOING A WRITTEN SURVEY INSTEAD. MORE INFORMATION WILL BE IN NEXT WEEKEND'S BULLETIN!

As a member of St. Francis of Assisi Parish, you are invited to join our Synod Process. The Synod is a way for us to all journey together. We hope to discover and listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit. Our goal is to promote Communion, participation, and mission in our Church. Your thoughts, spirit, and view of how St. Francis of Assisi should evolve is something this process needs, and we hope you'll consider participating. More information will be forthcoming. Thank you!

WE STAND BEFORE YOU, HOLY SPIRIT

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we journey together as a
"Church on the Way in this Synodal Process."
Bless us with an openness to various voices and a fidelity to the One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Church.

Help us to accept the challenge of ongoing conversion so as not to let sin lead to disorder, but rather teach us to accompany one another as we follow you on the synodal path.

"The heart of the church's mission is prayer," and we make this prayer from our hearts
so as to be drawn closer to you and to one another.
All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in communion with the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen

FAMILY CONNECTION

Weddings are wonderful family celebrations. We go out of our way to make the occasion festive and extraordinary. People work hard to please one another. What better image of the Kingdom of God! Not every day is a wedding celebration, but we can anticipate the Kingdom of God each day in our attentiveness to one another's needs.

If your family has attended a wedding celebration together, talk about the experience and the planning and cooperation that made the celebration memorable. Talk about how weddings and feasts are images in Scripture for the Kingdom of God. Consider how these festive occasions are images of God's tremendous love for us and examples of how we can show our love for one another. Then read together today's Gospel, John 2:1-11. Talk about Mary's attentiveness to the needs of the hosts and about Jesus' response. What could your family learn from this story? Consider ways that you might show these values in your family's daily life. Pray together Saint Ignatius' Prayer for Generosity.

Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God,
Teach me true generosity.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve.
To give without counting the cost,
To fight heedless of wounds,
To labor without seeking rest,
To sacrifice myself without thought of any reward
Save the knowledge that I have done your will.
Amen.

In the Church's liturgical history, the wedding feast of Cana is closely associated with the baptism of the Lord and the adoration of the infant Jesus by the Wise Men. In this context, the sign Jesus performs at the wedding feast is celebrated as an epiphany or a manifestation of Jesus' divinity.

Yet awareness of Jesus' impending passion and death is ever present in John's Gospel. Even in this report of Jesus' first sign, the language used anticipates Jesus' passion. When Jesus says to his mother that his hour has not yet come, he protests against her wishes in language that John will use again when reporting Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples. When introducing the story of Jesus washing his disciples' feet, John writes that Jesus knew that his hour had come. In John's Gospel, Jesus is very much in command and aware of all that is to happen to him. Here, as elsewhere in John's Gospel, Mary is not mentioned by name, but is referred to instead as the mother of Jesus. Mary is influential in Jesus' first sign. She will also be present at his Crucifixion, a witness to the final manifestation of his divinity.

John's Gospel describes seven signs that indicate Jesus' identity to his disciples. John never speaks of these signs as miracles because their importance is not in the deed that Jesus performs but in what these deeds indicate about Jesus' identity. Here, as when John describes the other signs, the disciples are said to begin to believe, but no mention is made as to whether the other wedding guests are even aware of what has happened.

Marriage and wedding feasts are metaphors used in Scripture to describe God's salvation and the Kingdom of God. Here at the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, John's Gospel seeks to establish that Jesus is going to re-interpret and fulfill Yahweh's promise to Israel. Jesus establishes the New Covenant. A hint about what this New Covenant will be like is made evident in the deed that Jesus performs. Asked to do something to address the awkward situation that the absence of wine at a wedding feast would create, Jesus' miracle produces vast quantities of wine—six jars holding thirty gallons each are filled to overflowing with choice wine.

This lavish response to a simple human need is a vision for us of the abundance of God's kingdom. It challenges us to respond generously when confronted with human need today. We respond as best we can, fully confident that God can transform our efforts, bringing the Kingdom of God to fulfillment among us.
