*The women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb.
They found the stone rolled away from the tomb;
but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.*

A MESSAGE FROM FR JIM BERNING

HAPPY EASTER! Alleluia! Alleluia! The Lord is truly Risen! Today, we celebrate that the tomb is empty! Alleluia! Alleluia! We all shout for joy of the Risen Lord's Glory for all of us. The journey of Lent has come to an end but we all know that it is just the beginning of new life and glory. "Glory" comes from the Hebrew word Kabod which means the full weight of God's affection for us. It is ours and freely given through the suffering, death and Resurrection of Christ. We believe that consolation and hope are there for us and it is exciting news that we want to share with others. So much so, that we could just burst out at any time with an Alleluia! Alleluia!

THANK YOU! We are very grateful to everyone for their generosity and participation in returning to Mass - as we celebrate Easter 2022. God is so good! The Lord is truly Risen! Alleluia!

If you have yet to make a contribution, please prayerfully consider doing so. All monies reached over our goal will be returned to the parish for our designated building project - refinishing the pews, woodwork and cabinetry.

A Blessed Easter Season to all!

Fr. Jim C. Berning

FELICES PASCUAS DE RESURRECCION

“La Pascua no es simplemente una fiesta entre otras: es la Fiesta de las Fiestas, Solemnidad de las solemnidades. S. Atanasio la llama “el gran domingo”.

Después de la Cuaresma y el Triduo Pascual, estamos listos para celebrar la victoria de nuestro Señor Jesús sobre la muerte, listos para celebrar su Resurrección durante cincuenta días. Asistir a la Misa del domingo de Resurrección, listos para comulgar, debe ser nuestra prioridad.

¿CÓMO VIVIR LA PASCUA? Hay muchas formas prácticas de festejar el “Domingo de Pascua”, la más importante es preparar nuestro corazón para asistir a la Santa Misa en familia. Otras formas, más prácticas, pueden ser: - decorar nuestra casa con flores, letreros de Pascua, etc. - decirnos mutuamente “Felices Pascuas”, - hacer una comida especial, - escuchar música católica que sea alegre, - cantar canciones de gozo o que incluyan la palabra “Aleluya”, - reunirte con otras familias, - vestir la mejor ropa, - hacer alguna manualidad de pascua con tus hijos, - hacer huevos de Pascua, etc.

Asegúrate de tener una celebración muy, muy especial con tu familia... si celebramos el Nacimiento de Jesucristo en Navidad, que significa el principio de su visita a nuestras vidas, ¡con mayor razón debemos celebrar su gloriosa Resurrección que nos abre las puertas del cielo!

FIESTA DE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA. 24 de Abril.
Siempre el domingo siguiente a la Pascua se celebra esta gran Fiesta a la Misericordia Divina del Señor, es una devoción nueva y muy meritoria que nos fortalece la fe. El próximo Domingo empezaremos esta celebración a las 2:30 pm. Tendremos exposición de Santísimo, confesiones y cantaremos la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia. Para que no tenga dificultad en ir y regresar a sus casas, los caballeros de Colon de nuestra comunidad hispana nos ofrecerán venta de tacos para recoger fondos para el arreglo y remodelación del confesionario, todos estamos invitados.

RETIRO PARA QUINCEAÑERAS. 23 de Abril.
En esta ocasión tenemos mas de 16 celebraciones de Quinceañeras, es realmente un gozo poder presentar a todas estas niñas adolescentes al Señor con motivo de sus cumpleaños, el Retiro Espiritual para ellas es el próximo sábado 23 de abril, de las 9 – 1 en el salón Santa Clara, las esperamos junto con sus padres. Felicitaciones desde ya.

HAPPY EASTER! At the Easter Vigil, 10 adults and 3 children will be initiated into the Church. As we celebrate their initiation into the Church, I would like to share Doreen's story with you to help you appreciate your role in her faith journey. Doreen was baptized Catholic, but was never raised in the faith. After being distant from the Church for most of her adult life, she decided to do some research and study about the Catholic faith on her own, and eventually reached out to me. Doreen joined RCIA last fall and it has been a personal joy watching her faith grow the past year. She has been embraced by this community and has recently begun leading the rosary before the 10AM Mass.

A week or so ago, she was invited by some women of the parish to journey with them to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in La Crosse. (It just so happens her mother was visiting from out of state that weekend, and participated as well.) During their pilgrimage, Doreen had a significant faith experience with Saint Faustina and chose her as her Confirmation Saint. Doreen's mom was very impressed by the whole experience and was so excited by Doreen's love of the Catholic faith. During the Easter Vigil, Doreen's three children will be baptized and will receive their First Communion with their peers on May 7/8.

Thank you for modeling what it means to be Catholic to Doreen, and all the other RCIA candidates. Your example made a difference in Doreen's journey and I am sure it did with the others, as well. I hope your role in the faith journey of these new Catholics fills you with joy and love this Easter and beyond!

SHARE YOUR GIFT OF SINGING! Alleluia! How good to sing praise to our God; how pleasant to give fitting praise... Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving; with the lyre make music to our God - Psalm 147

St. Augustine said that when we sing, we pray twice. If you are interested in sharing your gift by singing in the choir at St. Francis of Assisi, please join us as we start up our choir for the 10AM Mass once a month during this Easter season.

"The dignity and lofty purpose of sacred music consist in the fact that its lovely melodies and splendor beautify and embellish the voices of the priest who offers Mass and of the Christian people who praise the Sovereign God. Its special power and excellence should lift up to God the minds of the faithful who are present. It should make the liturgical prayers of the Christian community more alive and fervent so that everyone can praise and beseech the Triune God more powerfully, more intently and more effectively.

The power of sacred music increases the honor given to God by the Church in union with Christ, its Head. Sacred music likewise helps to increase the fruits which the faithful, moved by the sacred harmonies, derive from the holy liturgy. These fruits, as daily experience and many ancient and modern literary sources show, manifest themselves in a life and conduct worthy of a Christian." - Pope Pius XII

May all our voices join together to proclaim the goodness of the Lord!

- Hope (lifranc@stfrancis-church.org)

FAMILY CONNECTION.

In the Easter Gospel we hear about how the disciples found the tomb empty three days after Jesus' death. We are also told that they do not yet understand the Scriptures or that Jesus had been raised from the dead. That understanding gradually unfolded for the disciples as they began to experience the risen Lord.

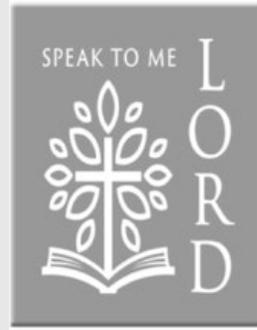

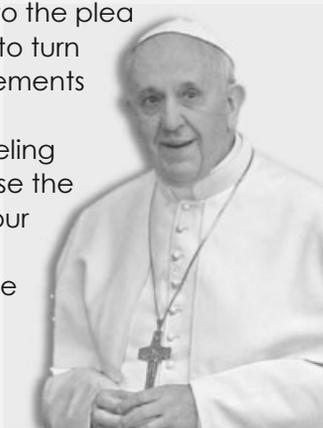

Similarly, our understanding of Jesus' Resurrection unfolds for us throughout our lives. In the weeks ahead, we will hear how the first disciples moved from confusion, doubt, and skepticism to faith. Their experience can teach us how we too might receive this gift of faith from God.

Gather your family members and ask them to share what they know about the events that happened in the days after Jesus' crucifixion. Invite your family to imagine that they are among Jesus' first disciples. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:1-9. Reflect together on the Gospel with questions such as these: If you had been among the first disciples who heard that the stone had been removed from Jesus' tomb and that Jesus' body was no longer there, what would you think? What did Mary of Magdala, Simon Peter, and the disciple whom Jesus loved think had happened? Recall that this experience is the first indication Jesus' disciples have that he is risen. Throughout the Easter season, we will learn more about how the disciples came to believe that Jesus had been raised from the dead.

Pray together using today's psalm, Psalm 118: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad."

INVOCATION OF PEACE. God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarreling into forgiveness. . . Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands. Renew our hearts and minds, so that. . . our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam! Amen.

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection.

Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first-century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body).

The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit.
