Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.
Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins
you retain are retained."
- John 20: 21-23

A MESSAGE FROM FR JIM BERNING

PENTECOST SUNDAY: The Gift of the Holy Spirit and the Birthday of the Church! Jesus says to those gathered in the upper room on the evening of that first day of the week, "Receive the Holy Spirit." The mighty acts of God were being proclaimed by all. On this Pentecost 2022, the Holy Eucharist changes and transforms us to be faithful to the One who still says to all of us, "Receive the Holy Spirit." We are able to see the many signs around us where the Holy Spirit is working in, and through, us and we are able to cry out with each other, "Jesus is Lord!" Let us all receive the Holy Spirit in our lives and be open to how the Holy Spirit calls us - as it did the Original Church in that first Pentecost. Thanks to everyone who wore RED today!

OUR CHURCH EXTERIOR. The Latin words, written in Gothic style under the cross on the west side of the church, translate "Thy Kingdom Come," from the "Our Father," and invite all to live in God's Kingdom now and forever. We pray that the Holy Spirit will guide us always into God's Kingdom Eternally. "Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful. And kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you shall renew the face of the earth." Let us pray, "Lord, by the light of the Holy Spirit you have taught the hearts of your faithful. In the same Spirit help us to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation... Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

CALVARY CEMETERY | SECOND COLLECTION. This weekend, we will have the annual collection for Calvary Cemetery here in Rochester. We want to thank Rose Bengal, who represents our parish on the Calvary Cemetery Board, along with myself. We also want to thank all who care for our cemetery and keep it so beautiful for us and our beloved deceased.

MISSION TRIP 2022. Next weekend, our participants going on the Mission Trip to Moorhead, MN, will be at the entrances with baskets for donations to the Mission Trip. With rising gas prices, especially this summer, we need everyone's prayers and support. On Saturday, June 18, at the 4:30PM Mass, we will have a blessing of the youth and adults who are participating in the Mission Trip. Thank you!

SUMMER OFFERINGS FOR OUR YOUTH. Please check in the bulletin and on the parish website for the offerings this summer for our youth: Totus Tuus, the Steubenville Conference and Camp Summit. We want to thank Becky Cleveland and Melissa Scaccio for helping coordinate these events and also for attending with our youth!

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL 2022. We are OFFICIALLY OVER GOAL! We are so grateful to the 134 parish families that have pledged and/or given $56,111 towards our 2022 Catholic Ministries Appeal goal of $49,661. NOW, all monies reached over our goal will be returned to the parish for our designated building project - refinishing the pews, woodwork and cabinetry.

Summer Blessings!

WELCOME

Welcome to the Church of St. Francis of Assisi. Our church has helped to bring Jesus Christ to the city of Rochester since 1937. We seek to foster the spiritual growth of our parishioners through the celebration of the Sacraments, catechesis, community life, and personal prayer. Like our patron saint, we strive to rebuild the Church and to console the heart of Jesus by serving our neighbors in need.

PENTECOSTÉS, algo más que la venida del espíritu...

La fiesta de Pentecostés es uno de los Domingos más importantes del año, después de la Pascua. En el Antiguo Testamento era la fiesta de la cosecha y, posteriormente, los israelitas, la unieron a la Alianza en el Monte Sinaí, cincuenta días después de la salida de Egipto.

Aunque durante mucho tiempo, debido a su importancia, esta fiesta fue llamada por el pueblo segunda Pascua, la liturgia actual de la Iglesia, si bien la mantiene como máxima solemnidad después de la festividad de Pascua, no pretende hacer un paralelo entre ambas, muy por el contrario, busca formar una unidad en donde se destaque Pentecostés como la conclusión de la cincuentena pascual. Vale decir como una fiesta de plenitud y no de inicio. Por lo tanto no podemos desvincularla de la Madre de todas las fiestas que es la Pascua.

En este sentido, Pentecostés, no es una fiesta autónoma y no puede quedar sólo como la fiesta en honor al Espíritu Santo. Aunque lamentablemente, hoy en día, son muchísimos los fieles que aún tienen esta visión parcial, lo que lleva a empobrecer su contenido. Hay que insistir que, la fiesta de Pentecostés, es el segundo domingo más importante del año litúrgico en donde los cristianos tenemos la oportunidad de vivir intensamente la relación existente entre la Resurrección de Cristo, su Ascensión y la venida del Espíritu Santo.

Es bueno tener presente, entonces, que todo el tiempo de Pascua es, también, tiempo del Espíritu Santo, Espíritu que es fruto de la Pascua, que estuvo en el nacimiento de la Iglesia y que, además, siempre estará presente entre nosotros, inspirando nuestra vida, renovando nuestro interior e impulsándonos a ser testigos en medio de la realidad que nos corresponde vivir.

FELIZ FIESTA DE PENTECOSTES Y BENDICIONES.

TO SING IS TO PRAY TWICE

St. Augustine

SHARE YOUR GIFT OF SINGING! St. Augustine said that when we sing, we pray twice. If you are interested in sharing your gift by singing at St. Francis, please join us as we start up our choir for the 10am Mass once a month during this Easter season.

Alleluia! How good to sing praise to our God; how pleasant to give fitting praise ... Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving; with the lyre make music to our God - Psalm 147

"The power of sacred music increases the honor given to God by the Church in union with Christ, its Head. Sacred music likewise helps to increase the fruits which the faithful, moved by the sacred harmonies, derive from the holy liturgy. These fruits, as daily experience and many ancient and modern literary sources show, manifest themselves in a life and conduct worthy of a Christian." - Pope Pius XII

May all our voices join together to proclaim the goodness of the Lord.

- Hope (liffranc@stfrancis-church.org)

FAMILY CONNECTION.

Pentecost is sometimes called the birthday of the Church. The Gospel for Pentecost reminds us that the Church begins with the command to forgive. Within the family, the domestic Church, we learn how to forgive and we learn to accept forgiveness. It is the gift of the Holy Spirit that enables us to do both. Today is a fitting time to share a family celebration of reconciliation.

As you gather together as a family, sit quietly for a few minutes, inviting all to reflect upon their need to forgive and to receive forgiveness. If there is a situation or issue within the family that needs attention, spend some time reflecting upon the concern and how your family might address it. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:19-23. Talk together about how Jesus gave us the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us in the work of forgiveness and to bring us peace. Pray together today's psalm, or the Prayer to the Holy Spirit, asking that the Holy Spirit help your family. Share with one another the sign of peace.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And you will renew the face of the earth.

Lord, by the light of the Holy Spirit
you have taught the hearts of your faithful.
In the same Spirit help us to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

<https://www.loyolapress.com/catholic-resources/liturgical-year/sunday-connection>

INVOCATION OF PEACE. God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarreling into forgiveness. . . Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands. Renew our hearts and minds, so that. . . our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam! Amen.

- Pope Francis

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, taken from the Gospel of John, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts to each other. It is enough to know that, after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

We previously heard today's Gospel on the second Sunday of Easter. At that time, we also heard the passage that follows, which describes Jesus' appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led to reflect on belief and unbelief.

In the context of the feast of Pentecost, this reading reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." As he breathes the Holy Spirit upon them, Jesus sends his disciples to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins.

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. This reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are washed clean from sin and become a new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God in forgiving sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people.
