3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

Les dijo Jesús: "Vengan a almorzar". Y ninguno de los discípulos se atrevía a preguntarle: '¿Quién eres?', porque ya sabían que era el Señor. Jesús se acercó, tomó el pan y se lo dio y también el pescado. - Jn 21, 12-13

A WORD FROM FR. SWAMY

After the meal, sitting by the fire he has made, Jesus invites Peter to atone for his triple denial of Jesus by the fire in the high priest's courtyard by declaring three times his complete love and unflinching devotion to him in the light of this Easter fire. Jesus the Good Shepherd passes on the role of servant/shepherd to Peter and his brothers. It is a moment of recreation and resurrection for Peter. When we act out of love, when we put aside our own fears and expectations for the sake of others, when we seek to imitate the selfless compassion of the Risen One, we will discover how strong and indestructible our own "nets" are; we will realize a "catch" of good things despite the hopelessness of the night, the fear of the unknown deep, the weight of the catch we struggle to haul to shore. In forgiving Peter as he does, in affecting reconciliation with Peter, Jesus transforms Peter's regrets and shame into a new understanding and conviction of the Gospel the fisherman has witnessed. Through forgiveness and in constantly seeking reconciliation with others, we enable such "resurrection" to take place in our own families, neighborhoods and communities.

I would like to thank all of you for your cards, words of sympathy, and support to me at the loss of my beloved mother. I am deeply touched and moved by your love, care, and concern during this difficult time in my life. I felt the warmth of your love during this grieving time. Please keep my family in your ardent prayers.

SAINT OF THE WEEK—EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Rose Venerini | May 7

The story of St. Rose of Venerini (February 9, 1656–May 7, 1728) is one of having faith in God and his calling in your life. Born in Italy in 1656, she was the daughter of a doctor. Following the death of her fiancé, she entered a convent in the hopes of becoming a nun, but soon returned home to care for her mother after the death of her father. In an effort to keep up her spiritual side, St. Rose invited women of the neighborhood to recite the rosary in her home, and together they formed a sodality.

Unsure of where her life was headed, she sought the spiritual guidance of a Jesuit priest. After much contemplation, she admitted to feeling called to be a teacher in the world, rather than a nun in a convent. Eventually, she moved ahead and opened a free school for girls in 1685. Eventually, she was invited to oversee the training of teachers and the administration of schools in the Diocese of Montefiascone, which then led to being called upon to organize schools in many parts of Italy, including Rome.

St. Rose died in Rome in 1728 amid a number of miracles that many credit to her. The group of women she first prayed with in her home eventually became known as the Venerini Sisters, found in the United States and working among Italian immigrants. St. Rose was beatified in 1952 and canonized in 2006. ©LPI

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP—RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Gifts in Disguise

Have you ever opened a gift and wondered what the giver was thinking?

I won't call out any of my family or friends here, but suffice to say, I think we have all been the confused recipient of a sweater that wasn't our size or a gift card to a store where we don't shop. But we smiled all the same and said how much it meant to us, because we know that when it comes to gifts, it's all about the gesture.

Suffering is a lot like that—the gift you never asked for, and don't really want to receive. Sometimes we look at suffering and, like the apostles who see Jesus as a stranger on the shore, we don't recognize it for what it can be. We don't appreciate the catalyst suffering can be for change, for growth, for grace.

What was the gift that you received in disguise? Was it a relationship that confounded and frustrated you? Was it a job that tested your spirit? An obstacle that stopped you dead in your tracks? A rejection that threatened to break your spirit?

If I go back and look at the worst gifts I've ever gotten, chances are that I didn't like them because I didn't know what to do with them—they were more fitted for someone else's interests, someone else's life. It's the same with suffering. We're tempted to cast suffering aside when it comes our way because it doesn't fit the person we are. Suffering is made to fit the person God knows we have the ability, with His grace, to become.

Hang onto that suffering. Unlike the misshapen sweater, it really will come in handy. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPI

Eucharistic Adoration: Thursdays from 8 am-7 pm

“Build up a gigantic faith in the Holy Eucharist.

Be filled with wonder before this ineffable reality. We have God with us; we can receive him everyday and, if we want to, we can speak intimately with him, just as we talk with a friend, as we talk with the brother, as we talk with the father, as we talk with love itself.” - St. Josemaria Escriva

Spiritual Mother's Day Cards

The Catholic Daughters of the America's once again are offering Spiritual Mother's Day cards before and after every Mass on April 30 and May 1, 7, and 8 for a donation of $5 which will benefit the local Woman's shelter, Rachel's Light. Stop in the Parish Center after Mass to get yours.

My Favorite Bible Verse

My favorite verse in the Bible is John 10:28. Some friends came to my house years ago and asked if there is anything that worries me about my faith. I remember growing up, one of the nuns told us in class that you never know that you're going to Heaven until you're there because you might do something bad before you die. I always felt bad and a little nervous about that. These friends, even though they weren't Catholic, showed me this Bible verse (Jesus speaking) “I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand.” Wow! That is awesome! Now I don't have to worry that even after having a good life, close to God, that maybe something bad will still happen in the future, and I won't go to Heaven and be with the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. This just freed me from worry and thinking maybe God won't forgive me. I have become even closer to God because of this Bible verse. Now I know that I'm going to Heaven; Jesus will never let me fall out of His hand! What peace it gives me! -JoAnn Eichten

Tell us your favorite Bible verse and what it means to you, and we will put it in the bulletin. Please email office@sacredheartowatonna.org

Wheelchair Sunday

Chris Lewis, President of the American Wheelchair Mission, and the Knights of Columbus will be here at all Masses on Wheelchair Sunday, May 14-15, to explain how you can answer the prayers of the poorest of the poor and help them gain mobility, hope, and freedom. Join them and Fr. Jim and Fr. Swamy for this very inspirational and moving presentation. Since 2003, the Knights of Columbus have helped to provide over 30,000 brand new wheelchairs all over the world to children, teens, and adults in need of mobility but who could not afford a wheelchair.

Our Lady of Guadalupe—Patroness of the Knights of Columbus

Our Lady told Juan Diego, “Am I not here, I, who am your Mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection? Am I not the source of your joy? Are you not in the hollow of my mantle, in the crossing of my arms? Do you need anything more? Let nothing else worry you.” The Knights of Columbus starts nine silver roses celebrating Our Lady of Guadalupe out all across Canada at the beginning of every year. The roses travel down through Canada and through the United States making stops at parishes along the way. Then the roses cross into Mexico and make their way to Guadalupe Mexico for the celebration of the Feast Day of Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12. The intentions and prayers gathered during the parish prayer services are presented at the Feast Day Mass at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Council 945 is hosting the Silver Rose prayer service on May 10 at 7 pm at Sacred Heart Parish. We will gather your prayer intentions to be sent off to Guadalupe Mexico for the Feast Day Mass of Our Lady of Guadalupe!
