A WORD FROM FR. SWAMY

In his Last Supper discourse, Jesus leaves his young Church his gift of peace and the promise of the Spirit. Christ's gift of peace is not the absence of trouble and hostility ("as the world gives peace"); Christ's peace is the Scriptural concept of shalom—meaning the pursuit of everything which makes for the highest good. The peace of Christ finds its core in the Gospel principles of humble servanthood and holy justice. The "Advocate" or "Paraclete," as found in some translations of John's Gospel, who intercedes and intervenes on behalf of good, is the exact opposite of the "adversary," Satan. The Advocate/Paraclete is that presence of God within us that opens our hearts and minds to the promptings of God's Word as proclaimed by Jesus. The peace the Risen Jesus leaves us is not passive acquiescence or the absence of hostility and conflict; the peace of Jesus is a mindset: a constant seeking out of God's love, justice, and mercy, an understanding of our "connectedness" to God and to one another as children of the same God. In sacrament, in Scripture, in community, in our living of the Gospel in our everyday lives, the Risen Christ is in our midst. In even our smallest act of selfless kindness—prompted by the Paraclete instructing our open hearts and spirit—we reveal the presence of the Easter Christ in our little piece of the world. In today's Gospel, Jesus promises that he and his Father will "make our dwelling" with us when we "keep Jesus' word" of love, forgiveness, reconciliation, and peace.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP—RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Management According to the Apostles

If you've ever worked in any kind of organization, for-profit or not-for-profit, I'm sure you have attended a conference or two. Whatever our expectations going in, I usually find these conferences expose me to communication and problem-solving styles that are different from my own, nudging me into a little unexpected self-discovery. And it's a great opportunity to meet new people and do something different.

Here's my idea for a leadership conference: The Management Style of the Apostles. Think about it, the only thing the Apostles had more abundantly than holiness was problems. Lots and lots of problems ... most of them of the human resources variety. It's no small feat, starting Christ's Church on earth. I wouldn't want to be project manager of that endeavor.

The Acts of the Apostles is, in some ways, a big book full of problems and ways to solve them. It's a blueprint for tackling interpersonal issues in the manner of a true steward, who encounters every problem starting from the same place: What would my Master want?

It's a question we should be asking ourselves every time we, too, encounter a problem—especially problems relating to other people. What is the truth in this situation, and how would God have me communicate it? How could I handle this in a way that is worthy of the name of my Master?

In Acts, we see a lot of characteristics of everyday stewardship. We see the Apostles mindfully acknowledge the lack of peace that is posed by problems like false teachings, this Gospel's problem du jour. They prayerfully confront the obstacles to salvation posed by these issues. Always, always, always, their main objective is to reveal the will of God, remaining committed to the truth while helping newcomers find avenues to salvation.

Maybe I'm just saying it because it's my idea—but it sounds like a conference we could all use.

SAINT OF THE WEEK—EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Rita of Cascia | May 22

St. Rita of Cascia (1381-1457) had the opportunity to live her life as a wife, mother, widow, and eventually, member of a religious community. Born in central Italy, St. Rita felt the calling to become a nun, but was pressured at a young age into marriage. During her 18-year marriage to a cruel man, she raised two sons. When her husband was killed in a brawl and her sons died, St. Rita decided to go back to her first love and attempted to join the Augustinian nuns in Cascia. Her status as a widow caused some complications to her entering, but she eventually succeeded in professing vows.

Throughout her lifetime, St. Rita of Cascia was known for her prayerfulness and charity. She also experienced stigmata on her forehead, meditated frequently on Christ's passion, and cared for the nuns of her religious community and those in the lay community who came to her for counsel. ©LPi

NEWS AND EVENTS IN OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

St. Vincent de Paul

May 22—Sixth Sunday of Easter: In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor. This past week, Vincent's Table handed out 100 take-home meals to those looking for a hot meal. Thank you to all those who volunteer their time and talent to prepare and serve such delicious meals! Membership: We meet the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month, at St. Joseph's Church. If you would like further information on growing your spiritual life and serving those in need in our community, please join us at a meeting or contact Deb McManimon on at dmcmanimon72@gmail.com. ### Eucharistic Adoration: Thursdays from 8 am-7 pm

"When you receive him, tell him: Lord, I hope in you, I adore you, I love you, increase my faith. Be the support of my weakness: You, who have remained defenseless in the Eucharist so as to be the remedy for the weakness of your creatures."

-St. Josemaria Escriva

Become A Seven Sister: One Holy Hour, One Priest, Each Week, One Heart of Prayer

Sacred Heart Seven Sisters invites all ladies to join them in praying for Fr. Swamy by committing to pray one hour each week on a specific day for him. We are especially looking for additional prayer warriors on Saturday. Without our wonderful priests to celebrate Holy Mass, distribute the Eucharist, hear Confessions, Anoint the Sick and dying, and a multitude of other religious works parish priests are called to do as ordained men of God, we would be lost souls. If you are able to commit to praying one Holy Hour per week on any day, please contact Margaret Supalla at margaretsupalla@gmail.com. Men are welcome to serve as substitute prayer warriors. You can pray your Holy Hour at in front of the Blessed Sacrament in any parish. The greatest gift we can give Fr. Swamy is our prayer! No meetings, no dues—you pick the place, time, and day! Your reward will be eternal! You can read about this world-wide apostolate at www.sevensistersapostolate.org/. We started with 7 groups of Seven Sisters in 2011 in the Archdiocese of St. Paul and now have over 2,600 groups worldwide.

Newman Ministry

Did you know that 80% of young people dropout of going to Mass when they start going to college? The St. Serra Club is working with the Newman Ministry at all colleges and universities to sign up students and their email addresses so that they can be invited to an event for all new attendees. They can meet other Catholic students and make some good friends there. They will find out where they can go to Masses and hopefully go with other students on weekends. College freshmen are most likely to make their friends during their first few weeks on campus. During their first few weeks, most students will join the organizations they belong to for their college years. There will be St. Serra members in the Parish Center after the Baccalaureate Mass to help new graduates sign up with the Newman Center at their college. There will also be cookies available while they sign up.
