Welcome! If you're new to our parish, call the office and register with us. We're happy you're here!
¡Bienvenido! Si es nuevo en nuestra parroquia, llame a la oficina. ¡Estamos felices de que estén aquí!

A WORD FROM FR. SWAMY

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Trinity which is a mystery difficult to comprehend. In our daily life, we begin every one of our prayers, activities, programs, or works with the sign of the cross and call upon God, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Even though we remember the Trinity several times a day, it is difficult to comprehend the full meaning because the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit we invoke constitute a great Mystery. The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity consists of this: the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God, and yet there are not three Gods, but only one God with three attributes. We have Father who is the creator, Son the redeemer, and Holy Spirit the sanctifier and the counselor. This is the Mystery of the Trinity of Persons in the one God. If one were to seek for comparison in order to try to grasp a little of this mystery, the only one that is completely adequate is that which Jesus himself gave us, when he said that just as the living Father has sent him, he is sending out his disciples. They have to go and baptize all in the name of the Trinity. He also tells us that he and the father are one, and he will send the Spirit on the Apostles who will counsel and guide them in the mission.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP—RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Up to the Job

Have you ever had a job for which you didn't feel qualified? I think we all have, whether it was a paying gig or not. A lot of us parents often feel in awe of the magnitude of that role and lose sleep worrying that we made the wrong decision in one situation or a bad call in another. Some of us feel intimidated by what our communities need from us, on the parish level or in our personal relationships. Or maybe we are simply dreading a task that seems too big, too overwhelming—that necessary basement cleanout, or the weekly organization of family schedules.

When we don't feel qualified, we don't want to do the work. We get stuck in our own fear. That's the birthplace of procrastination, self-doubt and bitterness. When we look inward at our own abilities, we can only see all the traits that aren't there. The intelligence, the dexterity, the ambition—whatever it is we lack, we get stuck on it.

I've got good news and bad news. I'll start with the bad news: none of us are qualified for the call of discipleship. We simply aren't. We don't have the love or grace or strength to get the job done.

Now I'll give you the good news: God knows this, and He doesn't care. Stewardship does not insist that we possess every good quality—no, as a way of life, stewardship recognizes that we lack so many qualities. But it shows us where to find the love and grace and strength we need. Stewardship does not demand that we know every answer; it merely reminds us who to ask when we don't. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

A NEWLY APPOINTED BISHOP

Bishop Quinn Retires and a New Bishop Comes to Our Diocese

Pope Francis has accepted the resignation of Bishop Quinn. We send our blessings to Bishop Quinn for a wonderful retirement. Pope Francis has appointed Bishop Robert Barron to the Diocese of Winona-Rochester. He is coming to us from Los Angeles, but his hometown is Chicago. We pray for Bishop Barron and the Diocese during this transition and are excited to welcome him to Minnesota.

Revive parishes and online education

St. Joachim, Plainview

I recently attended a conference with Revive Parishes, and we learned how to help people come alive in their faith again. We believe in God, but sometimes, we tend to put Him aside and live our lives, instead of having Christ at the center and being open to His will. Across the diocese, we encourage people to be active in the Church and invite them to participate in the life of the parish. We all want the Church to be there for our kids and grandkids, and so each of us plays a part in that, and the money raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps that effort. Grab an envelop from the Church Narthex or Office or donate online at www.catholicsmn.org/catholic-ministries-appeal and select “Owatonna-Sacred Heart” from the drop down to make a donation.

CDA Father’s Day Spiritual Cards and Prayers

Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court Owatonna 1180 is offering Father's Day Spiritual Bouquet cards for sale in the Parish Center after Masses. A donation of $5/card is requested. Proceeds support the charitable work at The Hospitality House, Owatonna’s homeless men’s shelter.

Peter’s Pence Collection

There will be a 2nd Collection the weekend of June 25-26 for Peter’s Pence. This collection enables the Holy Father to respond with emergency financial assistance to requests to aid the neediest throughout the world—those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and natural disasters. It likewise provides the faithful with a tangible opportunity to not only empower the weak, defenseless, and voiceless but also sustain those who suffer. You can find donation envelopes for this collection in your bundles. Thank you for your generosity.

New Tabernacle

Parishioners are encouraged to make a donation to this special fund so we can purchase a larger, more stunning-looking tabernacle, with a style more in keeping with the Romanesque-style of our church’s interior. It will provide a more splendid receptacle to house the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Our goal is to raise $30,000. If the amount in the fund were to exceed that, we will use the excess to purchase other altar items (new candle holders, for example). Make checks payable to Sacred Heart with the word “Tabernacle” on the memo line. If questions, contact Joe Stiles 507-456-3302. Thanks! (Photo printed with permission: HJ Boerboom.)

SAINT OF THE WEEK—EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

Saint Germaine Cousin | June 15

Saint Germaine was born in Pibrac, France in 1579 to poor parents. Her story is a heart wrenching one. She was born with a deformed right arm and hand, and her mother died when she was an infant. Her father remarried, but her stepmother brutally abused and neglected her.

As a child Germaine suffered from scrofula, a disfiguring form of tuberculosis which causes swelling and lesions on the side of the neck. Already sick, abused, and starving, she was forced to sleep in barn with sheep she tended.

Despite everything, Germaine lived each day tending her flock with joy and in prayer. Mary and Jesus became her friends. She shared what little she had and taught the children of the village about God’s love. A rosary made of string knots was her constant companion. She attended Mass every day, leaving her sheep in care of guardian angels. Her flock was never attacked by wolves and never wandered. Some claimed to see the waters of the flooded river part so she could get to Mass.

She is often portrayed with an apron full of flowers because one winter day her stepmother accused her of stealing bread from the house and hiding it her apron. But when she was seized and forced to open the apron an abundance of spring flowers tumbled forth. It was this incident that compelled the villagers and even her parents to recognize her holiness.

Germaine died at 22, her poor body was found by her father, in the barn where she slept. She was buried in the village church. More than forty years later, her body was accidentally exhumed and found to be incorrupt. She was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867 and inscribed into the canon of virgins. ©LPI

St. Joachim, Plainview

Recientemente asistí a una conferencia con Revive Parishes y aprendimos cómo ayudar a las personas a volver a vivir en su fe. Creemos en Dios, pero a veces tendemos a dejar a un lado y vivir nuestras vidas, en lugar de tener a Cristo en el centro y estar abiertos a Su voluntad. En toda la diócesis, animamos a las personas a ser activas en la Iglesia y las invitamos a participar en la vida de la parroquia. Todos queremos que la Iglesia esté ahí para nuestros hijos y nietos, por lo que cada uno de nosotros participa en eso, y el dinero recaudado a través de la Campaña de Ministerios Católicos ayuda en ese esfuerzo. Contribuya generosamente a la Apelación de los Ministerios Católicos.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL

Last week St. Mary's graduating 8th graders went to Camp Lebanon.

Cool, windy, and gray weather did not damper the fun on Day 1 of Camp Lebanon. After lunch, the students had free time, and the boys got to play an hour of laser tag. During that time, 11 courageous girls braved the cold water and did a little swimming, after they all passed the deep water test. Other activities were games in the indoor game room, wiffle ball on their awesome field, fishing, metal detecting, pickleball, 9-square, and more! Before dinner, Father Jeremy This came and celebrated Mass with us. He spoke to the students about what a gift their Catholic school education is, even if they don't realize it now. He talked about the fact that seeds have been and will continue to be planted and that we are all children of God. After dinner, the girls had their chance to play laser tag while the boys enjoyed free time. Our Camp Lebanon liaison took a few students out fishing on the pontoon while the others enjoyed their time around camp. We ended our night with a nice warm campfire and a bedtime snack of nacho bar.

Day 2 brought lots of sunshine and warm weather. We had two retreat sessions today. This morning, Father This joined us again for Reconciliation. Prior to Reconciliation, Father's message to the students was that it doesn't matter what they do, they just need to always be the best version of themselves while doing it. We ended our night with a silent (Yes, silent! And they did it!) hike out to a campfire at Bass Point where we enjoyed a night time snack of s'mores. During the silence, the students were supposed to use their senses to be alert to God's creations. Our liaison, Esteban, used a rope to demonstrate that we are here for an eternity, but our time on earth is only a small portion of that eternity, so we need to live life to the fullest and choose the right paths. We had a lot of free time to spend quality time with each other today. During that time, almost every student swam in the very cold water. The camp workers got the diving platform in, just in time for them to enjoy it. A lot of students had the chance to get out in boats, whether it was on a pontoon, canoe, kayak, or paddle boat. Another big highlight of the day was zip-lining—every student got the chance to zip line twice, and most chaperones joined in the fun too. The wiffle ball field has been a huge highlight as well. We even had a competitive game between chaperones and students! Even though the chaperones gave them a run, the students won in the end. There was also an intense volleyball match-up!

Our final day at Camp Lebanon the students enjoyed their final hours of free time together. Most students were out on the pontoons with our wonderful parent chaperones throughout the morning either fishing or just cruising on the beautiful lake. A few of the students hiked up to the tree house area where campers are allowed to sign their names and leave a short message. After lunch, we took some final group pictures, then we had our final farewell retreat session. During this time, we had a prayer service where each student shared a petition for a classmate that had been written earlier this week. Then students sat and shared some of their favorite memories of their time together at SMS and at Camp Lebanon. We concluded by looking through some of the pictures of our week, and then it was time to load up and head home.
