A WORD FROM FR. SWAMY

Today's Gospel is Luke's account of Jesus' feeding of the five thousand with five loaves of bread and two pieces of fish is the only one of Jesus' miracles recounted in all four Gospels. As he does throughout Luke's Gospel, Jesus performs a miracle out of his deep sense of compassion for the suffering and needy—but first, Jesus asks the Twelve to gather up whatever they can from the community; with these few, shared gifts Jesus creates a community of thanksgiving, a community of Eucharist. A sacrament, St. Augustine said, is the visible sign of God's invisible grace. The gifts we give to one another are sacramental when they manifest the love and mercy of God; they are Eucharistic when they transform us into a community bound by that love.

In our sharing of the body of Christ, we are called to become the body of Christ for one another: to make the limitless, complete love of Christ reality for all. Christ calls us to be both guests and waiters at his table. We come here with our struggles and doubts and pains and sorrows to be fed and nourished; at the same time, the Eucharist should impel us to become Eucharist for others—to make the limitless, complete love of Christ real for all in our acts of charity and kindness.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP—RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Sacred Vessels

Have you ever paid attention to the purification of the sacred vessels after Holy Communion? If you haven't, I highly recommend doing so this Sunday. See the care with which the priest handles the chalice and the paten, pouring water into them to cleanse any loose particles of the Body and Blood of Christ. Observe the loving reverence he uses in wiping them dry with a special purificator. It's a ritual unto itself, and a powerful moment for reflection.

These vessels begin as earthly objects. They are made by human hands. There is nothing special about them—not until they go about the work for which they have been created. Until they contain the Body and Blood of Christ, they are only ordinary objects. But after they have carried within them the Eucharist, they are never the same. They will always be special and deserving of special care.

That's why partaking of the Eucharist is, for us, an evangelical undertaking. It is both a transformation and a declaration. When we accept this tremendous gift, we are proclaiming what we believe, and we are accepting the grace to follow through on that commitment.

When we are receiving the Eucharist, it is not possible for us to be passive. We become the vessel. We carry Christ into the world with us.

But do we act like it? Do we treat ourselves—our bodies, our souls—with the same respect as the priest cleansing the chalice? Do we treat one another with the reverence we would reserve for a sacred object? When we look at another person with anger or irritation or envy, do we acknowledge the change that we have willingly undergone by receiving Christ's Body and Blood into ourselves? -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS @LPi

Today as we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ, we hear Jesus ask his disciples, “Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?” He shows them how by the multiplication of the five loaves and two fishes. As you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that the multiplication of the loaves and fishes will happen again and the hungry will be fed. 96 meals were served to those driving up at Vincent’s Table on Tuesday evening. We meet the 1st and 3rd Monday each month at 6:30 pm at St. Joseph’s. For more info, come to a meeting or contact dmcmanimon72@gmail.com or 507-676-5508.

CMA Mini Story: Dale Gathje—Institute of Lay Formation—St. Charles Borromeo, St. Charles

I was searching for a place to grow in my faith where people were on the same path as I was. God had moved me in lots of different ways, and I just kept looking for a program like the Institute of Lay Formation. For me, the lay formation program has become a place where I can grow with people who are at the same point on a journey. Being open to the ministries of the diocese, we can find a little nugget of gold. For me, the Institute of Lay Formation, which is made possible through the support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal, is one of those nuggets. To make a donation, grab an envelop from the Church Narthex or Office, or you can make a donation online at <https://catholicismn.org/catholic-ministries-appeal> and select “Owatonna-Sacred Heart” from the drop down.

SAINT OF THE WEEK—EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Thomas More | June 22

Sir Thomas More was a humanist and statesman in Tudor England. He is still widely known today as the author of Utopia. More was a prolific writer and theologian. A true martyr of the Church, he was beatified by Pope Leo XIII in 1886, and canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 19, 1935.

More was born in London in 1478, the son of Sir John More, a lawyer and judge. He attended Oxford where he studied Latin and Greek, as well as formal logic. He left Oxford in 1494 to train as a lawyer in London. After attaining the Bar, he spent time discerning a call to the priesthood. Though attracted to the Franciscan order More remained a lay Christian, continuing to fast, pray, and wear a hair shirt. He was married twice, the loving father of three daughters, a stepdaughter by his second marriage, and one son. More wrote many letters to his children when he was away on business and his daughters were known for their academic abilities, as they received the same education as his son, an anomaly at the time.

More rose to the Privy Council in 1514. He became the good friend and advisor to Henry VIII, and in 1521 he was knighted. In 1529, he was made Lord Chancellor of England. However, this appointment was the beginning of the end for the saint. He could not support the break with the Church in Rome when Henry failed to receive from the Pope the annulment of his first marriage to Katherine of Aragon to wed Anne Boleyn. More resigned as Lord Chancellor and continued to refuse to accept Henry as the head of the Church in England. Eventually he was imprisoned, tried, and sentenced to a traitor’s death, to be hanged, drawn, and quartered. Henry commuted the sentence of his former friend to the more humane beheading. More was executed at Tower Hill, on July 6, 1535, before his death he famously proclaimed that he was “the king’s good servant, but God’s first.” ©LPi

Mini Cuento: Dale Gathje—Institute of Lay Formation—St. Charles Borromeo, St. Charles
Estaba buscando un lugar para crecer en mi fe donde las personas estuvieran en el mismo camino que yo. Dios me había movido de muchas maneras diferentes y yo seguía buscando un programa como el Instituto de Formación Laical. Para mí, el programa de formación laical se ha convertido en un lugar donde puedo crecer con personas que están en el mismo punto de un camino. Al estar abiertos a los ministerios de la diócesis, podemos encontrar una pequeña semilla de oro. Para mí, el Instituto de Formación Laical, que es posible gracias al apoyo de la Campaña de Ministerios Católicos, es una de esas semillas. Contribuya generosamente a la Apelación de los Ministerios Católicos.

La Apelación de los Ministerios Católicos de 2022 ¡Gracias por su generosidad! Nuestra meta parroquial es $43,920. Hemos recibido $31,165 de feligreses. Hasta la fecha, el 19% de nuestros feligreses han contribuido. Si aún no ha contribuido, devuelva su tarjeta de compromiso de la CMA hoy o haga una donación en línea en www.catholicismn.org. Recordatorio: el 100% de todos los fondos recaudados sobre nuestra meta se devuelven a nuestra parroquia.

Weekly Eucharistic Adoration is on Thursdays from 8 am to 7 pm. Please call Diane Wheelock at 507-363-2814 to sign-up for a time slot that works for you.

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

The practice of Eucharistic Adoration is a centuries old ritual and falls within a broader category of devotions and rituals that are associated with the Sacrament of the Eucharist. In a particular way, Eucharistic Adoration is an extension of the worship and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament that occurs in every Mass.

In a long-standing practice, a period of Eucharistic Adoration often ends with "benediction," the blessing of the faith with the Blessed Sacrament.

Several parishes throughout the United States have introduced the practice of perpetual Eucharistic Adoration, while other communities have the custom of shorter periods of Eucharistic Adoration. Care should always be taken that these periods of adoration respect the instructions outlined in Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharist Outside of Mass, the liturgical book that gives the instructions for the proper celebration of Eucharistic Adoration.

Although adoration of the Blessed Sacrament can never take the place of Eucharistic Communion, many Catholics find great comfort and consolation in their prayers before the Eucharist enshrined in the tabernacle or when it is exposed in the monstrance (both are equally valid, as the Christ is not more present in one than in the other). But when we consider our eucharistic devotions, it is always important to remember the fundamental connection these acts of devotion have the celebration of the Eucharist in the Mass and reception of Christ in Communion. ©LPI
