STS. PETER & PAUL, APOSTLES

Welcome! If you're new to our parish, call the office and register with us. We're happy you're here!
¡Bienvenido! Si es nuevo en nuestra parroquia, llame a la oficina. ¡Estamos felices de que estén aquí!

A WORD FROM FR. SWAMY

The first reading today dramatizes a transition that is not fearful but even gracious. With complete trust, Elijah anoints Elisha as his successor, just as the Lord had asked. Elisha does not push aside the older prophet, but shows him reverence, “Then he set out and followed Elijah, and became his servant.” The prophets' mutual respect is echoed in Galatians: “Through love become slaves to one another.” Paul teaches today that the Christian's ability to serve is based on freedom. Discipleship requires a wholehearted commitment to the Lord and a generous spirit of service toward his people. The demands are severe. Jesus in today's gospel says, “No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

The people of Jesus' time understood this agrarian imagery. The farmer has to keep his eyes fixed straight ahead; otherwise the neatly organized field required for planting would be turned into a chaotic nightmare at harvesting time. If we keep our eye on the present, then the fields of our lives will have the grace and order of newly plowed spring fields. Our lives will hold great promise for a rich harvest.

Caroline Nelson has agreed to coordinate music on a part-time basis for the weekend liturgies during summertime. We welcome her and are grateful to have her here to help make Music Ministry go smoothly until we hire someone to this position. We also thank all those who stepped up to help coordinate Music the last few months, especially Amy Smith.

SACRED HEART JOB POSTING—WE ARE HIRING!

Administrative Assistant

Sacred Heart Church, Owatonna, MN seeks a full-time Administrative Assistant responsible for general administrative tasks, publications, finance related tasks, volunteer scheduling, and calendar management. Requires the capabilities of an efficient, self-motivated professional who is attentive to detail, organized, and able to maintain a high level of confidentiality. Please email cover letter, resume, and 3 professional references to: Sandy Strand, Parish Administrator at sandys@sacredheartowatonna.org. Position description is available on request.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP—RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Guided by the spirit

There will always be something behind us and before us. Time moves on and the world continues to rotate. Will we miss that which exists right before our eyes because they are shut while we are consumed by the past or worried about the future?

When we go about whatever work God has set for us this day, large or small, we cannot get it done if we are looking behind us. Being mindful means to live for the present. It sounds like the simplest thing in the world, but we forget it (I forget it at least once every day). We must be guided by the Spirit.

What I'm talking about here is a radical abandonment of ourselves to God—over, and over, and over again. We cannot put our hand to the plough, while our eyes are looking backward at what is left behind. We cannot turn back if we are to move forward.

When we take up the yoke of stewardship, we will never be able to bear it if we rely on our own strength. When we put our hands to the plough, we will never get the job done if we look backwards at our own track record for inspiration. There is no inspiration there. Let the dead bury their dead. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

CMA Mini Story: Wendy Fechner—Marriage, Life & Family—Crucifixion, La Crescent

I thought we needed more events at church for couples to grow in their faith and strengthen their marriages, so one evening, couples from the parish gathered for a night of good food and great conversation. Peter Martin and his wife were guest speakers, and they talked about their story and about what he does in his position as Director of Marriage, Life & Family for the diocese. When the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) affects someone personally, that's something that causes them to want to support it. If it's not you specifically, it might be a friend that you know who might benefit from the CMA, and donating would be a good way to show support for the Church and other people of faith. To donate, grab an envelop from the Church Narthex or Office or donate online at <https://catholicismn.org/catholic-ministries-appeal> and select “Owatonna-Sacred Heart” from the drop down.

Catholic Trivia—Just for Fun

Question: Who was the first Catholic priest to serve in the United States House of Representatives?

Answer: Fr. Gabriel Richard

OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

St. Vincent de Paul

June 26—Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: In today's Gospel, we see how Jesus, on his way to Jerusalem, sent a "messenger on ahead of Him." To be the messengers of God, we must know well what it is God wants to say and do through us, as he sends us out to bring his love to others. As you make a donation to the St. Vincent de Paul Society, you are the "messenger of God" in bringing hope to those in need. On Tuesday evening, Vincent's Table served ninety-six meals. Membership: We meet the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month at 6:30 p.m., at St. Joseph's Church. For more information on growing your spiritual life and serving those in need in our community, please join us at a meeting or contact Deb on at dmcmanimon72@gmail.com. Our phone is 507-676-5508.

SAINT OF THE WEEK—EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Oliver Plunkett | July 1

Saint Oliver Plunkett was the last Roman Catholic Martyr to die in England. He was canonized in 1975, the first new Irish saint in almost 700 years.

Oliver was born in Loughcrew, Oldcastle, County Meath in November 1625, the son of the Baron of Loughcrew. As a young man, he wanted to become a priest, but it was illegal to travel to the continent to enter seminary. Even so, he undertook the dangerous journey with four other young men and a Papal Envoy. They were pursued by English privateers, storms at sea, and robbers on land. However, Oliver entered Rome in 1647, and was admitted to the Irish College. He was an excellent student and was ordained on January 1, 1654. Oliver remained in Rome, studied law and served as chaplain at Spienza University, ministered at Santo Spirito hospital, and cared for the poor and ill. By 1657 he was a professor of Theology and later of Apologetics or Controversies at Propaganda College.

The 1650s were a difficult time in for Catholics in Ireland, the majority of population, as Cromwell passed many penal laws against them, and the practice of Catholicism was banned. During this time Oliver was appointed by Irish bishops to be their agent in Rome. Following the Restoration of Monarchy, Pope Clement IX appointed Oliver Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland 1669. Oliver returned to a country where the Catholic Church was in disarray and divided. He had to travel largely incognito and perform his duties in makeshift locations. He is credited with unifying the Church and in traveling across the eleven dioceses under his purview, confirming thousands, and ordaining several priests.

In 1673 persecution of Catholics was again on the rise and bishops were banned. Oliver went into hiding, but in 1679 he was arrested and charged with treason. He was hanged, drawn, and quartered at Tyburn in July 1681. Before his death he publicly forgave those responsible. ©LPi

NOTICIAS DE LA COMUNIDAD EN ESPAÑOL

La Apelación de los Ministerios Católicos de 2022 ¡Gracias por su generosidad! Nuestra meta parroquial es $43,920. Hemos recibido $31,365 de feligreses. Hasta la fecha, el 19% de nuestros feligreses han contribuido. Si aún no ha contribuido, devuelva su tarjeta de compromiso de la CMA hoy o haga una donación en línea en www.catholicismn.org. Recordatorio: el 100% de todos los fondos recaudados sobre nuestra meta se devuelven a nuestra parroquia.

Mini Cuento: Wendy Fechner—Marriage, Life & Family—Crucifixion, La Crescent

Pensé que necesitábamos más eventos en la iglesia para que las parejas crecieran en su fe y fortalecieran sus matrimonios, así que una noche, las parejas de la parroquia se reunieron para disfrutar de una buena comida y una gran conversación. Peter Martin y su esposa fueron oradores invitados y hablaron sobre su historia y sobre lo que él hace en su puesto como Director de Matrimonio, Vida y Familia de la diócesis. Cuando la Campaña de Ministerios Católicos (CMA) encuentra a alguien personalmente, es algo que hace que quieran apoyarla. Si no es usted específicamente, podría ser un amigo que usted conoce que podría beneficiarse de la CMA, y la donación sería una buena manera de mostrar su apoyo a la Iglesia y otras personas de fe. Contribuya generosamente a la Apelación de los Ministerios Católicos.
