FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Fr. Russ

Who do we need to forgive?

On this 4th Sunday of Lent, we hear that familiar story about the Prodigal Son. How often when I have read or heard this parable and my focus has been on the prodigal son as, if we are brutally honest perhaps, we can see ourselves as prodigal from time to time. However, I would like to suggest that we are all, as well, much like the older brother in the parable who becomes angry and resentful toward his prodigal brother and forgiving father.

God has created us for relationship, as our God – Father, Son, and Spirit, are a relationship. But unlike the Trinity, our love for one another often falls short and we can find ourselves in the unforgiving and resentful brothers shoes, or sandals. Reminds me of the words of a little child named Larry in a book entitled, Children's Letters to God who says: "Maybe Cain and Abel would not kill each other so much if they had their own rooms. It works for me and my brother." Who among us has not felt compelled to think or say the same when you were children growing up with older brothers and sisters. As life moves on for us we can find that being an adult proves to be more of the same. One thing is for certain – there will be people throughout our lives that we will be called upon to forgive. Lent calls us to recognize/experience God's mercy toward each and everyone of us. Therefore, Lent calls us to reciprocate this love of Jesus' faithfulness toward humanity.

Each time we pray the Lord's Prayer, we say these words – "...forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us..." To forgive someone who has hurt you takes courage and courage is a gift of the Holy Spirit. So we CANNOT extend forgiveness alone! We need the Holy Spirit to help us here as the Spirit does for us what we CANNOT do for ourselves. To forgive someone who has hurt you is a process so forgiveness does not happen overnight – forgiveness takes time. If you find yourself at odds with someone in your life, begin by PRAYING for the person's well-being. Furthermore, "fake it until you make it" as is said in certain spiritual programs.

We know the story – Jesus resolutely sets his face towards Jerusalem during the Lenten Season and decides to remain faithful to the Father's will. Because of this faithfulness, Jesus has bestowed divine mercy upon us, the world. May we experience this divine mercy and share this divine mercy with our brothers and sisters. May we summon the power of the Holy Spirit given us in Baptism in order to be Christ's Body here and now.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Have you ever given thought to the fact that you are an "ambassador for Christ?" An ambassador is an accredited diplomat and official representative. We are asked to be ambassadors for Christ and his message of reconciliation. Within each one of us is a prodigal son who realizes the need to return home, an elder brother who struggles with entitlement and self-pity, and a forgiving father who simply wants to celebrate love. Realizing that all of these things are operative in our hearts, we can bring credibility to God's ministry of reconciliation. Genuine witnesses are those who not only recognize their need for wholeness, mercy, and forgiveness but also their tendency to be over self-focused and stubborn. Then, discovering freedom from all that binds them, they can then extend the love they have received to others. These ambassadors embody unity, mercy, and reconciliation and can look on others with deep compassion because they know what it is to walk in their shoes. Can God count on you to deliver this message?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Rupert of Salzburg is also known as the "Apostle of Bavaria and Austria." Although mostly legend, it is believed that he was born sometime around 660 in Gaul, which is now part of France. It is possible that he is a descendant of the Merovingian royal line. Not much is known about the saint's early life.

We do know that Rupert was first appointed as Bishop of Worms in present-day Germany and despite many good works there, the pagan population eventually beat him and forced him from the city. Rupert retired to Rome for a time until Duke Theodo of Bavaria asked him to come to help establish the Church more firmly in Bavaria. Rupert agreed and brought with him a group of priests. Rupert traveled the region, effecting conversions, miracles, healing.

Eventually Rupert chose to settle at Juvavum an old Roman city mostly in ruins. He renamed the city Salzburg or "Salt Castle," and established there a great cathedral and monastery under the Rule of St. Benedict. His niece became abbess of the Benedictine convent he founded nearby. Rupert was the first bishop of Salzburg, serving also as abbot of the monastery.

St. Rupert is usually portrayed carrying a vessel of salt, as he helped establish the salt mining industry for which he named the city. It is said that Rupert died on Easter Sunday though sources disagree on the year, which could have been around 710 or possibly as late as 718.
