APRIL 16, 2023 | DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY | CHURCH OF ST. JOSEPH

2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

Today is the Second Sunday of Easter, also called the Divine Mercy Sunday. It marks the end of the Easter Octave. The Divine Mercy Sunday was instituted by Pope St. John Paul II the Great on May 5, 2000. It was celebrated for the first time in 2001 on the Second Sunday of Easter.

According to its Catholic definition, Mercy is "the disposition to be kind and forgiving." The world today is guilty of sin, and Jesus invites us to touch His wounds as Thomas did in order to receive His healing power and to cleanse our lack of belief. Also, Jesus invites us to enter into the Mystery of His wounds, which is the Mystery of His Merciful Love. The wounds of Jesus are essential for believing that God is Love, Merciful, and Faithful.

Let us entrust ourselves into the Divine Mercy by participating in this afternoon's prayer and devotion at 1:30pm here in the parish. There will be confessions, the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Gospel Reading on the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32), Divine Mercy talk, meditation songs, private prayers, Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and Benediction.

Happy Divine Mercy Sunday to all of you.

Fr. Bruno

THE DIVINE MERCY IMAGE

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in 1931, our Lord appeared to her in a vision. She saw Jesus clothed in a white garment with His right hand raised in blessing. His left hand was touching His garment in the area of the Heart, from where two large rays came forth, one red and the other pale. She gazed intently at the Lord in silence, her soul filled with awe, but also with great joy. Jesus said to her:

Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over [its] enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory (Diary, 47, 48). I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You (327). I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel, and [then] throughout the world (47).

At the request of her spiritual director, St. Faustina asked the Lord about the meaning of the rays in the image. She heard these words in reply:

The two rays denote Blood and Water. The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the Cross. Happy is the one who will dwell in their shelter, for the just hand of God shall not lay hold of him (299). By means of this image I shall grant many graces to souls. It is to be a reminder of the demands of My mercy, because even the strongest faith is of no avail without works (742).

These words indicate that the Image represents the graces of Divine Mercy poured out upon the world, especially through Baptism and the Eucharist.

Many different versions of this image have been painted, but our Lord made it clear that the painting itself is not what is important. When St. Faustina first saw the original image that was being painted under her direction, she wept in disappointment and complained to Jesus: "Who will paint You as beautiful as You are?" (313).

In answer, she heard these words: "Not in the beauty of the color, nor of the brush lies the greatness of this image, but in My grace" (313).

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOL

1138 Seminole Avenue | West St. Paul, Minnesota 55118
Phone: 651-457-8550 | stjosephwsp.org

I regret to inform you that due to health and personal matters, Ginger Vance has decided she will not be returning as principal of St. Joseph's Catholic School for the 2023-24 school year. Ginger will continue in her service through June 30, 2023, and has graciously offered to assist beyond this date as available, in order to ensure a smooth transition and start of the new school year.

I want to offer my gratitude to Ginger for her service this year. In her short tenure, Ginger has achieved much at St. Joseph's. Her many accomplishments include the introduction of new curriculum, assisting with the revitalization of our middle school program, and the establishment of a new full-day preschool program starting in the fall. I know that many have also appreciated her wonderful newsletters. In addition, student and staff retention are at very positive levels with a hopeful future ahead of us. Her administrative gifts will be missed.

A posting for a new principal has already been initiated with the Archdiocese; a hiring committee and process will be announced shortly. Further questions regarding this transition can be directed to our Parish Administrator, Patrick Menke at patrick.menke@churchofstjoseph.org.

Please join me in prayer and gratitude for Ginger, and for all those impacted in this forthcoming transition.

St. Joseph, pray for us,

Fr. Michael Creagan
