SAINT PATRICK SCHOOL
WHAT DO YOU LIKE ABOUT OUR SCHOOL?

We love our school family! Come join us and schedule your tour today. Call 715-386-3941 or email principal@stpatrickeducenter.org.

“St. Patrick’s helps prepare us for the future by teaching us much more than what’s in the textbook. At St. Pat’s we get more time from our teachers, including more one on one time. St. Pat’s teaches you to be kind and friendly to everyone. We learn more about our faith and we grow closer to God! I love St. Pat’s because we create amazing friendships that will last forever. The teachers help us learn at a higher grade level, and they care about you. They’re inviting, and willing to answer our questions. They make school fun and open us up to new experiences. Our priest, Father John, contributes a lot to the amazing environment at our school. He always is staying involved and checking on us. Father John teaches us how to be better people and his homilies are relatable, fun to listen to, and keep us involved. An example of this is when he asks us “What feast day is it today?” He also relates to us by talking about his childhood. There are so many other teachers that contribute to our school and make it fun, but Father John is a great example!”

-A 7th Grade Student

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JOHN

As I sit down to write this week I feel unsure what to write about. There are certainly many things I could address, but I seem to have a bit of a block. Maybe it is just a little burnout coming off our homily series titled “Breakfast with a Saint” and having had to compose a few additional homilies for funerals the last two weeks. I know there are many serious issues I could address, but admittedly am just not feeling this week like putting in the energy to do the research necessary or put in the effort needed to compose an article that requires careful thought and reflection. So I am going to offer a few updates and mostly likely let it go at that.

If you have been in church recently hopefully you noticed the flooring work that was done in the choir area, where we recently removed the carpeting. The concrete was then polished and stained similar to the sanctuary, but the color is slightly different to designate these two different areas. The hard surface will hopefully improve the acoustics for the musicians. This work is a part of our capital campaign project of re-carpeting the church. As long as they are able to get the new carpet in, they should begin work by the end of February or beginning of March.

This week were able to pick up a few new pieces (at least new for us) of office furniture. One of our parishioner’s place of employment was moving to a new location and were giving away a great deal of office furniture that is in like-new condition. With companies shifting to employees working from home, some are downsizing their offices. If you find your company doing this and they are giving away furniture, we would like to know. Sometimes we can make use of what others are giving away.

If you spend any time in our chapel for Eucharistic Adoration, you likely noticed before Christmas that we got a new monstrance. A monstrance is an open or transparent receptacle in which the consecrated Host is exposed for veneration. It comes from the Latin word “to show.” Actually, it is not new, we are borrowing it from the Carmelite Sisters here in Hudson. We have sent our monstrance away to be refinished. I am excited to see what it will look like when we get it back in about five or six weeks. When the tabernacle came back from being refinished, I couldn’t believe it was ours – it looks amazing. The Carmelite Sisters also gave us a reliquary to use for displaying our First Class Relic of Blessed Father Solanus Casey, which is also being refinished. We didn’t realize it was sterling until the company who does the refinishing picked it up. They are excited to work with it and believe it too will look incredible. (Perhaps the Carmelites may want it back then. :)

As I bring this week’s column to a close, maybe the real problem is I need to make a new year’s resolution not to wait until 7:45 PM the night before the bulletin article is due to write my column. The problem might not be “writer’s block” but procrastination. I will get right on next week’s column – right after I finish the other things I have put off.

NEW YEAR! NEW WAY TO HELP!

I GOT TIME! will have its first event of the new year on January 16 when our volunteers will make trays of lasagna for Hudson First Responders. We plan to give our public servants a night off from cooking by delivering yummy frozen lasagna for them to bake at home. These trays cost approximately $25 each for the quality ingredients. We have the volunteers to cook and assemble, but we sure could use some donations to defray the costs. We hope to raise enough funds for 60 trays! If you can help by donating $25 or more, please click the I GOT TIME! link on the parish home webpage, and sign up to sponsor a tray. There you will find the next link to donate electronically via WeShare. Thank you for showing appreciation to those who are always ready to protect and serve us. And Happy New Year from your friends at I GOT TIME!

Revived: The Eight Doors of the Kingdom - Meditations on the Beatitudes

Thursdays for 5 weeks (January 27 - February 24)
7:00 - 8:30 PM | Knights of Columbus Room/Zoom

Most of us know the 8 Beatitudes in the Gospel of St. Matthew are astonishing words of Jesus: a promise of everlasting happiness. But how many of us truly understand how being poor in spirit, meek, or especially persecuted will lead to everlasting happiness? Have you always wanted to learn what the Beatitudes mean, especially in our lives in the year 2022? Then join REVIVED for our next 5 week session where we will be reading the book by Fr. Jacques Philippe, The Eight Doors of the Kingdom, in which he shares with us a profound clarity to the full scope of meaning behind Christ's eight beatitudes, and in turn, outlines for us a way in which we can live them in our daily lives. We will learn how each beatitude gives insight into how we can situate ourselves in an honest and fulfilling relationship with God, with oneself, and with others, and how to confront head-on the difficult realities of life. We will combine reading and discussion of this book with some Scripture reflections and short videos from other well known faith leaders like Fr. Mike Schmidts and Bishop Barron to get a full understanding of the everlasting happiness Jesus promises each one of us by living the Beatitudes. To join this session of REVIVED, go to the Adult Discipleship page under the Formation tab on our website and sign up for this session.
