30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday is October 24. On this day, every parish, school and order celebrate World Mission Sunday and our baptismal call to bring the Gospel to all. This collection supports over 1,100 vulnerable communities worldwide. The year, we recognize an individual from our archdiocese, as an example, of those who have chosen a “witness of life” and are serving the poor and hungry in many areas. Join our brother and sisters and support mission dioceses, everywhere. Please be generous!

LAST SYNOD GROUPS

St. Patrick’s last Synod groups are Tuesday, October 26 at 7 pm at Joan Scheller’s and Wednesday, October 27 at 9:15 am at St. Patrick. Please participate!

PATRICK’S PANTRY

We give donations of food and personal hygiene products to Merrick Center. We cannot accept clothing. If you are in need of help, please contact Micheal Danielson at 651-341-5532, Jeanne Driscoll at 651-771-2500 or the Parish Office.

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus told the blind man, "Your eyes are healed because of your faith." Believe in the power of God. If you believe in him, God will help you. If you cannot see very well, he will send a doctor to give you glasses. If your mother's car breaks down, God will send a mechanic to fix it. If your father loses his job, God will find him a new one. God wants you to believe in him.

Giving as God does

Ask yourself this question — what would you pray for if you really believed God could and would do anything for you? In my experience, we all have something. We all have that miracle we're afraid to request, afraid we will be disappointed.

Do we doubt God's readiness to give because we ourselves have such an imperfect understanding of charity and love? Maybe if we had better faith in God we would be more ready to give of ourselves — and maybe if we were more ready to give of ourselves, we would understand more clearly the ways of God.

Because we're not really afraid that God can't do something. We know He can do anything. What we're afraid of is that He will do what He always does: give us what we need, not what we want.

Have you ever had a friend in need and you just wanted to give them something — a meal, a phone call, a text? Not because you knew it would help, but simply because you wanted to reach out. And have they ever said to you: It wasn't so much what you gave, but the fact that you did. You gave them what they needed even if it wasn't what they specifically asked for.

When we give in this manner, we are giving as God does. Sometimes we are afraid to ask because we don't want to be disappointed. But remember, the blind man on the road got what he asked for, but he would have gotten what he needed even if his answer had been the opposite. God's generosity is always reckless, and it's always perfect.
