The Pastor's Corner / Rincón del Pàrroco

Revelation 11:19a, 12:1-6a, 10 / 1 Corinthians 15:20-27 / Gospel, Luke 1:39-56

Belief in the assumption of Mary into heaven comes from the early tradition of the Church rather than the scriptures. The gospel selected, therefore, is of another event in the life of Mary, her visit to Elizabeth in the hill country of Judah, believed to be the village of Ein-Karim just 3 miles southwest of Jerusalem. Word of Elizabeth's pregnancy had reached relatives in Nazareth some 80 miles to the north in Galilee. Luke doesn't mention the problematic situation of Mary's pregnancy as does Matthew (Mt. 1:18-25), but we can imagine the gossip in the "fishbowl" of Nazareth, a small Jewish town of perhaps 250 people, where everyone presumed to know her situation of being pregnant prior to the wedding. It would have been a welcome opportunity for Mary to get out of town and spend some peaceful months with Elizabeth. Word was undoubtedly communicated to Elizabeth of Mary's upcoming visit, thus her awareness of Mary's situation as she arrives. Mary remained with Elizabeth for three months, the first trimester of her own pregnancy and the final third for Elizabeth. One can imagine these two women of great faith sharing conversation and prayer in those months. The "Magnificat," Mary's response to Elizabeth's greeting, is a beautiful combination of personal humility while being aware of her important role in God's plan.

Fr. Denny

Revelation 11:19a, 12:1-6a, 10 / 1 Corinthians 15:20-27 / Gospel, Luke 1:39-56

La creencia en la Asunción de la Beata Virgen María surgió de la tradición de la iglesia primordial, no de la biblia. Por eso, el evangelio seleccionado este domingo nos cuenta de otro evento en la vida de María, el de su visita a Isabel en la región montañosa de Judá, por tradición el pueblo de Ein-Karim situado a 5 km. al sureste de Jerusalén. Noticia del embarazo de Isabel ha llegado a sus familiares en Nazaret algunos 130 km. al norte en Galilea. Lucas no menciona la situación problemática del embarazo de María como lo indica Mateo (Mt. 1,18-25), pero podemos imaginar los rumores y chismes que ella sufría en pequeño Nazaret, un pueblito de no más de 250 habitantes, donde la gente presumía saber la situación de su embarazo antes de llegar a celebrar la boda. Para María habría sido una excelente oportunidad salir de allá y pasar algunos meses más pacíficos con Isabel. Se había comunicado a Isabel la noticia de la venida de María y de su situación. María se quedó con Isabel por tres meses, el primer trimestre de su propio embarazo y el final para Isabel. Podemos imaginar las conversaciones y oraciones de las dos mujeres santas en ese tiempo. El "Magnificatm," la respuesta de María a los saludos de Isabel, es una bella combinación de la humildad personal y reconocimiento de la importancia de su rol en el plan de Dios.

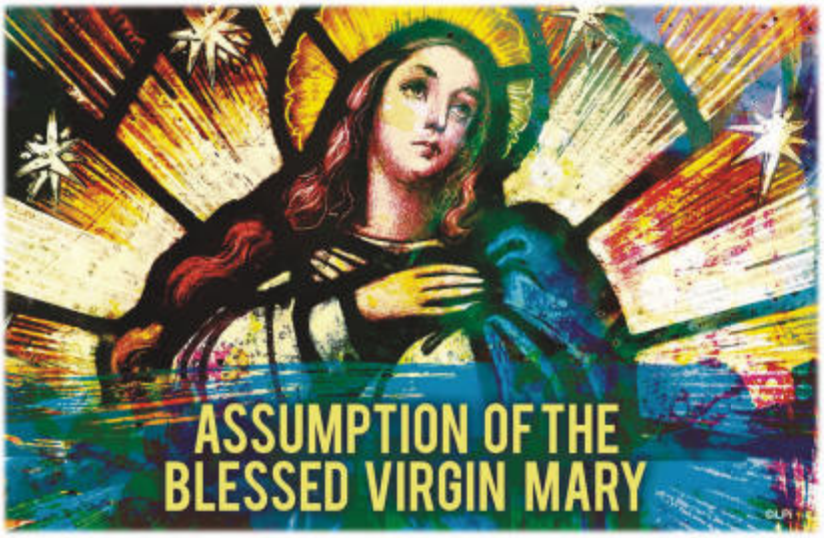
The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary



The Bible doesn't tell us very much about Mary. While all four gospels tell of her visiting Jesus in Capernaum, the only other reference in Mark's gospel is a comment from townsfolk during Jesus' visit to Nazareth: "Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary?" Matthew's gospel, written to people of the then male-dominant Jewish culture, mentions Mary at Jesus' birth and the flight into Egypt, but she has no speaking part, only Joseph. Luke's gospel, addressed to the more female-inclusive Greek culture, includes her conversation with the angel Gabriel at the Annunciation, her visit with Elizabeth, the presentation of baby Jesus at the temple, and her expression of anxiety on finding Jesus in the temple following the family's visit during Passover. John's gospel includes none of those accounts but adds the narrative of the wedding at Cana and places Mary at the foot of the cross, the only gospel to do so. The Acts of the Apostles mentions Mary along with a few other women and relatives present with the apostles in Jerusalem in the days following Jesus' Ascension. The New Testament letter do not mention her at all.

Although the Bible tells us nothing more about Mary, it was believed from early on that she had been assumed body and soul into heaven at the end of her earthly life. The devotion, known as the Dormition of the Blessed Virgin Mary, began in Jerusalem, spread throughout the Eastern Mediterranean region by the 6th century, and to Rome by the middle of the 7th century. In the 8th century, the celebration was renamed the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Nevertheless, it was not until 1950 on the feast of All Saints that Mary's assumption became an official teaching of the Church. Why then, you might wonder. It was the post World War II era. Much of Europe was coming under the influence of communist regimes whose doctrines denied the reality of God and life after this earthly existence. To emphasize that we are passing through this world toward "a dwelling in the heavens not made by hands but to last forever" (2 Corinthians 5:1), Pope Leo XIII chose that moment to promulgate the dogma of the Assumption to honor Mary and to remind us that we share a common God-given destiny with her in heaven.

Monday Mornings 9:30 a.m. - Noon

September 20 & 27
October 4 & 11

We are happy to announce that SALT will be back this fall. Out of an abundance of caution, the SALT Steering Committee decided to forgo the lunches for these upcoming fall sessions. Instead, we extended the coffee break between programs from 15 to 30 minutes. This means that the program will run from 9:30 a.m. until noon (12:00 p.m.). Since we will not be offering lunches this fall, there is only one price: $5 per person per Monday; walk right in, no pre-registration.

The new brochure is now available on the Risen Savior website. Look for the printed brochure soon. Contact: Marianne Brass at (952) 698-1714 or email marianne.brass@risensavior.org.

Ushers

As we return to normal, we find ourselves in need of ushers. Ushers help seat congregants, dismiss rows for Communion, and collect the offertory. Sacristans play a critical role in preparing for the Sunday liturgies. Their main tasks center around preparing the bread, water, and wine for the Mass, and cleaning up the vessels afterwards. They also usually assist in the administration of the Eucharist, but this is not required. Time commitment is approximately once every 3-5 weeks, depending on your choice of Mass time. Training is provided. If you have questions or would like to sign up, please contact Rebecca Dobias at rebecca.dobias@risensavior.org or call (952) 698-1725.

Celebrating the Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is the first step in a lifelong journey of commitment and discipleship. At Baptism we receive and celebrate God's free gift of grace and salvation through Jesus Christ. As the first Sacrament of Initiation, Baptism is also the sign of a lifelong relationship with God and with the Church. The next baptism date is September 26 during the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Parents must complete a preparation class prior to their child's baptism date. This class is offered virtually on the first Monday of each month from 7:00-8:30 p.m. For more information and to schedule a baptism, please visit our website "Sacraments" page or contact Grace Koleczek. Our team of parish volunteers serves a nutritious meal to the hungry in Minneapolis once a month. Upcoming dates are August 19, September 17, and October 21. New volunteers always welcome! Discussion of Beloved Child: A Dakota Way of Life

Throughout June and July, our parish hosted a Summer Read on Catholic Social Teaching and A Good Time for the Truth: Race in Minnesota, which is a compilation of essays written by Minnesotans of Color. Our book group desired to continue learning and conversing about the themes we started to break open. To continue the conversation, we begun discussing Beloved Child: A Dakota Way of Life by Diane Wilson. In this moving book, Wilson explores the work of several modern Dakota people who are teaching Dakota children to believe in the "genius and brilliance" of Dakota culture as a way of surviving historical trauma. All are welcome to join us, whether you participated in the Summer Read or not! Contact Grace for more information.

Parish "Mini-Pilgrimage" to the Angels Unawares Sculpture

Thursday, August 19 from 3:00-8:30 p.m.

Be welcoming to strangers, many have entertained angels unawares. (Hebrews 13:2)

Our parish is planning a "mini-pilgrimage" to the Basilica of St. Mary on Thursday, August 19 to join in prayer and learning about the issues that immigrants, migrants, and refugees face. Throughout the month of August, the Basilica is hosting a sculpture titled Angels Unawares on their plaza. This sculpture was commissioned in 2019 by Pope Francis, and it interprets our Christian belief that there is to be found the sacred in the stranger, including refugee and migrant people.

Even if you cannot make the entire event, we encourage you to join for part! This is a family-friendly event that parents/caregivers can choose to adapt for their children (with ideas for adaptation provided). Pilgrims will meet at Risen Savior at 3:00 p.m. to caravan to the Basilica and return back to the parish for shared supper. Grab a flyer in the Commons or visit www.risensavior.org/event/angels-unawares/ for a full schedule and sign-ups.

Una nota del pastor Denny:

La Asunción de la Beata Virgen María

La biblia no nos ensena mucho de la Virgen María. Aparte de su visita a Jesús en Cafarnaúm, la única referencia a ella en el evangelio de Marcos viene de un comentario por la gente de Nazaret durante la visita de Jesús: "¿No es este el carpintero, el hijo de María?" El evangelio de San Mateo, escrito a los de la cultura de dominio masculino de los judíos, menciona la presencia de María en el nacimiento de Jesús y la huida a Egipto, pero solamente José habla, ella no. San Lucas, dirigido a los de la cultura griega más abierta al rol de la mujer, incluye su conversación con el ángel Gabriel en la Anunciación, su visita a Isabel, la presentación del niño Jesús en el templo, y su expresión de ansiedad al encontrar a Jesús en el templo después de la celebración de la Pascua El evangelio de Juan no tiene ninguno de estos cuentos, pero incluye el narrativo de la boda de Cana y únicamente menciona la presencia de María al pie de la cruz. Los Hechos de los Apóstoles indica la presencia de ella y otras mujeres y familiares con los apóstoles en Jerusalén en los días después de la Asunción. Las cartas del Nuevo Testamento no la mencionan.

Aunque la biblia no nos cuenta más de María, fue la creencia común desde antiguo que Dios había asumido a ella, cuerpo y alma, al cielo al final de su vida terrenal. La devoción, conocido por el titulo la Dormición de la Santísima Virgen María, fue celebrada inicialmente en Jerusalén y, de allá, se difundió a toda la región del Mediterráneo oriental en el siglo 6º y a Roma en el medio del 7º siglo. Se cambió el título de la celebración a la Asunción de la Beata Virgen María en el 8º siglo.

Sin embargo, nunca llegó a ser un dogma oficial de la iglesia hasta la celebración de Todos Santos en 1950. ¿Por qué en ese momento? Tras el fin de la Segunda Guerra Mundial, una gran parte de Europa había caída bajo la influencia de los regímenes comunistas y su doctrina que negaba la existencia de Dios y la vida eterna. Para enfatizar que estamos pasando por este mundo hacia "una casa eterna preparada por nosotros en el cielo (2 Corintios 5,1), el Papa Leo XIII decidió promulgar el dogma de la Asunción de María para honrar a ella y recordarnos que compartimos un destino común preparado por Dios con ella en el cielo.

Mini-Peregrinación a la escultura Angels Unawares (Ángeles Desconocidos - El jueves, 19 de agosto de 2021 de 3:00 a 8:30p.m.

"No dejen de mostrar hospitalidad a los extraños, porque por ella algunos, sin saberlo, hospedaron ángeles". (Hebreos 13, 2)

La escultura "Angels Unawares" es una obra que muestra a migrantes y refugiados de todos los orígenes culturales y raciales, y de todos los períodos históricos juntos, hombro con hombro, en una balsa. Dentro de esta diversa multitud de personas, las alas de ángel son visibles en el centro, lo que sugiere que dentro del migrante y refugiado está lo sagrado. Durante el mes de agosto, la Basílica de Santa María en Minneapolis alberga la escultura. Todos están bienvenidos a irse con nuestra parroquia el jueves 19 de agosto para una tarde de oración y reflexión sobre las cuestiones en relación a los migrantes y los refugiados.

Si Ud. no puede irse por toda la tarde con nosotros, no hay problema. ¡Que venga a lo que pueda! Es un evento para toda la familia. Los peregrinos se reunirían en Risen Savior a las 3 p.m. para conocerse y recibir materiales para la peregrinación. Nos iremos de la Basílica a las 6:45p.m. para volver a Risen Savior y cenar juntos. Favor de tomar un volante cuando salga de la misa o visitar a www.risensavior.org/event/angels-unawares/ para ver el horario completo y para apuntarse. Hay que apuntarse antes del 13 de agosto.
