33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory. Take a moment to ponder these words from today's Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It's hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does he want us to align our wills to his in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out his children in love.

In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the "when" of death, the "what" of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord's coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared.

Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God's eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of his will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming.

*Heaven and earth will pass away;
but my words will not pass away.*

Stewardship 2021-2022

O God, I resolve to put you first in my life.

I recognize that you have blessed me with all that I have and all that I am.

As your steward, I resolve to sacrifice when necessary but always to do so out of a spirit of sincere love, just as your Son, Jesus, did for me.

I humbly accept the challenge to share from my means rather than from my excess.

I recognize that being a good steward is nothing more than being truly Christian.

Dear God, I resolve, to be generous with my time, talent and treasure, giving in proportion to the gifts I have been given.

I know there will be times when I will fail to be a good steward, but I pledge to keep on trying.

I will confidently live each day with a spirit of true peace and joy in knowing that I am doing your will.

Amen.

FROM THE PARISH ADMINISTRATOR:

Please remember to return your pledge forms!

The Risen Savior Annual Pledge Drive is underway. Letters went out to households this past week. The annual Pledge Drive helps Risen Savior plan for ministries and budgets. The drive also helps all of us be more intentional with our time, talents and treasure. Please return your pledge form.

Thank you so much for you time and your continued generosity. God bless.

Mike McNeil, Parish Administrator

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

GIVING UNTIL IT HURTS

In the time of Christ, sacrifice was nothing new to the Jewish people. The Israelites were experts at sacrifice. So, after centuries of every kind of offering imaginable, what was so special about Christ's? What made it so different from the sacrifices offered by the Levitical priests for centuries before his death?

Well, to adequately answer that question would consume whole volumes. And, of course, the first and most important reason is that Christ was the son of God and the savior of the world, not a random (if "unblemished") lamb offering. It was only by the blood of Christ that we could be redeemed.

But another answer is this: Christ's sacrifice cost him. In fact, it cost him everything. The offerings made by the Israelites through their priests cost them too, of course. They gave of their flocks, of their household stores, of their wealth. But Christ gave differently. He gave of himself. He gave until it was all gone.

Such is the highest form of stewardship: the gift of self to the point of discomfort. It can take a multitude of forms and I am not saying we are all called to be nailed to the cross. In fact, for most of us, our gifts will not involve physical discomfort at all. But certainly, stewardship demands discomfort. It demands that we go against our human nature of putting ourselves first, of thinking primarily of our own needs and desires. And most of all, it demands love. For that, above all else, distinguished the gift Christ gave us.

UPCOMING CATHOLIC WATCHMEN MEET: TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23 6:30-8:30 P.M. (BAYS)

The Risen Savior Catholic Watchmen is a group of men who gather monthly for prayer, fellowship, formation, and reflection. All men are invited to join!

This month's gathering we'll listen to speaker Matthew Kelly on The Seven Pillars of Catholic Spirituality. We'll learn about and discuss the pillars of the Bible, Fasting, Spiritual Reading, and the Rosary. We meet on the fourth Tuesday every month from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in the Bays at Risen Savior.

For more information and to RSVP, go to <https://risensavior.org/ministries/faith-formation/catholic-watchmen/>.

R.C.I.A.: The Rite of Acceptance And Welcome

This Sunday we celebrate the Rite of Acceptance and Welcome with our Anglo RCIA candidates at the 9:00 a.m. Mass and with our Latino RICA candidates at the 1:00 p.m. Mass.

This rite is the first time candidates publicly express their desire to journey in faith with our community as they discern sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation). In turn, our community accepts and welcomes them as part of our parish family.

Please hold our candidates in prayer!

Where Moms CONNECT

MOMS (Ministry of Moms Sharing)

Risen Savior MOMS Connect
Meets on Tuesday, November 16, 7:00-8:30 p.m.
(Bays)

All Risen Savior Moms are invited to our Ministry of Moms Sharing Tuesday, November 16 from 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the Bays.

Our mission is to provide a supportive, nonjudgmental, and encouraging environment to moms as we help each other live out our call to create faith-filled families.

We haven't gathered as a group since late September, and we're looking forward to seeing you again or meeting you for the first time! Our topic is Guilt-free Mom Time. For more information visit risensavior.org/ministries/faith-formation-moms-connect/.

ENVIRONMENTAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE MEETS NOVEMBER 17

Newcomers are welcome to join our committee this Wednesday, November 17 at 6:30 p.m. in the staff lunchroom. We'll share the committee's vision and discuss pending projects such as a possible grant-funded tree planting, book discussion, and parish-wide Lenten offering on food waste.

Contact Grace Koleczek with questions or for more information.

Volunteers with Holiday Cheer Needed!

In conjunction with the Faith Formation Giving Tree in support of 360 Communities' Birthday Bags, our parish Prison Ministry team will sponsor 25 children through Angel Tree, which is a program that provides Christmas gifts to children of incarcerated parents. We are looking for volunteers to help us:

- call caregivers to verify what gifts their children would enjoy (between now and November 15)
- wrap gifts (December 14-15)
- deliver gifts between (December 15-20).

If you are interested in helping us make this program a success, please sign up to volunteer at <https://risensavior.org/volunteer-opps/prison-ministry/> or contact Grace Koleczek. If you are interested in purchasing a gift for one of the 25 children we'll sponsor, the tags will be out the weekend of November 20-21!

SAVE THE DATE!

*Risen Savior Parish
Advent Evening of Reflection
Monday, December 13
6:30-8:00 p.m.*

While hard to believe, Advent is just around the corner, starting Sunday, November 28. Join our parish community for moment of pause as we reflect on the significance of this season in our lives.

More details to come!

GETTING READY FOR THE NEXT JEWELRY SALE

You are invited to shop for gifts or yourself at our Jewelry Sale after all Masses December 4-5.

All funds will go towards our committee's mission of educating our parish on the facets of trafficking and supporting agencies that actively work to end trafficking and support survivors.

Please join us in this prayer this month leading up to the sale:

O God, our words cannot express what our minds can barely comprehend and our hearts feel when we hear of people deceived and transported to unknown places for purposes of sexual exploitation and abuse because of human greed and profit at this time in our world. We cry out against the degrading practice of trafficking and pray for it to end. Strengthen the fragile-spirited and broken-hearted. Make real your promises to fill these, our brothers and sisters, with a love that is tender and good, and send the exploiters away empty-handed. Help us to overcome our reluctance, our divisions, and our feelings of powerlessness, so that we may stand as one in solidarity with our brothers and sisters in the human family. Together, open our hearts and hands and our minds to find a way to the freedom that is your gift to every child, every woman, and every man. We pray for it to end.

Amen.

33 Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

NO TE DEJES
ENGAÑAR

“El cielo y la tierra pasarán, pero mis palabras no pasarán” (Marcos 13:31). ¿Cuándo será el fin de los tiempos? No lo sabemos. El mismo Jesús lo afirma con las siguientes palabras en el Evangelio: “Por lo que se refiere a ese Día y cuando vendrá, no lo sabe nadie, ni los ángeles en el Cielo, ni el Hijo, sino solamente el Padre” (Marcos 13:32). Por aquello del miedo que muchas personas tienen hacia el fin del mundo, hasta consultan brujos y adivinos para saberlo. El día de hoy, la Palabra de Dios nos da la respuesta a estos interrogantes. Que nadie los engañe, solo Dios lo sabe y a nadie se lo ha dicho o revelado.

Por otro lado, estamos por concluir el Año Litúrgico y recorrimos el camino de Marcos en este ciclo B. El próximo domingo será el último y lo cerraremos con la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey. En quince días iniciaremos el Adviento con San Lucas en el ciclo C. Entonces, estemos listos, busquemos gente que nos guíe y no sigamos a cualquiera. La recomendación de Jesús, es siempre la misma: vigílense, estén atentos, oren y no se duerman, estén alertas como en el vigia en medio de la noche. Cada desastre en el mundo, como esta pandemia que ha dejado destrucción y muerte en muchas familias, nos pone en alerta en la vida y nos hace buscar al que es el Señor de la vida. El papa Francisco recomienda reflexionar en lo siguiente: “Será más que nunca el momento en el que nos abandonemos definitivamente al amor del Padre y nos confiemos a su misericordia (11-21-2018).
