GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 17 – Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

During my baseball career, my best coach often said, "You shouldn't be worried if I yell at you. Be worried if I don't. If I stop pushing you, it means I don't think you have any more potential." He demanded a lot, and I knew it meant he saw that I could be something special on the baseball field.

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week. "Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?" he asks, "No, tell you, but rather division" (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me—in fact, all the earth—to participate in the luminous glory of God. That's why he speaks of himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents' wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties. But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth of fire, we should be much more worried if he stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let's thank him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.

— Father John Muir, LPI

OCIA: An Invitation to Learn More About How to Become a Catholic

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA), formerly known as RCIA, is a process within the Catholic Church for adults to become Catholic and receive the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist). It involves a journey of spiritual formation, catechesis, and integration into the Catholic community.

Are you someone or do you know someone who . . .

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

The OCIA process is designed for adults who are unbaptized, baptized in another Christian tradition, or baptized Catholics who have not received all of the Sacraments of Initiation (Confirmation and Eucharist). It is a journey of faith that involves prayer, study, reflection, and sharing. Participants are encouraged to ask questions, share their insights, and tell their faith stories.

The sessions focus on various aspects of the Catholic faith, including Scripture, Church history, the Sacraments, morality, and prayer. The goal is to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the Catholic faith and to help them develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

The OCIA process culminates with the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation during the Easter season. This is a joyous occasion for the entire parish community as we welcome new members into the Church.

You are invited to participate in the OCIA process with your questions, your insights, and your faith story. We believe that everyone has something to contribute to the group.

If you are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith or in joining Risen Savior's OCIA process, please contact Ben Caduff at (952) 698-1724 or benjamin.caduff@risensavior.org. Classes will begin in October. We look forward to hearing from you and accompanying you on your journey of faith.
